WHAT is the instinct that impols Mr. Cleveland to keep back a frank and full avowal of his policy in Hawaii? Why all this secrecy and mystery ? What honest end can they serve? He has allowed his Secretary of State formally to propose the restoration of the monarchy. His minister at Honolulu announces that the American policy is definitely and conclusively formed. In his enthusiasm he even goes so for as to declare that nothing anybody can say or do will change it. It is a sealed book, and all he has to do is to await the proper time and then execute it. But why must there be so much waiting? Who is it, what is it, that he and all the rest of us are waiting for? If for the me ting of Congress, why did not the whole matter lie in abeyance. if any part of it had to? Why pub lish augthing, if the rest had to be reserved? If Mr. Willis's instructions must be withheid out of respect to Congress, why do Congress the disrespect of printing the Gresham letter and of sneaking the Blount report into the hands of friendly newspaper men? For nine months Mr. Cleveland has kept the Hawalian people in a state of excited suspense. With every arriving steamer they have expected to know their fate, but nothing has come to them except disappointment, vexation and new batches of rumers to heed

Of course the principal theme of the disension in congressional circles today the new tariff bill. Conservative Demcrats are figuring that the deficiency crassed by the new bill will not exceed $35,000,000. They claim that in addition to the revenue to be derived from the atimulated importation by the relief of articles taxed to the degree of prohibition, which they claim will amount to from $10,000,000 to 15,000,000, that the natura increase in importation under the Mc Kinley bill, had not the hard times set it would have amounted this year to from $5,990,000 to $10,000,000. With the re-sumption of business this increase, they think, will be fully realized, so materially reducing the amount to be ruleed by the internal revenue and from some new measure yet to be imagurated.

In the south generally the effect of the new tariff hill will not be felt to severely as elsewhere on account of the local char acter of its great industries. intrigue and hold trade prostrate.

There is already apparent a little too much disposition to take it for granted that what the committee reports will be passed by both house and become a law. A good many thingware more probable than that all the Democratic Senators and Representatives will consent in advance to be bound by a caucus on a measure which affects the business of their conconstituents and their own political existence. In the Senate a small number of men, not more than four or five, by refusing to be so bound, and casting their votes as their own convictions or interests may dictate, could make it impossible to pass any tariff not suited to them, and it would be surprising if there should not be found Senators enough to take that position with success. The final form of the measure cannant safely be inferred from the report of the committee. It may be altered for the better in some respects or for the worse in others, but many changes are highly probable. This at
