

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your food is of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the price of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

TO ORGANIZE.

A Mass Meeting of Miners to be Held on Wednesday.

George Harris, ex-State President of the Miners and Laborers Unanimous Association, has met with so much encouragement that he has called a mass meeting of the mine employees to be held in Robbins' opera house, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of re-organizing the M. & L. A. A. Notice to that effect are being posted. Several prominent men will be in attendance to make addresses in the English, Polish, Lithuanian and Hungarian languages.

Daily Record.

A Hebrew peddler knocked at the door of William Patterson's home on West Oak street and when the door was opened brushed past the lady standing at the entrance. He did not stop until he entered one of the rear rooms. As he did so he dropped to the floor like a log. Mrs. Patterson hastened to the man's side and found he had fainted. In spite of the unfortunate condition of the peddler Mrs. Patterson and others who had entered the room were forced to laugh. Mr. Patterson was burned by an explosion of gas in the mines a short time ago and since then he has been confined to his bed with his head, hands and arms in bandages. Those about his head enveloped his face and only small openings are left for breathing and seeing. Just as the peddler turned from the hallway into the room his nose fell upon Mr. Patterson, who was sitting up in the bed, and his ghost-like appearance was too much for the intruder's nerves. After regaining his senses and realizing where he was the peddler hurriedly gathered up his pictures and ran out of the house. It is more than probable that he will hereafter look before he enters when on his peddling trips.

Election Points.

Don't vote early and often.
Tuesday, November 8th election day.
Dress warmly and avoid catching cold.
Make yourself familiar with the election ballot.

Vote early and get your neighbors to do likewise.

Don't try to make your mark in the Democratic circle.
Keep cool. Nothing is gained in quarreling with your neighbor because he differs with you politically.

"Dear old Shenandoah" is what many of the politicians call it now. At other seasons of the year it is "Hungarian City."

Making a "split" ticket under the Baker ballot law is risky. Many men lose their vote in doing it. The safest and easiest way is to vote straight.

The Shenandoah men will be "in it" this year because there are at least six candidates from among them on both tickets this year—Seitzer, Severn, Bierstein, Toole, Folmer and Doyle, and some of them are bound to win.

The Movement.

The old soldiers and several of the contributing societies are anxious that the monument project should go ahead and Chairman James has been urged to call the committee together to make plans for raising the necessary additional funds and making arrangements to have the monument erected and unveiled in 1894.

A Poisonous Scratch.

Chief Burgess Cress, of Girardville, is suffering from a painful injury to his hand. While lifting a box one of his fingers was scratched by contact with a nail. At first the injury appeared to be but a slight abrasion, but the hand has since become very sore and is almost powerless.

A New Production.

George H. Timmons, the popular Irish comedian, who is at present starring in "The Fairies' Well," will be seen in an entirely new production next season. The play is "The Kerry Fair," its author a young newspaperman of Brooklyn. Competent judges, who have read it, say it is a worthy successor to "The Fairies' Well."

All kinds of Legal Blanks for sale at the HERALD office.

Will Bring Suit.

One day last week Max Supowitz, the East Centre street merchant, had one of his ribs broken by reason of a wagon in which he was riding being struck by an engine at the Centre street crossing of the P. & B. railroad. On Saturday Mr. Supowitz engaged counsel to bring suit against the company for damages.

FRACKVILLE.

Some Interesting News From the Town Above the Plains.

Col. James R. Deegs, the courtly boniface of Ashland, has been hustling among the people here to have them support his candidacy on the Republican ticket for Prothonotary.

"Tim" Hurst, the incomparable umpire from Ashland, stopped long enough here on Wednesday to entertain some of his friends with anecdotes describing his experience as a league umpire.

Milton Longestorf and Moses Seifert, residents of the Climax Club on Thursday.

Dr. Charles Carr, of St. Clair, who had charge of Dr. Taggart's medical practice during that gentleman's trip to the World's Fair, has returned to his home. He made many friends here.

Miss Miller, of Ringtown, was the guest of her brother, Principal Miller, during the week.

The Climax Club held a very pleasant soiree in Burchill's hall on Thursday evening. Lansford, Ashland, Girardville and Pottsville were well represented and the young gentlemen of the club feel encouraged by the success which attended their efforts.

Principal Miller contemplates a change in the arrangement of our schools. By changing the several grades and making the High school course (four years) to include Latin, Greek and the higher mathematics, he hopes to give the boys and girls a chance to get a good education.

A very pleasant wedding party from Runklesdale was entertained at the residence of Martin Gotschall, on Nice street, on Thursday. The wedding party drove direct from Runklesdale to Frackville, where Mrs. Gotschall had an elegant banquet ready. Among the party were Mr. and Mrs. Hille, Messrs E. Gotschall, M. Mack, Ella Mass, Lizzie Gotschall and Katie Hannum and Messrs John Bugay, Patrick Mack, W. Gotschall, Francis Bonner and Bernard Jarklin.

We are pleased to report William Kalbach, who has been on the sick list for the past week, very much improved.

Praymaster Gray distributed the September checks on Friday. The pay was an unusually small one.

Nothing of any importance has yet developed in the O'Neill vs. Frackville school district case. The case is watched with great interest by the taxpayers.

The working of the plane and all branches leading thereto at night, instead of day time, has given employment to twice the number of men formerly employed. It doubles the pay roll in all departments of the coal business on the railroad.

The large plate glass window in Davis' drug store, destroyed by the storm of last week, has been replaced by a new one.

Daniel Duffy was a town visitor on Wednesday. While "Dan" had an eye to business he had a weak for politics, and if it is the thumb he'll try and land some of the Republican nominees on the safe side.

Thousands walk the earth today who would be sleeping in its bosom but for the timely use of Down's Elixir. 1m

MAHANOY PLANE.

Thomas Connors, who for the past few weeks has been a victim of typhoid pneumonia, is, we are pleased to learn, convalescent. East Bear Ridge slope, which has been idle for some time, resumed operations on Monday, giving employment to a number of laborers.

Tax collector Thomas Tierney is occasionally assisted in his arduous duties by constable Blake who never fails to catch his man.

Mrs. Richard Koch presented her husband with a little girl on Sunday.

A Little Hunting Incident.

Two of Shenandoah's "crack" gunners went over to Shabtown a few days ago on a hunting expedition, and the following conversation between them was overheard since their return:

"Say, ———, that was a dandy pheasant you shot up by the old farmer's shed, but you didn't stop to get him, did you?"

"No, I was afraid of the old man and his dog."

The farmer to his wife says: "Maria, what the deuce do you think? You know that old shanghai rooster I had stuffed and stuck on a pole and carried in the parade last election? Well, I put it out on the shed, and I'll be darned if that fellow that was out here from Shenandoah, who took the butter-milk, didn't shoot it for a pheasant, and cut down that apple tree I got from brother Jake!"
