

Evening Herald.

Published Daily, Sunday Excepted. Weekly, Every Saturday.

Subscription Rates: In Advance, 10 Cents Per Week; In Advance, 60 Cents Per Month; In Advance, 5 Dollars Per Year.

Advertising Rates: 10 Cents Per Line, First Insertion; 5 Cents Per Line, Subsequent Insertions.

Entered at the Postoffice, at Shenandoah, Pa., for transmission through the mails as second-class matter.

Republican State Ticket.

Supreme Judge, Hon. D. Newlin Fell, Philadelphia.

Republican County Ticket.

Additional Law Judge, Wm. D. Seitzer; Treasurer, Daniel Deichert; Prothonotary, James M. Deegan; Clerk of the Courts, Alfred J. Shortall; Recorder, Ficus W. Bierstein; Register, Charles C. Mattern; Controller, Benjamin B. Sevier; County Commissioners, Frank Bents, Charles P. Allen; Director of the Poor, Jacob Day; County Auditor, Emanuel Jenkyn; County Surveyor, Joseph W. Gray, Jr.

The straight Republican ticket. If you have not yet voted, do so without delay. Vote the full Republican ticket.

Orro will be in line with at least 50,000 Republican majority. It may reach 75,000.

This is a Republican year. Help to swell the tide for good times and good wages.

Republicans put a cross (X) in the circle over the column on the ballot marked "Republican."

There is a time for all things, and November 7 is the time to vote a straight Republican ticket.

Scratch your ticket. If the X wins this year it will be the advantage of the Republicans.

Pennsylvania, with her 100,000 Republican majority, will serve as an example to the rest of the country.

Republican victory is certain. If Republicans do their duty, the straight and you will make no mistake.

The greatest owner of poverty tenement in New York city is the famous "Big Boy" church. Some of these places do not fit for a respectable hog.

The New York Press is a good work in exposing them.

The Free-Trade means the annihilation of the industrial army of the unemployed. This is what Democracy stands for.

If you know any Republican who doesn't realize the importance of administering a stinging rebuke to the present inefficient and imbecile Democratic Congress, do some talking to him. Show him that the Republic is in danger.

The good Republican goes to the polls, gets a ticket from the electioneer, goes into the booth, puts a cross mark inside the circle on the Republican ticket, refoils the ballot and votes it. The proceeding is a very simple one.

If he puts a mark inside the circle, that votes the whole ticket. It is equivalent to putting a mark inside the squares at the right of each candidate. There are two marks to vote. One to mark in the circle, the other to mark in the square.

The safe way is simple.

The marking is done in the circle on other marks are needed. If the marking is done in the square no marks should be put in the circle.

At Yonkers, N. Y., on October 29, there were 5,000 workmen who were dependent upon help or charity for their existence, and each one of whom was able to support himself a year ago. The carpet factories there are closed and the hat factories have thrown 1,500 men out of employment. A subscription list has been opened, and over $1,200 was subscribed in one day to establish a soup kitchen for the starving poor. This is the result of having a Soup House Administration. Vote the Republican ticket to-day.

Grover Cleveland and his free trade Congress are in daily conspiracy to destroy our protective system.

The fears of the result have closed hundreds of mills and factories, made millions of dollars worth of capital idle and unproductive, and thrown out of employment and reduced to want hundreds of thousands of men, and brought want and misery to their wives and children. Such distressing times have not been experienced before by the present generation. If all has come about by the threats made in the Democratic national platform against the protective system. In this condition of the country it becomes the duty of every Republican in our state to speak out by his vote, and say that on this issue Pennsylvania stands on the rock of her ancient political faith, and will never move from it.

Use of Deadly Weapons.

The ordinary man who carries a revolver or other firearms in his pocket is not only committing a crime against society, but is branding himself a coward. Not long ago Judge B. S. Cullin of Cumberland county, in the address of constables at the opening of court said:

"You constables can do nothing better than arresting men and young boys who carry loaded pistols in their pockets ready to whip them out on the slightest provocation and perhaps shoot perfectly innocent people. A man has no constitutional or moral right to carry concealed weapons on all occasions; and I will say to you, whether or not I be criticised, that if you do your duty in arresting boys and men carrying revolvers I will see that no costs are imposed on you. I am informed by the officers of Carlisle that you can walk down our streets on any Saturday evening when they are crowded and meet 500 persons who have in their pockets pistols loaded and ready to be pulled out, with men, women and children near who are liable to be killed. Let us make an effort to stop this practice, that people may ride on cars and sit on their door steps without exposing themselves to danger."

Newark's City Clerk Arrested. Newark, N. J., Nov. 7.—Constable Moskoff arrested City Clerk, who was at his office yesterday. The warrant was issued by Judge Rodrigue on a complaint charging the city clerk with misdemeanor. He refused to appoint challengers for the Citizens' party. O'Connor was admitted to bail in the sum of $500.

Frederick's Trial Postponed. Frederick, Md., Nov. 7.—Mayor Harrison's assassin, Frederick, appeared for trial yesterday, but upon the request of attorneys secured for him by his brother, a letter carrier, the case was continued by Judge Damm until Nov. 27. His lawyers are R. A. Wade, of Chicago, and Robert Essex, of St. Joseph, Mo.

Murdered for Five Hundred Dollars. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Polander, who was found murdered on the roadside near Port Griffith, had been identified as Andrew Poliski. He was on his way to Europe, and had over $500 in his possession. When found, the money was gone.

Stock and Produce Markets. Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchange.

New York, Nov. 6.—Prices moved irregularly on the stock market today. There was another professional attack, followed by variable recovery. Closing list: Lehigh Valley... 104; Reading... 104; St. Paul... 104; Lake Erie... 104; Erie... 104.

For the Good of Others.

Rev. Mr. Williams Heartily Endorses Hood's Sarsaparilla. We are pleased to present this from Rev. A. Williams, of the Stillbee street Christian Church, Lynn, Mass. I have no reason why a clergyman, more than a layman, who knows what he speaks, should hesitate to approve an... Article of Merit. From which he or his family have been signally benefited, and whose commendation may serve to extend these benefits to others by increasing their confidence. My wife has for many years been a sufferer from severe Nervous Headache for which she found little help. She has tried many things that promised well but performed little. Last fall a friend gave her a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cured her. The attacks of headache decreased in number and were less violent in their intensity. Her general health has been improved. Her appetite has also been better. Hood's Sarsaparilla.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

OF THE Board of Health of Shenandoah, Pa.

Preservation of Public Health.

AND TO PREVENT THE Spread of Communicable Diseases.

SECTION 1. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

BANQUING BY-LAW.

The Tributes of Liverpool's Mayor to Our Ambassador.

Hon. P. A. Collins on Free Trade. He Declares that the Abolition of Customs Duties is So Far Remote as Not to be Thought of Seriously by the Present Generation.

Liverpool, Nov. 7.—The Liverpool Mayor has banqueted at the Town Hall last evening in honor of Mr. Thomas F. Bayard, the American ambassador.

Responding to the toast to his health Mr. Bayard said that he was proud of the courtesy extended him by the lord mayor and the municipal authorities of Liverpool because of the representative office he held. He felt that international courtesy was the basis of all international relations. This was not realized to the extent that civilized nations agreed to execute the laws of friendly nations within their own borders when this could be done without injury to their own interests. The strongest feeling that he experienced on coming to England was that every advantage should accrue to this country that was not prejudicial to his own. If the doctrine of equality was properly expanded it would form a grand bond of union between all mankind and would cause the extension of the best principles of Christian civilization. He knew of no country with which he was so anxious to see the principle of equality established and applied in every possible kind of contract as England.

General Patrick A. Collins, the United States consul general, responded to the toast, "The Commercial Interests of Both Countries." General Collins mentioned the fact that trade had improved in the United States, and said that its renewal would be felt here if Englishmen showed themselves to be as wise as their American countrymen. The action of Congress in repealing the silver purchasing law had simplified the situation. Manufacturing concerns were reopening and buying and selling in the United States was beginning again in the old fashion. The speaker said he noticed on this side a mistake in opinion was held as to what future legislation in the United States was like to be. He would be glad to see the tariff legislation which would ever tariff legislation might be projected it would not be in the interest of Europe, but of the American people. Their first sentiment was patriotism. National patriotism was selfish. They had not been without it in England, and nobody found fault.

And sometimes been charged on this side of the water that the legislation to be re-enacted by Congress would be free trade. Whatever, in his wisdom, Congress might see fit to do, it would be that which would produce the best effects on commerce, the least derangement of present industries and the greatest happiness to the people of America. General Collins said he believed that in his country customs duties and import duties would be levied for much longer time than their grandchildren would live. The motto of the United States was peace and commerce with all nations, good will toward all, and the motto of England was "every man for himself."

Newark's City Clerk Arrested. Newark, N. J., Nov. 7.—Constable Moskoff arrested City Clerk, who was at his office yesterday. The warrant was issued by Judge Rodrigue on a complaint charging the city clerk with misdemeanor. He refused to appoint challengers for the Citizens' party. O'Connor was admitted to bail in the sum of $500.

Frederick's Trial Postponed. Frederick, Md., Nov. 7.—Mayor Harrison's assassin, Frederick, appeared for trial yesterday, but upon the request of attorneys secured for him by his brother, a letter carrier, the case was continued by Judge Damm until Nov. 27. His lawyers are R. A. Wade, of Chicago, and Robert Essex, of St. Joseph, Mo.

Murdered for Five Hundred Dollars. Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 7.—The Polander, who was found murdered on the roadside near Port Griffith, had been identified as Andrew Poliski. He was on his way to Europe, and had over $500 in his possession. When found, the money was gone.

Stock and Produce Markets. Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchange. New York, Nov. 6.—Prices moved irregularly on the stock market today. There was another professional attack, followed by variable recovery. Closing list: Lehigh Valley... 104; Reading... 104; St. Paul... 104; Lake Erie... 104; Erie... 104.

And whenever any epidemic shall appear and it shall be found necessary for the Board of Health to have this report printed and distributed to every private, school and public institution in this borough, and to require the attendance of persons in charge of such private institutions to post upon their premises a copy of this report, and read the section to the effect of the actual report.

SECTION 2. That the Board of Health shall have the authority to order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 3. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 4. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 5. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 6. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 7. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 8. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 9. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 10. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 11. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 12. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 13. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 14. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 15. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 16. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

OF THE Board of Health of Shenandoah, Pa.

Preservation of Public Health.

AND TO PREVENT THE Spread of Communicable Diseases.

SECTION 1. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 2. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 3. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 4. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 5. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 6. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 7. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 8. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 9. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 10. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 11. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 12. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 13. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 14. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

OF THE Board of Health of Shenandoah, Pa.

Preservation of Public Health.

AND TO PREVENT THE Spread of Communicable Diseases.

SECTION 1. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 2. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 3. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 4. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 5. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

SECTION 6. That whenever it is dangerous to human health, and whenever it is necessary to prevent the spread of any communicable disease, the Board of Health may, in its discretion, order the removal or destruction of any animal, bird or insect which may be a source of infection.

Advertisement for First National Bank, Capital $100,000.00, Interest Paid on Savings Deposits, and Vigor of Men.