THE COMING ELECTIONS

The Struggle for Supremacy in Ohio and New York.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS CONFIDENT.

They Claim That Their Victory Is Assured-The Ohio Republicans, on the Other Hand, Say They Will Give Me-Kinley a Majority of 25,000, CINUINNATH, Nov. 6, - Tomorrow the electors of the state of Ohio will choose a governor, liculement governor, state treas-urer, attorney general; judge of the su-preme cours, member of the board of public works and food and dairy commissinuar on the state ticket, and on the county tickids they will choose members of the senate and house of representatives forming the general assembly and county officers. There are also two amendments to the constitution to be voted on, one providing for single representative dis-tricts in countles where more than one representative is elected, and the other a taxation amendment.

The Republicans have practically re-nominated their present state officers, which brings Governor McKinley and Identenant Governor Harris as candidates for a second term. The Democratic nomines for governor is Lawrence T. Neal, of Rose county, and for Heatenant governor W. A. Taylor, of Franklin county.

From the character of the nominations

From the character of the nominations for governor, it has necessarily almost been a campaign based on national issues. Governor McKinley's connection with the present tariff has naturally brought him to the discussion of the principle of protection, and his campaign speeches have been largely devoted to that subject. On the other hand Mr. Noal, from his position of author of the tariff plank in the last Democratic platform, has seent much of Democratic platform, has spent much of his time on the stump to contraverfing McKinley's protection argument and en-forcing his own views in favor of a tariff for revenue.

The Republicans from the beginning have claimed the election of McKinley by majorities ranging from 25,000 to 60,000, attaough Harrison's plurality last year (with which comparison will be made) was only 1,072.

The Democrats do not concide these claims. Chairman Source of these claims.

The Democrats do not concele these claims. Chairman Seward, of the Democratic state committee, states that he has made no estimate of the result, and that he will not do so. He will only say that he is hopeful of making a good showing, and that he thinks the Democrats will carry the legislature, as he thinks they will win in Hamilton and Chuyshoga counties.

Chairman Dick, of the Republican state committee, also declines to give an exti-mate, but it is learned that the committee feels as certain of carrying both branches of the legislature as they do of electing McKinley. The Prohibition party and Populists each have state tickets in the

New York, Nov. 6.—The whole issue of the present campaign in this state seems to have been in the nomination of Isaac H. Maynard for associate judge of the court of appeals by the Democracy. National issues have been almost entirely ignored, and aside from an occasional mention of the financial troubles that have so seriously racked the country for months past, and the action of the United States senate in holding back the repeal of the so called Sherman silver bill, nothing has been heard of the questions which have so been heard of the questions which have so prominently agitated all sections.

The opposition to Judge Maynard has been of such a nature that all else was lost to sight, and vividly recalls the charges made against him in 1801. In that year several legislative seats were contested after the election. The returns from the Fitteenth senatorial district were received at the office of the secretary of state. It is claimed by his gronoments were reserved at the office of the secretary of state. It is claimed by his opponents that Judge Maynard in his official capacity unlawfully removed from the office of the secretary of state the election returns sent there by order of the supreme court. The result of the context in the courts practically sustained Judge Maynard and gave the Democratic party a majority one in the state senate, giving them a complete control of every department of

For the first time in several years the Democrats have had to defend their can-didates, and this they have loyally done. Sanguine Republicans go so far as to claim a sweeping victory for their whole ticket but the more conservative of both parties believe that the Democrats will have a legislative majority on joint ballot, while the Democrats themselves say their victory is assured.

Congressman Chipman's Successor. DETROIT, Nov. 6 .- An election will be held in this city tomorrow for municipal for a successor to Judge J. Logan Chip-man, who until his death a few months ago represented the district in congress. The campaign has been one of the hotsest and most exciting that has been fought in and most exciting that has been fought in Detroit for many years. Opposed to Hagen S. Pingres, the present the uniform of the mayoralty chair, who has thrice been nominated by the Reguldicans for that position, is Marshall H. Godfrey, the Dem-ocrate candidate. For congress the Dem-ocrate have nominated Levi T. Griffin, a prominent lawyer, while James H. Stone United States internal revenue collector is the clodes of the Republicans.

Both Sides Chaim Lown. DES MOINES, Nov. 6.—The licket to be roted in lower tomorrow is for governor, lieutenant governor, superintendent of public instruction, railway commissioner judge of supreme court, together with a full lower house of the general assembly and a majority of members of the uppe and a majority of members of the upper house. The legislative ticket is considered of great importance, as at the next session a successor will be elected to succeed Sen-ator Wilson, whose term expires in 1865. At the Republican headquarters they claim a plurality for Jackson of 1,500. The Democrats are equally confident of the election of Governor Boiss and the remain-der of their ticket. They feel that Prohi-bition disaffection will deplete the Repub-lican ranks.

The Fight Against Judge Gary. CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Interest in the courie election in Chicago and Cook county is tense. The officials to be elected are coun the or detaining beer kees will be prosecuted between the friends and indices of the appear and circuit courts. There has been a full in the talk of the income tax during the week, but it is extendent that those who favor it have not been tille. Mr. Bryan, of Nebraska, a member of the committee, says that he is devoting much of his time to the income tax peoposition. He thinks that he is making converts for it in the committee, and hopes to have it reported as a revenue raising feature of the tariff bill. Other members of the committee say that it will be impossible now to cut the duries to that extent that many people seem to think should dedone, and they give out the impression that so. many prople seem to think should do done, and they give out the impression that so far from being such a radical measure as once presided: it will be a mild reduction all around, without any heavy cuts on anything and with a free list not so largely increased as has been talked of. Indeed, increased as has been finited at. Indeed, some members are opposed to enlarging the free list to any extent, except in a few unimportant articles, and especially when the revenues of the government are in their present condition. There is now talk about a reduction apon coal and from ore instead of againing both of these articles to the few list. to the free list.

It is true that in all that has been such about the tariff bill nothing officially has been given out except the statement of Chairman Wilson that the first draft of the customs part of the bill had been completed. Mr. Wilson said the day that congress adjourned that he wanted to work fifteen hours a day on the bill until it was ready to be reported and be then hoped to make such progress, that congress would be willing take it up soon after reassemhe willing take it up soon after reassem-

There was an impression among many There was an impression among many of the members that very little could be done with the tariff bill, even if it were ready to be reported to the house the first day of the session, until after the holiday adjournment, because of the senate members and the difficulty of maintaining a quarum of Democrats in the house until after the holidays. Thursday night when the fillbushering was in progress over the the filibustering was in progress over the question of agreeing to the Wilson resolution providing for the time of reporting the tariff bill, Mr. Oates, of Alabama, re-marked that this was the first of a series of scenes that would be witnessed while the tariff bill was before the house, and the farm bill was before the house, and the Republicans have already given an in-dication of their line of policy of ferring a quorum of lignocrats at all stages of the tariff leadanton. Mr. Cares declared that he thought the wisdom of counting a quorum would be apparent before the bill was through the sense, and expressed regret that this provision had not been made a part of the rules of the house.
