COUNTY SEAT LETTER

A Terse Foreshadowing of Political Events.

A JUDGE UNDER CHARGES

They Relate to the Recent Campaign and It is Reported the Accused Will Take Steps to Vindicate Himself—Scramble for Appointments.

Special HERALD Correspondence.
POTTSVILLE, Nov. 13.

On the night of election day some severe charges were made by Republican leaders against one of the Judges of our county court. The charges almost paralyzed those who heard them. It is reported that some action will be taken by the Judge in question to vindicate himself and the steps contemplated will bring the accusers to the bar. The accusers claim they knew what they were talking about when they made the statements and have no fear of the rumored vindictory steps of the result.

The charges are most severe and allege that the Judge in question has been guilty of the meanest pot-house political actions. They are of such a character that no one resting under them can be impassive, and maintain his respect and dignity.

There are already three applicants for every appointment on the bill and, quite likely, many more to hear from. Of course, there will be many disappointments. It is hoped the contests for the positions will be of a generous and wise character. Next year with a solid party, prestige of success and honest management of offices there will be more positions for distribution.

Frank C. Reese, of Shenandoah, is spoken of as Controller-elect Severn's chief clerk. George Walker, of this place, is also an applicant for the position.

The next Congressman must be a Republican and the leaders are already looking around for a suitable candidate who can win. County Chairman Whitehouse, Representative S. A. Loebe, ex-Representative D. B. Phillips, William Wilhelm, Esq., (the William McKinley of Pennsylvania), and Hon. Daniel R. Miller are mentioned. It is understood Hon. C. N. Brumby will not be a candidate under any circumstances. Colonel George L. Brown, of Minersville, is spoken of as a dark horse.

The Senatorship in the upper district will not be sought by many. The Democratic majority is a little too large to be overthrown by anybody. Major John F. Finney, of Shenandoah, could carry the district if any Republican can accomplish it. I heard the other day that several of his influential friends are ready to put up the money if he will deign to make the fight.

Criminal court opened here to-day with one of the largest calendars in the history of the county. Many of the cases are of a very important character and there are several which will require a number of days each for trial.

TWO WORTHIES SENTENCED.

Zeller and Louther Go to Prison for Their Crime.

William Zeller and Edward Louther, the two young men of this town convicted of robbing Daniel E. Brennan, of West Coal street, of nearly $2,000, were before the court at Pottsville yesterday for sentence.

Zeller was sentenced to pay the costs, $100 fine, restore part of the stolen money and serve three years.

Louther was sentenced to pay the costs, $100 fine, restore part of the stolen money, and serve three years and six months.

At his trial last month Zeller stoutly denied his guilt then, but since that time he has admitted it and restored $325 to Brennan.

Absolute Merit.
No other plaster has been produced which gains so many testimonials of high value as those continuously accorded to Alcock's Porous Plaster, and the only motive for these exceptional commendations is the fact that it is a medicinal and pharmaceutical preparation of superior value. Beware of imitations. Ask for and insist upon Alcock's Brand's Pills are a good corrective.

Call and See Them.

The HERALD has just received the finest samples of programs, folders, announcement cards, tickets, menus, badges, souvenirs, visiting cards, wedding and reception invitations, show cards, tassels, etc., ever placed on the market. They are works of superior art and very unique in design. Organizations or individual parties when in need of anything in the above line will do well by giving us a call and examining the samples. ## POLITICAL POINTS.

Interesting Comments on Present and Future Events.

Yesterday's Philadelphia Times contained the following item in reference to the scramble being made for the local post office appointment:

A very interesting fight is going on at Shenandoah for the office which will become vacant on December 31st. The three candidates for the office, which pays $3,100, are Michael Mellet, Charles Quinn and Milton Mast. Mr. Mellet has the endorsement of Congressman Kelly, but that may not prove to be conclusive in this case. Mr. Mast claims to have the backing of Hensel and also of personal friends of Postmaster-General Russell. Under ordinary circumstances, with the endorsement of his Congressman, Mr. Mellet ought to win. Complication in the case, however, renders it sufficiently doubtful to warrant Congressman Kelly in closely pressing the case.

"We've got 'em on the run," and we propose keeping them going. Last Tuesday's victory has a greater significance than the enemy will acknowledge. No sooner was the result known and the majority against Bierstein estimated than the new allies of the Republican party decided to stand firm and cast its lot with the same party for a fight in the spring to show the Democrats where they "are at." Organization will be the first step and much of the preliminary work has been done. The Germans, Poles and Lithuanians who voted with the Republicans know that by returning to their first love they will be treated worse than before. They have waited patiently for years, but their reward came not, and they are taking no more chances. If the Republicans are wise, and we are certain they know a good thing when they see it, they will give the new recruits a fair share of the offices to be voted for next spring. By so doing they will more firmly cement the movement for reform in the affairs of local government. At the next spring election fall tickets will be put up in each of the five wards and there will be no more "monkeying." It will be business from the word "go."

The Republicans of town have every encouragement to go forward and perfect their organization for the next battle. A substantial victory must be won in the spring election. Good, strong men, who will fill the offices honestly and faithfully and carry out the laws and ordinances without fear or favor, must be nominated.

The Republicans must give the distribution of offices among the different nationalities their earnest attention. It is the keynote of James H. Morgan, of South Jardin street, will be a candidate for Councilman in the Third ward next spring.

It has been suggested that the title "Citizens" be dropped and "Republican" substituted. It cannot be denied that "Citizen" allows too much deception, and none know this better than the Republicans do when they find their primaries stuffed by the Democrats.

WHEN THE MILL BELLS RING,
O, won't the lads be happy, and the lassies all so gay,
When this weary, dreary evening has forever passed away?

When the whistles all are whirling, and the locomotive goes "chuff, chuff, chuff,"
And the hours of fun and frolic to their lives have drifted back?

When this interesting lesson, for a time at least, is over,
And the kitchen table's laden with good substantial viands?

When the silver dollars jingle, and the busy housewives sing—
O, won't it be so jolly when

The Mill Bells Ring?
And the trader who is haunting his long-deserted place,
Hearing round his useless yard-stick, scarcely longer than his face,
From the dawn of rosy morning to the shades of evening gray,
Waiting—waiting for the buyer who seems bound to keep away—
O, won't he, too, be happy as he counts the crisp, new bills,
And listens to the music of the specie in his tills?

How his fears of sad disaster to the breeze be whistling,
And his vision in peace and plenty when

When The Mill Bells Ring?
And that great and happy party that sat down on Henry's hat,
And have ever since been wondering where the stickers they are at,
They will surely do us're trusting draw a lesson from the storm
That will put a different aspect on their hobby of "reform."
You can talk of "rubber tariffs," "moneyed tyrants" and the like,
But they mostly turn up winners, so it politics of stripes;
So maybehap this object lesson to some memories may cling,
Gaining votes for straight protection when

THE LAKESIDE ROAD!

Will be in Operation by January First.

THE POLES ARE ARRIVING

A Site for the Power House at Mahanoy City Was Purchased Yesterday—Enough Material of the Entire Line is on Hand. Right of Way Transferred.

THE people who have been predicting that there will be no more new developments in connection with the Lakeside Electric Railway for a while and that the track already laid has been buried for the winter will some night see ghosts trolleying along East Centre street in the shape of handsome eight-wheeled cars. It will perhaps be news to the skeptics to hear that the Lakeside Electric Railway Company yesterday purchased the property in Mahanoy City on which the Wadlinger pork packing establishment stood and that the site will be used for a power house which will be 75x125 feet in width and length and will be the finest in the state. The buildings and other incumbrances on the property are advertised for sale in to-day's HERALD.

Mr. H. F. Watts, representing the Seely Manufacturing Company of New York, which has the contract for all the overhead electrical work of the road, is registered at the Ferguson House and in a day or two will begin the piling and wiring. Ten car loads of rails are at hand and the material is sufficient to complete the road from Shenandoah to Mahanoy City. Three car loads of poles have also arrived. Mr. C. E. Titman has the contract for the poles and sills.

To-day a letter was received from the Pottsville Spike and Bolt Works stating that all the spikes and bolts required for the road have been shipped.

It is expected that the road will be in operation by January 1st, 1894. The Westinghouse Company has already completed the electric apparatus for the cars which are now being constructed at the Lumakin car works. The cars will be painted a royal blue color.

Another important development is the fact that the Mahanoy City ordinance granting rights of way on Main street in that town to the Shenandoah and Mahanoy City Railway Company has been changed so that those rights are transferred to the Lakeside Electric Railway Company.

This afternoon Mr. John F. Finney left town for Philadelphia, to be on hand for a meeting of the Lakeside Electric Railway Company, which will be held to-morrow afternoon.

The new electric railway line, if any one should interrogate you.

"Nobody's Claim."

The next production at Ferguson's theatre, will be the personal border drama, "Nobody's Claim," with the young actor, E. A. Warren, as the hero, supported with perhaps the best cast with which the popular play has ever been attempted in its long career of prosperity. There is a dash and a charm about this story of "Nobody's Claim" which never fails to carry its audience. At Ferguson's theatre this evening.

A CLEVER CAPTURE.

Peddler Brockmeyer saved a Loss by a Station Agent.

A peddler named P. Brockmeyer, and who gave his residence as Lyonesse, N. J., called at the HERALD office yesterday afternoon and asked that a card of thanks to J. J. Laughlin, the Lehigh Valley station agent, be published in his behalf.

Brockmeyer says that yesterday he entered the Centralia depot and after leaving a value containing $200 worth of watches, jewelry, etc., on a seat, went to the ticket window. His back was turned to the value for only a few seconds, but when he turned again it was gone. He reported the loss to agent Laughlin, who at once left his office and made a hurried circuit of the station with excellent success. In the distance Laughlin saw a man hurrying away with the value. The agent and peddler gave chase and after a hard run for about half a mile they succeeded in overtaking the man, who surrendered the article. As his home is so far from this region and as he was overjoyed over the recovery of his value the peddler refused to prosecute and immediately after his arrival in town he called at the HERALD office to have a note made of his gratification over the agent's act. The man who stole the value, the agent said, was one John McLaugh, a resident of Centralia.

Thomas Baird went to Pottsville this morning.

John F. Finney went to Philadelphia this afternoon.

Miss Marie Deane, of Wm Penn. was in town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Houser, of Bloomsburg, are the guests of town relatives.

Mrs. S. G. M. Hollinger and daughter, Ethel, went to Philadelphia this morning.

Jonathan Rogers was among the town people who spent yesterday at the county seat.

Charles L. Shaw, of Pittstown, was in town to-day, the guest of Assistant Postmaster Deugler.

Mrs. W. J. Evans, of South West street, gave birth to a daughter yesterday. Both are doing well.

Commissioner-elect Frank Reutz, of Ashland, was in town to-day receiving congratulations from his numerous friends.

William Eisenhart and wife, of Jefferson, Ind., are visiting their brother-in-law, William S. Snyder, of West Coal street.

Edward Johnson, Jr., and family, of Peckville, Lackawanna county, were in town yesterday attending the funeral of his mother.

Do not suppose that because it is recommended for animals that Arica & Oil Lintiment is an offensive preparation. It will not stain clothing or the finest skin.

Major Leach R. Hoed.

Representative S. A. Loebe would like to know who visited his home in Sceneryhill Haven at about two o'clock this morning and helped themselves to his valuables. The burglar secured Mr. Loebe's gold watch, a small sum of money, a gold watch belonging to Mrs. Leach, and several pieces of jewelry. The methods by which the house was entered indicated the work of professionals. The burglars also visited the house of Postmaster George W. Doniger, but evidently became frightened and left the place without securing anything.

Dougherty Indicted.

The case of J. J. Dougherty, of town, who is charged by his wife with assault and battery and non-support, was before the grand jury yesterday and a true bill was found. Efforts have been made to settle the case, but the wife is determined to press it and some day next week will in all probability be fixed for trial.
