ALONG THE LINE OF BATTLE. The Strikers Still United for the Recog-nition of Organized Labor. The situation at different points along the line, from a non-partisan standpoint, is shown in disputches from Associated Press correspondents, from which the following facts are gleaned: At Pottsville, Pu.: The labor leaders on the coal branches seem to be "playing" the officials, and in consequence the man-agement is puzzled. The men apparently have arranged to take turns in failing to report for duty. One day the engineers are not on hand, but some of the train erews are. The next day some of the CINCINNATI, Nov. 25.—At a musting of crewssian at home and some of the en-physicians prescribing the Amick cure for gineers report for work, and so on.
