THE last railway socident, like to many preceding it, was due to a misplaced switch. It was misplaced probably by some one who had lest his head or neglected his duty, neither of which things could occur if switches were operated automatically, as they will notne. day .

ONLY one day more and Thanksgiving will be upon us. To many ft whit he a sensor of feasting and rejoicing, but to thousands of others it will bring nothing but discomfort and sulfering. Those who need sauce for their Thanksgiving dinner can secure it by remembering those to whom the day will bring no cause for rejoletng, and sending them of their abundance some of the good things provided for their own enjoyment.

-----THE LATEST CURE.

A few years ago, observes the Harrisburg Morning Call, a long suffering public had presented to their grateful notice an elixir of life by which all were to be rejuvenated and life length- trol the loss of many lives must have reened interminably from its present narrow span. In splite of the shughter of innumerable innocent rabbits which were to enter into the composition of the elixir, somehow death came in the Martinique. It appears that the captain and a majority of the crew of the Mensame old fashioned, unexpected way it had always demonstrated itself before the elixir was discovered.

When people had sensibly concluded "what is to be will be," that when the time came to die they would die in spite of the vaunted properties of the elixir, a celebrated German physician, Dr. Koch, again caused hope for lengthened life to revive among certain people through his discovery of "lymph," which was to cure the great army of consumptives. Eager for a new lease of life many wretched victims gladly offered then serves to be experimented upon, only to lose the lives they so highly valued. A number of cures have been effected through the lymph, at least such claim is made of the many pair for it is retarned. for it, but many died from its effects before such cures were made. When Keeley's "gold cure" first became known, how many victims of drink flui to the influence they were assured would crush out the demon that possessed them? A speedy and sure curs was promised.
