

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It may be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and Indispensable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a striking difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

A German Democrat Cuts His Neighbors To Order.

EDITOR HERALD:—What for shall me and the other German Democrats vote for Jack Toole, Paddy Mulholland and all the Irish men on the ticket this year? Don't they remember the fight last year when the Sunday News and these Irish politicians said that the Germans could do what they didn't think was right or not stand by the Irish Democratic ticket or go to school? I was one of the German Democrats who kicked against them last year and this year I am kicking just as hard as ever. For good many years too often these Irish Democrats took us for fools just like we were in a carpenter shop and when we became dull and refused to do any more work they stuck up their noses and told us to go to school. They think the Dutch don't want nothing at all but vote all the time every year for the Irish. Last fall two years ago we asked for a Judge, but they knocked out George Wadlinger and put up an Irishman. Last spring we asked for a Chief Burgess and one or two Councilmen and some School Boards, but they knocked out all our men and elected all the Irish and after the election they laughed at and said the Dutch are no good, anyway. The Dutch are as good as the Irish anyway, and can make better men for Council and Pottery than the Irish do. It is long time ago the German Democrats ought to do what the Polish and Lithuanians say this year that the Irish are no good and they only use the other people for what they can squeeze out. I have been a German Democrat all my life until three years ago when I see I can't do anything for my vote. Now I vote for Cleveland and all those kind of fellows but for Schuykill county and Shenandoah I vote straight all the time for the Irish and I hope all my friends in the Fifth ward will like myself do the same. Every time there is an election we must get back and let the Irish step in and they tell it all the time "next year next year" and every year it is next year and next year never comes. I am disgusted and every German Democrat in the county is also disgusted just the same and if they don't turn in this year and do what they should they will never have an office. I am pleased to see that so many of the German Democrats feel what I say and I hope they will feel that way next Tuesday. We must turn in with Polish Democrats and show these Irish Democrats that they can't get nothing when we don't want to vote for them.

MAHANOY PLANE.

The employes of Bear Ridge collieries were paid Wednesday.

Miss Kate Mahon, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mrs. Jno. F. O'Riordan.

Miss Nora McGrath arrived home Wednesday, after a few months' stay in the City of Brotherly Love.

On Monday night burglars entered and ransacked the post office but succeeded in obtaining very little booty. Not being satisfied, they visited Garber's confectionery store and got away with some loose change. They also tried to gain entrance to O'Connor's grocery store but were not successful. It was certainly a night out for the thieves.

It was amusing to listen to several young men on one of the street corners few evenings ago discuss what they intend buying their lady friends for a Christmas present. One fellow admitted that he had already begun to save for the occasion, while another regretted having spent so much money for ice cream during the summer, "but," he added candidly, "such is life."

Anthony Hobin has for several months past been anxiously awaiting the arrival of a 34-year-old relative in Australia. The lawyer whom Mr. Hobin had employed to look after his interests arrived here Saturday evening with the money and made all necessary preparations for its payment the following day. As Sunday transactions are not recognized in law it was agreed to wait until Monday. In the meantime the lawyer disappeared and has not been heard from since. Any information concerning his whereabouts will be thankfully received by Mr. Hobin.

Vote for John E. Doyle for Auditor.

GILBERTON.

John T. Davis, of Walnutport, visited friends in town on Tuesday.

Miss Eliza Gleason, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, of town.

John Campbell, who was burned at Draper colliery some time ago, is able to be around.

Payments were made at Draper and Gilberton collieries on Tuesday last. The town presented a holiday appearance on Tuesday night. The usual number of fights took place.

The committee of the P. M. church are hard at work beautifying the grounds surrounding their church. It is their intention to hold their picnic there next summer instead of going to Lakeside.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill, of St. Nicholas, parents of our well known tea merchant, were interred at Mahanoy City on Thursday. Mrs. O'Neill died on Sunday and was to have been buried on Wednesday, when Mr. O'Neill, who had been ailing for some time, died. Her funeral was postponed until Thursday, when both were interred. This singular feature connected with this double affliction is that the death of Mr. O'Neill was unlooked for. The family have the sympathy of many friends in their double bereavement. A large number of people from town attended the funeral which was one of the largest ever proceeding from St. Nicholas.

Downs' Elixir will cure any cough or cold no matter of how long standing.

A First Class Auditor.

John E. Doyle, of town, is undoubtedly one of the most expert auditors in the state. If elected he will show the people of Schuykill county what has become of "mystery" $30,000. As he is an intelligent and respectable young Shenandoah man, our citizens should remember him to-morrow and give him a complimentary vote.

MISS AWAY.

For sixty days Keagy's, the photographer will give a 10x12 platinum picture with every dozen of his $3 cabinets.

Something Crooked.

It is said there is something "crooked" with the finances of this county. Vote for John E. Doyle, your townswoman, who is an expert auditor, and he will expose it all.

MAHANOY VALLEY NOTES.

FRACKVILLE.

I. K. Witmer, of Lansford, was a town visitor during the week.

We regret to report the illness of Miss Sarah Haupt of Nies street.

William Kallaeh, one of the clerks in the shipper's office, has been ill for the past two weeks.

Colonel James Deegan, of Ashland, who would not seriously object to being elected Prothonotary, was a town visitor on Tuesday.

Farmer Crosswell and family have moved to Grantsville for the winter. This is an indication that Mr. O's, goose house foretells a severe season.

William Oaks has purchased the Kurtz property on Nies street and the painters are now busily engaged in improving the appearance of the houses.

Charles Gotschall, who a week ago while handling an air gun, shot himself in the right foot, is about again and will resume his position on Monday.

Druggist Davis has replaced the large plate glass window blown in by the storm with a new plate glass. There are now two glass windows where it had but one before the storm.

The new school building is now under roof, and with its red shingles, presents a fine appearance. Every effort will be put forth to have the building ready for occupancy as soon as possible.

Prof. Miller is re-arranging the grades of our schools and hopes to place the High school, by the introduction of Latin, Greek and the higher mathematics, on a footing with any school in this county.

The P. & E employes are making big time. Last month one of the level hands made 475 hours, or an average of very nearly 20 hours for each working day. Four hours a day rest for one month is rather little.

The opening of the hunting season on Wednesday was signalled by the tramp of an army of shooters at the break of day off for the woods.

Mrs. L. Haupt, of the farm, mother of the Haupt brothers, celebrated her 83rd birthday on Tuesday. Mrs. Haupt is one of the youngest women in the county for her years, and her numerous friends wish her many happy returns of the day.

POLITICAL POINTERS.

A Few Passing Thoughts on the Exciting Campaign.

To-morrow will be election day.

The indications are that the Democratic ticket will suffer a severe frost this fall.

Councilman Gable will be a candidate for Receiver of Taxes in the spring.

Up to date the Polish and Lithuanian vote is undisturbed. These people are for Bierstein and the full Republican ticket and the Republican who has any consideration for the welfare of his party will toe the same scratch.

Thomas E. Samuels, one of the Republican candidates for the position of County Auditor, was a visitor to town yesterday.

The "sky-light" played a small part in the present campaign. Shortall led a too lively chase, and Toole had to keep on the ground floor.

The Polish and Lithuanian voters of the county are more intelligent than the Democrats gave them credit for. For a number of years they have been fed upon promises, but when they were refused a representation upon the borough police force they decided to desert the Democratic party and vote the ticket that contained the name of one of their own nationality. To do otherwise would be against their own interest as well as base ingratitude.

One remarkable feature about the present campaign is noted in the fact that all factions are working in perfect harmony. The result will be apparent in the increased Republican vote to-morrow.

The Democratic newspapers and candidates style Candidate Bierstein as No. 36. The latter's Polish and Lithuanian friends will resent the insult in no uncertain tones at the ballot box.

There are between 1,500 and 1,800 Polish and Lithuanian votes in the county, and nine-tenths of them will support the Republican nominees.

Every man for himself appears to have been the rule in the Democratic camp. It is acknowledgment of their former hopes.

We've got them on the run.

The Republicans of Shenandoah are solid for the ticket, and to-morrow's vote will prove the assertion.

Jack Toole is a defeated candidate. All signs point that way.

Our rosters are fattening for the Jubilee.

Bierstein's handwriting is perfection itself, but his orthography, grammar and political affiliation are not anyway near the mark. He will be beaten.—Sunday News. Well, well! If Bierstein's handwriting will defeat him, will the Doyles kindly inform a suffering public where his appointments (Mulholland) orthography will land him after the present campaign of education?

Vote the straight Republican ticket. There is danger in a "split" ticket, besides the candidates upon the Republican ticket, from Judge to Surveyor, are worthy of your vote and are superior in every way to their Democratic opponents.

Vote the straight Republican ticket to-morrow.

When General Pope and his army met the rebels at Bull Run, Fitz John Porter with 15,000 troops refused to go into battle when ordered and the Union army was beaten. The blood of thousands of Union soldiers is on the hands of that traitor to this day and no act of Congress can replace it. To-morrow the Republicans of Schuykill county will be called into action. If they march to the polls like men the enemy will be routed from every office to be contested for. If we have enough Fitz John Porters, we can be defeated. The go-it Democratic time now upon us with more of it coming ought to warn every Republican to be at the polls. Leaving out the matter of duty and of honor and putting it as a question of dollars and cents there is not a farmer or mechanic, or merchant, or manufacturer, or a common day laborer, who has made one-half as much in any work for the last year, as he can make by going to the polls to-morrow and voting the Republican ticket.

"The Power of Woman."

Madame and (her son) Augustin Neuville appeared before a crowded audience at the Grand opera house last evening in a scenic production of "Power of Woman." This play which was dramatized by Madame Neuville from one of T. S. Henshaw's popular novels, abounds in strong telling situations, and is full of interest, being heightened by realistic scenery, magnificent mechanical effects, and powerful illuminations.—Boston Globe, Aug. 29th. Old Resident to Go.

Andrew Morrison, an old resident of town and for many years engaged in the meat market business at the corner of Lloyd and Bowers street, will give up his residence here in a few days and move to Summit Hill, Carbon county, where he has purchased a meat market from one William Snyder. Mr. Morrison has sold his business here to C. G. New and the property has been purchased by A. Melusky & Son, the East Centre street grocers.

There are many common ailments sold by these is only one great pain cure for all forms of Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises and all bodily pain. Its name is Red Flag Oil. Costs 25 cents. Sold at P. P. D. Kiffin's Drug store.

Vote for Toole.

The voters of Shenandoah will make no mistake in voting for John J. Toole, the Democratic candidate for Clerk of the Courts. He was a resident of the town for over thirty years and during that residence was always looked upon as a genial, whole souled man with a good word and open hand for everybody. Since he has been in office at Pottsville he has always been a courteous and competent official and all residents of Shenandoah, irrespective of their party affiliations, have always found him most cordial in their treatment of them. In short, according to their own words, "They have always found Jack Toole's office a first class place in which to hang up their coats." 11-9-11
