GEORGIA'S EXPOSITION.

The Great Show of Southern Productions at Augusta.

NEARLY ALL STATES REPRESENTED

the attractions are many of the best fea-tures from the Midway Philance at the World's fair. President Patrick Walsh, of the August Exposition company, delivered the opening address after prayer by Rev. Lausing Burrows. In the course of his address he mid:

"Nature has endowed the south with munifold advantages over the west. It is our mission to utilize them. Let us invite capital, skill and labor to develop them. Let the people of other sections and other countries understand that all good men are welcome, and that life, liberty and property are the inalienable and the sa-cred rights of our dilizenship. I wish it to go out in this great businesselty of ours there is no such thing as section, erend or politics. Inscribed over the doors of our city and this exposition is 'Charity, toler-ation, brotherly love for all.' Peace and good will should prevail among all classes. Harmony should be the watchword."

Mayor Alexander was the next speaker, and when he concluded he introduced Governor Northen. The governor said,

"This exposition of the south is an object lesson for the diversified industries of her future. Augusta claims to be the largest lumber manufacturing city in the southeast. Augusta is the second largest cotton market in the union and the largest cotton manufacturing city in the south. She has surpassed every other manufac-turing city in the percentage of increase in the number of manufacturing estab-lishments, not another city in the union equalling her record.

Your city has made an increase of 633 per centum in the number of establishments for manufacture in the last census decade. The past history of the man facture of cotton determines its future al most wholly for these states. With cheap material, cheap labor and no strikes the south can claim the entire control of the manufacture of cotton goods at no distant day. Nothing but ourselves can hinder the growth of our section and the wealth hope of free government on earth. Here God has rested the ark of the covenant with the sure of men. Let us soar above all provincial price and find our deeper as pirarious in gathering the fullest sheave min the harvest and standling the staunchest and most devoted of its sons as its lies in the path and makes clear the way through which all the people of this sarth shall dome in God's appointed time."

Benediction was asked by Rev. J. T. Plimkitt, and then, and the wildest entrements.

thusiasm awakened by the stirring note of Dixle from the cornet of Miss Alice Raymond, of Washington, the exposition was formally opened.

ernment has been discussed, and it has been proposed to call it a commonwealth. It is expected that President Date will advance these facts as arrowments against the contention of Minist. Willis that his government—the government to which Willis is accredited—has expired by its own limitation. Should Minister Willis decline to recognize the valuity of that argument, and President Role determine to follow his contention, so far as lay in argument, and President Date determine to follow his contention, so far as lay in his power, his next step is expected to be to formally notify the I nited States min-ister that he would not yield without the employment of these, and that he would regard the landing of troops from the men of war to enforce his deposition as an act of test.

It is asserted that the diplomatic repre-mentatives of foreign countries in Honolulu would formully protest against the act of United States minister with the exception of representatives of Great Britan and Jupan, and possibly Russia. There have been rumors from the state department that the United States did not enter upon the attempt to restore the queen without a thorough unicestanding with all the powers, and it is said the government has received assurance that no objection would be raised to its plan. With regard to Germany, France and Portugal, apponents of restoration say that representatives of Office-Boom & P. O.
