

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your tea, coffee, sugar, butter, eggs, spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

STREET TALK

Some of the Whispers Overheard by News Gatherers.

It is understood the miners will work four days a week until after a prolonged spell of severe winter weather, and if this does not come there will be no more full time until next spring.

Turkeys are plentiful in local markets. Shenandoah people do not take to foot ball, but a number of them will witness the Yale-Princeton game in New York on Thanksgiving Day.

The lease and license of a saloon on North Main street was recently sold for $1,000.

"The Dazzler," which is to be produced at Ferguson's theatre this evening, has already been booked for a second engagement here. Kirfin's property on East Oak street is being enlarged and improved.

P. J. Ferguson is having trees planted in front and on the south side of his handsome residence.

Post 106, Grand Army of the Republic, of town, is receiving many new recruits.

If you have not done anything for the soldiers' monument it is not too late to do it now.

Thanksgiving turkeys this week. The confectioners are putting their stores in holiday trim.

The teachers institute next month. Should the Lakeside road be opened for travel in January, Mahanoy City and Shenandoah people will be in high place.

Livery stable keepers should always keep Arnica & Oil Liniment in the stable, nothing like it for horses.

THE NEW TARIFF BILL

It Will Probably be Given to the Public This Week.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—The ways and means committee hopes to complete the new tariff bill and give it out to the public about the close of the present week. A four is expressed by some of the Democratic members that the differences which have recently arisen among their number over the policy of an income tax may prolong the final completion of the measure until a later date, but every effort will be made to get the bill before the public at the earliest possible moment. At the general conference of Democratic members today discussion was resumed as to the policy of adopting an income tax, and as all the essential features of the bill depend on the adoption or rejection of this policy the other details of the measure will probably be in abeyance until the committee has finally come to a conclusion on an income tax.

Representative Cookran, of New York, is strongly opposed to the adoption of the income tax provision, but it appears now that he will stand alone among the Democratic members, unless Chairman Wilson should come to his aid. The position of Mr. Wilson on the subject is still regarded as indefinite, since he has been frequently reported as being in the anomalous position of favoring it in theory, but doubting its practicability and its expediency as a party measure.

As to the important articles to be added to the free list there is no longer any question they will embrace wool, lumber, iron ore, coal, salt, cotton bagging, binding twine, rice and many other commodities of less importance. The present bounty on sugar will be repealed, but it is still possible that the committee may decide to impose a slight import duty. The highest duty thus far discussed is one cent per pound.

SAYS HE'S NOT INSANE

Prendergast Objects to the Defense His Lawyers Have Decided Upon.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Prendergast, the slayer of Mayor Harrison, whose trial is set for one week from today is not pleased with the defense his attorneys have decided upon.

"They propose to enter a plea of insanity," said he. "I object to that. I want to acknowledge the commission of the crime and plead and prove justification."

"In what way will you prove justification?"

"The broken promise to make me a corporation officer on Nov. 1. And then there are other things. But it will all come out at the trial. I'm very much displeased with the idea of entering the plea of insanity. I'm not insane. I was justified in the shooting. The way the newspapers handled the story was amusing and also disgusting. They called me a crank, lunatic, crazy, insane and a lot of other things, and the pictures some of them printed were simply horrible. I'm not insane, and don't want that kind of a defense."

Highwaymen in Mount Vernon.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The reign of lawlessness continues here. An attempt was made early in the morning to effect an entrance into the residence of Mrs. Furber, on Second avenue. They were fired on by Mrs. Furber's son, and made their escape. Peter Kane, who was held up by a tramp on Stevens avenue, got away by giving the highwayman a half dollar. Charles Strobel and Eugene Lombardi, of New York, are under arrest suspected of complicity in the numerous robberies. They answer the description of the highwaymen who waylaid and robbed Mrs. Wilson and Miss Shellady.

Train Held Up by Tramps.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 20.—A train on the Boston and Maine road was held up by tramps between Danvers Crossing, in Kittery, and the station in Elliot. A fierce battle ensued with the trainmen, who finally, aided by the crew of another train, drove the tramps off. Subsequently the dead body of a man was found on the track near by, and there is a difference of opinion as to whether he was killed in the melee or run over by a train. The dead body is believed to be S. A. Burnett, of Jersey City, or Peabody, Mass.

Death of Rev. Dr. Deems.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—Rev. Dr. Charles F. Deems, pastor of the Church of the Strangers, in Mercer street, died Saturday night at the residence of Mrs. Verdery, his daughter, on West Seventy-six street, aged 78. He had been under the constant care of a physician since last winter, when he was stricken with partial paralysis. He managed to recover from that attack, but in August he was again stricken, this time suffering from an abscess of the stomach.

A War of Extermination.

HUMANSVILLE, Mo., Nov. 20.—At Wheeland Mosley Quigg, 77 years old, was shot by John and Orr Paxton, father and son. There is a feud between the Quiggs and Paxtons, and this is the third murder that has been committed. It is feared that the feud will not stop until both families are exterminated. They are well to do people and have many friends. Mosley Quigg was an ex-sheriff. He was an uncle of Orr Paxton, who helped murder him.

A Jurist Poisoned.

YORK, Nov. 20.—Sensational developments have grown out of the sudden death of Judge Donabus, of Adams county, which occurred recently. An autopsy proves that death resulted from strychnine poisoning. The reports of the chemists have been placed in the hands of the district attorney, who will investigate the matter.

Striking Miners Weaken.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—The men employed in the Risher mine, at Six Mile Ferry, who struck three weeks ago against a reduction in wages, have returned to work at a reduction of about 15 per cent. Three hundred men are employed in the mine.

The Report Believed.

PARIS, Nov. 20.—The leading Brazilian residents in this city have been interviewed, and say that they believe that the news in regard to the proclamation of Prince Pedro as emperor of Brazil by Admiral Nello is authentic.

Stricken Dead at Traver.

LEBANON, Pa., Nov. 20.—As he knelt in prayer at a religious meeting at Schaffertown Samuel Strickler was stricken with apoplexy and died in a few minutes.

UNCLE EZRA'S CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

I'm a comin' round 'er fashion; I'm a gittin' old but gay.

I'm a gonn' out in public with a buttonhole boutonnet.

An' my floral decoration is most gorgeously good form.

For in petals go a streamin' like a haystack 'ak by storm.

An' I 'ally do admire it; but ter tell the 'ome's' truth.

I hev trampled, without thinkin', jewelers' blossoms in my youth.

And I can't keep from confessin', though, I know 'tain't so with some,

The I druther hev a daisy than a big chrysanthemum.

It's culture puts the grin on the blossom or the man.

An' I'm gonn' fur ter keep right up with culture of I can.

An' yet I get ter thinkin', every time it greets my eyes.

Of the white an' yaller beauty I've seen smilin' at the skies.

It never sought attention, only lovin' sun an' air.

It knowed that it was purty, so it laughed an' did'n't care.

My jangled pet is lovely, but the truth 'ner got ter come—

I druther have a daisy than a big chrysanthemum.

McKinley is voluntarily taking a short vacation, Larry Neal having woefully failed in giving him a long involuntary one.

If current rumors are true Grover Cleveland has found that the club which he threw at the business men of the country as an object lesson is a first class boomerang.

The New York Times says it is unable to see that Larry Neal's fate has any bearing on the proposed Wilson tariff bill. The office of the Times is evidently a blind asylum.

Chairman Wilson says he and his fellow tariff reformers lay awake nights praying that they may so act as not to injure any industry. Several million workmen are doing the same thing.

The President is in Washington again, but the mystery of his disappearing is as great as it ever was. That it was not occasioned by the state of his jaw any one may know by asking him to explain the mystery.

"The Sporting Craze."

Those who witnessed the first production of the above named farce comedy will be delighted at the announcement that the same excellent company that presented it two weeks ago will again be seen at Ferguson's theatre next Wednesday. The hit made by this attraction was emphatic. On all sides nothing but the highest praise was heard, and the company, with one bound, firmly established themselves in the good graces of our theatre goers. There is a perfect flood of novelties in songs, dances and specialties, and each feature is presented in a graceful way that immediately won the esteem of every one in attendance. We expect a packed house.
