TERRIBLE EXPLOSION!

Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to bend his intellect and every energy to the success of his business; the clerk, book-keeper, professional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which, if not resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and bodies. They are running at too high pressure. The strain is too great. Something must and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their sphere is more limited, they have their daily burdens, freta, and worries, and the results are the same as and worries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions.

This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, haspitals, and insane asylums are full of these unfortunates, and are being crowded still further. There is but one solution of the matter. Recognize the importance of the situation at once, and take the necessary measures to overcome it. If you have failing memory, but flashes, dizziness, nervous or sick headache. flashes, dizziness, nervous or sick headache, biliousness, irritability, melancholy, sleeplessness, fainting, nervous dyspepsia, ep-lepsy, etc., know that any one of them is bua symptom of the calamity that may be all you, and even though you have used so-called remedies and treated with reputable

The Brazilian Insurgent Will Probably Soon Be a Dead Here.

PITTSBUDG, Nov. 24.-Lientenant T. M. O'Halloran, nautical expert of the United States hydrographic office in New York city, who is to sail for Brazil in charge of the Britannia, is in Pittsburg bidding old friends good-bye, previous to his depart-ure for the scene of conflict in the Brazilian revolution. In an interview with a reporter Lieutenant O'Halloran said:

reporter Lisutemant O Halloran said:

"The plan of attack decided upon by Pexioto will be to force a surrender or blow up the insurgent deet. It is a well known fact that the robel strength lies wholly in its fleet, that its land forces are no small as to be not worth consideration. The Nictheroy and the America will not be expected to combat Mello's ships single handed. Before reaching Rio, at a rendexions agreed upon, these two American en arrive O'Harn is a Texas ranger, and vessels will be joined by the Rischenio and the Benjamin Constant, two armor plated French vessels, fully equipped, and the Harn the short of the

"If Mello should see fit to stick to his position in the harbor the Nichteroy will be behind a projecting portion of the main land at the barbor mouth within easy range of Mello's fleet, but out of range of its projectlies, and from this point of vantange will put its charges of dynamite into the insurgents. Should Mello attempt to come out into the open sea and fight it out he will be given a reception calculated to startle him.

"Mello's defeat in the end is certain, and I am positive that if he is captured he will be shot. Of course if he prefers to be a dead here he is certainly taking the proper means. We go prepared to fight, and as Admiral Mello is aware of our coming I have no doubt he will be pre-pared to greet us."

Massacred in the Rebrides. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 24.—Information was received by the Alameda of another tragedy committed by the natives of the Island of Penticost in the New Hebrides group. The victims were George Lifon and two natives forming a portion of the crew of his vessel, a small cutter sailing under the American flag. Lifon left his vessel in a small boat for the purpose of bringing off several native recruits, and it was afterward discovered that the natives had massacred its occupants. The bodies of Lifon and one of the natives were found badly mutilated. No trace could be ob-tained of the body of the other native, and it is concluded that the savages had taken it to their village for a cannibalistic

Steelton Mills to be Closed.

Pritsauro, Nov. 34.—Additional infor-mation about the new steel rail combine shows it to be more complete than was at first suspected. In addition to leasing the steel rail plant at Sparrow's Point, Md., the new pool has also leased the Pennsylvania Steel company's plant at Steelton, Pa. These two plants vall be kept closed indefinitely, the Carnegle and Illinois com panies having the western trade and the Bethlehem, Cambria and Lackawanna firms the eastern. The new leased con-cerns which will be shut down by the pool employ about 6,000 mep.

DETROIT'S FATAL FIRE.

PROBABLY SEVEN LIVES LOST.

Two Jumped from a Fifth Story Window and Were Killed, Another Was Seen to Fall late the Flames, and the Others Are Missing.

DEFROIT, Nov. 24.—One of the worst fires that Detroit has experienced in many years occurred yesterday, and completely destroyed a five story building at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Batss street, occupied by Edson. Moore & Co., whole-sale dry goods, and damaged several ad-jacent buildings, causing a total loss of $100,000. Three men employed by the dry goods firm lost their lives in the flames and four others, who are missing, are also supposed to have perished.

The dead are James McKay, clerk, aged B8; Brailley A. Dunning, porter, aged 64; E. Genther, entry clerk, single, aged 98; Patrick Markey, aged 33, leaves a widow and three children. Missing—Daniel A. Baker, clerk; Henry Rider, packer; Charles W. Kirchner, clark; Edward N. Voit, clark. The fire started at 12:30 o'clock, and so quick was the work of the flames that in half an hour the building was completely gutted, and practically only the firmly belted iron front remained standing. For an hour the department fought with a fire which defied their efforts. A general alarm was turned in, which called outline untire fire department of the city. Luckily the flames were confined mainly to the dry goods building, which was entirely consumed, and considerable damage was done to adjoining structures.

The saddest feature was not the destruction of property, however, but the loss of life. Long before the many engines responded to the general alarm two men could be seen on the window sills of the fifth story on the State street side of the building. So rapidly had the flames progressed that the men undoubtedly had not the time to get out of the saidling. There they clung while the growd shouled 'Don't Jump! Don't jamp! There's help

But as these below called out these words of useless cocouragement the flames behind them advanced and burst around them. A bale of jute was procured by the spectators and placed below the window on which Bradley Dunning was perched. He sprang from the window and landed on the bale. He bounded off and fell to the sidewalk, where he kay timp and apparently lifeless. An ambulance carried him to the hospital where he died soor after. By this time the firemen had spread a net to catch Markey, who fell into it. His injuries were such that he too, died oon after being taken to a hospital. Hardly had this double tragedy trans pired than another man was seen near the upper window nearest the corner. He was evidently nearly suffocated, for although he succeeded in reaching the sill, his strength apparently gave out, and after an effort to raise himself, one arm having been thrown over the sill, he slowly sank back and disappeared from view. He thought to have been Edward Genther.

After the fire the firm established temporary headquarters and opened a register. All employes who reported signed the register. By comparing the notes it became evident that Genther, Rider, Voit, Baker and Kirchner were missing, and there is no doubt of their fate.
