The engine of the express train ploughed its way into the rear coach of the accommodution. The car was picked up and carried forward, so great was the momentum, and was driven with terrible force into the end of the second coach from the roar. The explosion of a lamp ignited the woodwork in the debris, and the fire soon began to spread rapidly.

An alarm was at once sent to the fire department, but before any of the cogines 國 had arrived the majority of the dead and wounded had been taken from the wreck, 創 13 tome of them, however, being hadly burned. 招

THE RESULT IN NEW JERSEY. Republicans Will Have a Majority of Siz-

tern on Joint Ballot. THENTOM, NOV. 3.—Latest election re-turns make the Republican majority in the assembly 15 and in the senate 1, a ma-jority on joint ballot of 16, which will inaure the election of Republican successors to State Treasurer George R. Gray and State Comptrollar William F. Heppen-heimer, both Democrats. It also indicates the redistricting of the tate from a Republican standpoint, and making it easier for the "tepublicans to defeat United States Son or John R. Me-Pherson next year. The democratis have only elected one senator, States, of War-ren county, who has a majority of about 409. The with the unre holdovers gives the Democrats ten members, or one less than a majority_ Bradley, the Republican and Citizen Isague candidate in Monrootth county for senator, defeated Techune, race track Democrat, by about 300. This of course, was accomplished by Democratic vot a, as the county is normally about 1,500 Demo eratic Lawyer Stien of Eatontown, Dem-ocrat, who worked for Bradley's election said today that Mr. Bradley recognizes that he was elected by Democrats on an anti-race track issue, and will be a bar to the substitution by the Republicans of Republican partian legislation for the present partian lawsemated by the Dem-ocrats.
