COUNTY SEAT LETTER

From Our Regular Pottsville Correspondent.

SURMISES POLITICALLY I

Candidates Already Looming Up For Tickets Next Fall—Congressman Reilly Will Retire—Senator Monaghan Aspires to Succeed Him.

Special HERALD Correspondence.

POTTSVILLE, Nov. 22.

HE smoke of the recent political battle of this county has hardly died away before there began to crop out a new batch of candidates for next year's ticket. Perhaps the most prominent of these candidates are representatives of the Republican party, who, building upon the recent success of their party in the last campaign, believe that that success will be continued next year and consequently are planning themselves for a contest, which they hope will be successful in landing them in the offices to be voted for in 1894. The most prominent among these people may be mentioned our fellow-townsmen, Mr. William H. McQuill, the West Virginia coal operator. Having become a rich miner, and like into the silver bonanza kings of the West, he aspires to shine in the halls of Congress.

William is a good fellow, a social companion, a kind and indulgent father and household, but there is not much danger that he will be the nominee of the Republican party next year, because already plans are being laid to send one of the brightest legal lights of the Bar to Washington, if the thing can be accomplished by the defeat of the Democratic nominee as easily and as surely as the majority of the Republican ticket was elected this year.

On the other side of the house we hear that Hon. James B. Reilly will not again enter the field for Congress. He will gracefully retire at the close of his term and take up the thread of his legal practice where he left off a few years ago, leaving the fight for Congressional honors to be made by Senator Bryan Monaghan, of your town, and ex-Senator King, of Mahanoy City.

Following close upon the heels of this political gossip come the intelligence that John A. Reilly, Esq., also of your town, will retire to succeed Senator Monaghan in the Thirtieth Senatorial District. Mr. Reilly's nomination will be sure if he makes the fight but many of his friends fear that he will change his mind before the time comes. I am in a position to know that Mr. Reilly means to make the effort the supreme one of his life and it is expected that the Democratic convention of the Thirtieth district will give him a nomination by acclamation. If Mr. Reilly goes in to win, having come out so early and with his legion of friends, he will lead in the race from the start, and the nomination will be his. He is a thoroughly competent man for the position and a consistent and a party-loving Democrat, and it will take the strongest representative of the Republican party that can be found to make any inroads into the large Democratic majority at his back.

The report of the cases prosecuted by John Broenowski against John and James Higgins and Thomas Boland, as published in your edition of Monday last, is pretty generally correct, so far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough.

The story as published is like the play of "Hamlet" when Hamlet is left out. It should be known and appreciated by your readers that John Broenowski only arrived in this country, and in Shenandoah, on the 14th of last March. He had only been four months in this country when he was so roughly handled by the constable and his assistants and $500 gouged out of him for taxes for 1892, which he could not have owed, not having been even a resident of this county until March of this year. That fact was proven by the prosecutor himself and substantiated by two other witnesses, and should have gone in a published account of the case. In justice to the Poland, I now make it part of this letter. This poor greenback lad just as much right to be protected by our institutions as any other man in this country, be his nationality what it may.

A single trial of Dr. Henry Baxter's Mandrake Bitters will convince any one troubled with costiveness, torpid liver or any kindred diseases of their curative properties. They only cost 25 cents per bottle.

CONTROLLER'S ASSISTANTS.

Messrs. Walker, of Pottsville, and Reese, of Shenandoah.

Controller-elect Benjamin Severn yesterday selected the two assistants who are to help him in the Controller's office after January 1st, next. The appointees are George P. Walker, of Pottsville, and Frank C. Reese, of Shenandoah. Mr. Walker will act as Deputy Controller and Mr. Reese as assistant. Mr. Walker is about 30 years of age and has been employed as clerk in the P. & E. C. & I. Co.'s Pottsville office as clerk. He is a son of Councilman Matt. Walker, of Pottsville, and has been quite active in politics. He is the reading clerk of the Republican standing committee.

Mr. Reese is one of the most prominent young men in Shenandoah, especially in political circles, and has been looked upon as one of the most active and persistent workers the Republican party has in the younger element of this county. He has held various clerkships in town under the P. & E. C. & I. Co. and now has charge of the principal local office, which is located at the Indian Ridge colliery. He is a splendid mathematician, in fact one of the best in this region.

FIND AND CENSURED.

A Townsman Before the Court for Refusing an Offer.

Some time ago Constable Thomas Toth went to the premises of William P. Seward to make a levy, but was balked by Seward locking the door and refusing admittance. The constable then entered with charging Seward with resisting an officer and also with assault and battery. Toth said the accused pushed him. The case was before the court yesterday and after directing him to pay the costs and $30 fine the court administered a severe rebuke to Seward, stating that to resist an officer is a serious offense and a second act would call for imprisonment. Seward did not pay the costs and went to jail.

Do not suppose that because it is recommended for animals that Arnie & Oil Lintment is an offensive preparation. It will not stain clothing or the fairest skin.

Class Continued.

The congregation of the All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church on East Oak street is becoming a large and prosperous one. Bullison, and consisted of Violet Hensley, Isabella Fishburn, Sarah Price, Hannah Bradley, Edith Reese, Elizabeth Grafon, P. D. Holman, Clara Dabb, Annie Haskey, Lillian Smith, Jennie Kendrick, Sarah Horricks, Laura Hughes and George Knott. In the evening the Bishop preached a sermon on "The great falling away, and who is to blame for it."

THE LEHIGH TROUBLE

No Important Developments Were Made To-day.

BUT FEW DELANO MEN OUT

Officials of the Railroad Company Say There Are But Seven Strikers at Delano. The Packer Collieries Suspend Operations For Want of Cars.

HERE are no important developments in connection with the Lehigh Valley railroad strike, so far as the local division is concerned. All the passenger trains are running, but behind the schedules. The New York mail due here at 2:27 yesterday afternoon was not delivered at the post office until 7 o'clock last night.

The firemen who left their engines at Delano yesterday morning returned after a consultation with officials of the road and returned to their work after a short absence.

Freight traffic from distant points is irregular and the freight cars which pass through here are subjected to much delay through the tie-up on the main line.

It was learned from good authority to-day that only seven men at Delano have quit work on the Lehigh Valley railroad, but the force of engineers is intact. Not one engineer has struck.

A report was circulated in town to-day that the Packer collieries, operated by the Lehigh Valley Coal Company, suspended operations last night for the balance of the month.

A HERALD representative made inquiry at the company's headquarters this afternoon and was informed that the report was not true.

The informant stated that all the collieries were idle to-day because there were no cars, but they will resume operations as soon as cars can be secured. Packer colliery, No. 2, however, may remain idle for a few days in order to have some needed repairs made.

The collieries at Centuria were also idle to-day for want of cars.

Stopped Snow Shoveling.

The Schenck Traction Company sent a gang of men to town this morning to clear its tracks of snow. While the men were engaged in shoveling the snow to the sides of the rails Supervisor Lowelwyn stopped them and said that if the company wants to clear snow from the tracks this winter it must send teams to haul it away and not leave it in heaps on the street.

Editor's Meeting.

The Schenck Press Association will hold their regular quarterly meeting at the Merchants' Hotel, Pottsville, to-morrow at 10 a. m.

"AN AMERICAN BEAUTY."

Our Thanksgiving Gift to Every One of Our Readers.

By special arrangement with the publishers, we are enabled to make every one of our readers a present of an exquisite oil panel picture, 20 inches high, entitled "An American Beauty," which has been admired by all who have seen it. This superb picture is from the brush of the same artist who painted the "Yard of Pansies" and "Yard of Roses." The reproduction is equal in every respect to the original, from which it cannot be distinguished, and accompanying it are full directions for framing at home at a cost of a few cents, thus forming a beautiful ornament for the high, narrow wall-space for which it is so difficult to obtain pictures of the proper shape. It is a superb Thanksgiving gift. Send your name and address to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th street, New York, with three cents (either in stamps or pennies) to pay for the packing, mailing, etc., and mention that you are a reader of THE HERALD and you will receive by return mail one of these valuable works of art.

This is undoubtedly the best route to reach the North Pacific coast. For time tables, maps and other information apply to the nearest ticket agent, or address John K. Pott, District Pass. Agent, C. M. & St. P. Ry., Williamsport, Pa.

Every public keeper should always keep Arnie & Oil Lintment in the stable, nothing like it for horses.

Knight-Schultz.

Miss Clara I. Schultz, daughter of Councilman J. K. P. Schultz, and Claude L. Knight, Esq., of Bluefield, West Virginia, were married at 10:30 o'clock this morning, at the residence of her parents, on North Main street, by Rev. William Powick, of the Methodist Episcopal church. The ceremony was strictly private, only immediate relatives being present and there was no bridesmaid or groomsmen. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom proceeded to the Lehigh Valley depot and took the 11:05 Lehigh Valley train for Sanbury. They expect to reach Washington to-night, and after a few days stay there will start on a tour of the Southern states, going as far south as Florida. After the trip they will return to Bluefield, where a handsomely furnished home awaits them. Mr. Knight is one of the leading lights at the West Virginia Bar.

The Goods Went Up.

A Lithuanian clothing dealer on North Main street was sold out by the Sheriff yesterday and much surprise was caused by the brisk bidding. The dealer was suspected of being the instigator of some circulars which were issued some time ago in the Polish and Lithuanian languages denouncing the Jews and asking the people to whom the circulars were addressed to boycott them. Yesterday a number of the Jewish people of town attended the sale and bid so briskly that it brought $3,000. The chain against the dealer amounted to $4,000.

A Rare Chance.

I bought at Sheriff's sale yesterday a large stock of men's and boys' overcoats. Goods at 50 per cent below cost at my place. Overcoats $1.50, worth three times the amount. Big bargains in underwear; only 21 cents, worth 50 cents. Coffee, post office building, corner of Main and Oak streets. 11-22-93

Good Show To-night.

"The Sporting Cranes" will be presented at Ferguson's theatre tonight and incidentally to Owen Ziegler, the light-weight champion boxer, will give a sparring exhibition. It is expected that William Gibson, the well-known boxer of town, will go before Ziegler for four rounds. "The Sporting Cranes" was presented here a short time ago with excellent satisfaction to the audience.
