the Democratic committee was hopeful ngress took antion on slive Republican managers would have expected such results two weeks ago, but they were astouished last night.

Governor McKinley was not surprised at the result. He has expected it all along, and felt confident that the impres-sions of the change of conditions would not be overcome by the campaign efforts for reaction. The weather was pleasant all over the state, and there was a full vote of over $00,000, and McKinley has a majority over all, with Democratic, Prohibition and Populist tickets opposed to
