Robert and Frank Shonp, of town, were sut on trial before Judge Beethel at Potteville in a charge of assault and battery with intention to kill, preferred by John Karlavage, of Gilberton. W. D. Seitzer, Esq., counsel for the defendants, started the case by asking for the discharge of the panel of jurors on the ground that one of them had been drawn under the name of McMuriha and was erviog under another name.

The juror was questioned and he said his isme was Murtha. Mr. Selizer then objected to the swearing of the jury on the grounds above stated. Judge Bechtel would not discharge the panel, but directed that Mr. Murtha be excused and the rest sworn in. Lawyer Seltzer took an exception,
