

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It may be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

THE NEW HOUSE CHAPLAIN

Rev. Edward B. Bagley, a Campbellite, Succeeds Dr. Haddaway. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—The Democrats held a caucus last night to select a successor to the late Rev. Samuel W. Haddaway, the house chaplain. On the third ballot Rev. Edward B. Bagley, pastor of the Christian church of this city, was selected by a vote of 65 against 58 for Rev. Isaac Cantor, of the Mount Vernon Place Methodist church. Mr. Bagley, the successful candidate, was nominated by Representative Allen, of Mississippi, who is himself a Campbellite.

Can't Convince Sheriff McLendon. MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 1.—The trial of Eberett A. J. McLendon, charged with failure to perform his duty in preventing the lynching of a negro rapist who was taken from the county jail a few weeks ago, came to an abrupt termination. Out of 500 talesmen who were examined only one juror was secured. Finding it impossible to secure a jury, the state's attorney entered a nolle prosequi. One of the talesmen, who said the sheriff should have a gold medal for his conduct, was fined $10 and sent to jail for ten days for contempt. The mob leaders have been released.

J., employed as a guard by the United States Express company. The shooting was probably accidental, although there is said to have been bad feeling between the men. Alwood was arrested.

Fatal Fire in a Boarding House. PITTSBURGH, Nov. 1.—Fire in a boarding house kept by Mrs. Mary Magee, on Walnut street, caused great excitement among the boarders, escape by the stairway being cut off by the occupants were awoken. HER ELEGANT CAPE.

HOW ONE WOMAN MADE A SAVING OF $9.00.

Hints for Those Who Like to Dress Well—No Need of Looking Shabby, Even Though Times Are Hard—The Secret Told by One Who Knows.

These fashionable capes with a triple collar, are looked at with longing eyes by many a woman. But times are hard, and economy is both a virtue and a necessity.

One woman solved the problem, most satisfactorily by coloring her old drab cloth circular a rich, handsome brown, with a package of diamond dyes, thus actually getting a ten dollar cape for ten cents.

The druggists report a greatly increased sale of diamond dyes this fall, and say they have completely superseded the old-fashioned methods with logwood, fustic, indigo, etc. On each envelope is printed full directions, so plain and explicit that any one can use these dyes with perfect success.

For nearly a score of years diamond dyes have been helping women to dress well at small expense, and it is natural that their great success should have brought many short-lived imitations upon the market. These would claim to make fast colors, but the light fades them; they adulterated their dye to make the package look large, but actual use proved they could color less than half as much as the diamond; and offering a large profit, they secured agents or peddlers to sell them, but a woman never bought them a second time.

Diamond dyes come in nearly fifty colors, specially prepared for wool, silk, and cotton, a ten cent package coloring from one to ten pounds of goods. No other dyes are so strong, nothing else so simple, and none so fast and true in color. No woman can afford to risk her goods with imitations, especially when the original diamond dyes are admittedly far superior.

OBSE'S OBSERVATIONS. What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.

Since the Lakeside Electric Railway Company has commenced cutting Centre street down to lay its road at the regular grade a number of property owners have become very much agitated. One of them said yesterday that it would have been much better had the borough officials allowed the company to put the rails down at the old grade. The borough will be put to great expense in cutting down the street to the grade of the road and the curbs of several properties may require alterations. The cutting down reveals some foolish old-time notions of grades.

From now until next Tuesday the people may expect to hear little beside politics. As the day for the decisive battle draws near the candidates become more active and their respective friends more warm in their arguments. There will be hard fights between some of the candidates and the list of visiting politicians to this town will be a long one. Whoever candidate fails will not have occasion to call himself to task for failing to work.

A dramatic correspondent has opened an attack against the use of profanity in plays in the following manner: "The frequency of the word 'damn' in the modern farce-comedy and melodrama," he says, "is offensive to refined ears, and dignifying even to those who hear it often because of the usually cultured environment of the theatre. The man who would burst out the word 'damn' in a parlor or drawing-room would bring down the pitying scorn of the mental who takes his hat and coat at the door. There ought to be a line drawn somewhere by the profession on this sort of thing. If there is no amendment the theatrical business will be hurt by it, and theatres that permit such lapses stand in imminent risk of being shunned by a large number whose patronage is popularly supposed to be desirable."

Parents should bear in mind the fact that their children will get little good from the instruction given in the school room, unless they are regular in attendance. The child who attends school every day will be in advance of his comrades who may be brighter by nature, but who has been irregular in his attendance. Absence for any other reason than sickness, says an exchange, should not be permitted; if it is, the child will know little more at the close of the term than at the beginning. Many parents seem unable to grasp this truth. We know men and women, usually the latter, to complain bitterly that their children were not advancing when they were in the habit of missing from two to five days every month. It was their irregularity that was the fault, not the teacher, who was faithful and competent.

A single trial of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will convince any one troubled with constipation, torpid liver or any kindred diseases of their curative properties. They only cost 25 cents per bottle.
