THE Santander dynamite explosion has turned out to be fully equal in point of terribleness to the first reports concerning it. It is doubtful whether in all the history of that powerful explosive, dynamite, anything has ever occurred so fearfully destructive to human life and property, and it is much to be hoped we shall never hear of its equal in the future.

THE wonderful efficiency of our Postoffice Department is demonstrated by the report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Maxwell for the last fiscal year. During that time the Dapartment handled 14,533,376 registered letters, of which only 929 were lost; and, out of a grand total of 185,000 postoffice officials, only 454 went wrong The members of the cabinet attribute the and were arrested for violating the postal laws.

LAND IN TEXAS.

In Texas there are still 23,000,000 acres of hand which no entiler has ever yet occupied. These are under control of the state of Texas homelf and are divided into school, railroad, river inprovement, and irrigation lands, again, according to quality, into dry work in the Landburd colliery. agricultural, water agricultural, timber and pasture lands. Besides the domain included in the grants there are yet left 4,020,000 acres of unappropriated public ground which settiers can get by simply going and living upon them under the United States homestead laws. These uncompled acres are scattered in almost every county in the state: Of the school lands, those where

GREENHALGE ELECTED.

Massachusetts Gives a Republican Major Hy of 18,000 to 27,000, Bosyon, Nov. 5.—The vote in this state came in exceedingly early, and by 7 o'clock it was apparent that Greenhalge (Rep.) was elected. A conservative estimate, founded upon the returns from small cities and towns of the state gives the fol lowing result: For governor, Greenhalge (Rep.) over Russell (Dem.), 18,000; for lieu tenant governor, Walcott (Rep.) over Car roll (Dem.), 23,000; for secretary of state

Olia (Rep.) over McDonald (Ben.), 20,000; for anditor, Kimball (Rep.) over Hall (Den.), 24,000; for treasurer, Phillips (Rep.) over Stovens (Dem.), 27,000; for attarney general, Kimball (Rep.) over Lilitary (Dem.), 17,000. The senate and house will both be Republican by elightly increased anaparities. The headquarters of the jubilant Republicans last night was at the American House, where the Republican districts are expected to increase this to 350. Last year the Democratic tichot was elected by materials and the Democratic tichot was elected by materials and an old year. Great mental agony is endured by sarents who see their children suffering from diseases caused by impure blood, and for which there seems no cure. This is turned to joy when Hood's Sarsaparilla is resorted to, for it expels the foul humors from the blood, and restores the dis-eased skin to fresh, healthy brightness. Read the following from grateful parents: To C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
