THE STUBBORN STRIKE

Review of Some of the Local Indications.

FAITH IN THE EMPLOYEES

Many Who Thought Last Week That the Company Would Soon Prove a Winner Now Admit That They Are Surprised by the Strength of the Brotherhood.

THE local impressions of the strike on the Lehigh Valley Railroad are by no means as favorable for the company as they were last week. A large number of conservative people who felt that the employees were weakening and would surrender by the opening of this week now confess surprise at the strength and endurance the men are showing and they now say that unless some settlement of the matter is speedily brought about the business men affected by the strike will be obliged to petition the railroad company to have the trouble adjusted within a given time, or its patrons will look to relief from other freight and express carrying lines wherever such relief can be had.

This morning the employees at all the depots of the Lehigh Company posted several notices of rewards in conspicuous places about the waiting rooms and ticket offices. The notices were received from the headquarters of the company and announce that a reward of $500 will be paid to any police officer or other official who may cause the arrest and conviction of any person who unlawfully interfere with any of the company's property.

These notices are a precaution of the company to cause officials in all towns along its lines to take a personal interest in the prevention of any violent act by the strikers or their friends.

A man who read one of the notices at the depot this morning said the company need fear no violence at the hands of the strikers, as they are controlled by an organization which will not countenance or tolerate such acts. A railway official, who stood by added "That is well understood. These notices are put up as a warning to the roughs who frequently take a bad in strikes without being asked and when they have no interest in them. They frequently commit acts which cause great loss to the company with the object of assisting the strikers, but they really arouse public sentiment and at sometimes place the strikers unwarrantably under grave suspicion.

Whatever claims the company may make in regard to its main line being in operation the fact still remains that freight traffic on the Mahanoy division is pretty firmly tied up and is confined almost wholly to local freight business. Yesterday a small freight train made a trip from Delano to Ashland and return, and in the evening, at about 5 o'clock, another small train passed west on its way to Shamokin, picking up cars at the different towns en route.

It cannot be disputed that the passenger traffic on the Mahanoy division is also suffering by reason of the strike. There is an undisputed timidity and at the Lehigh Valley depot this morning several people, fearing that they would not be able to get through to Mauch Chunk in time to attend the funeral of the late General Lilly, took the Lehigh train to Mahanoy City and at that point took a P. & E. train for Tamuqua and there took a Jersey Central train for Mauch Chunk. A number of Ashland people, who wanted to attend the funeral, traveled direct to Tamuqua.

That Microbe cause disease, and that Badam's Microbe Killer is a sure cure for any blood or chronic ailment can be proven by getting a 50-page book, free, from Gruhler Bros.

Attraction Extraordinary.
We are pleased to announce to the patrons of the theatre that the hustling manager, P. J. Ferguson, after considerable persuasion has induced James Young, the prominent tragedian, with his fine company, to favor us with an appearance on the local stage for two nights. Mr. Young will produce two of Shakespeare's plays, namely, "King Richard III" and "Hamlet." It is rarely that such good fortune attends towns of this size, but such is the case as far as this town is concerned, and we are to be congratulated that this excellent attraction is to be with us on the nights of December 6th and 7th.

SHENANDOAH POST OFFICE.

The Friends of the Different Applicants in Washington.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—The fight for the Shenandoah post office is on.

The respective applicants have their friends here buttonholing influential Democrats.

To-day's mail brought a huge package to the Congressman of Schuylkill, supposed to contain a petition, largely signed, and numerous letters from politicians and business men.

From present appearances it looks as if Michael Mellet is on top.

To-morrow it may be the other fellow's turn.

The unexpected may happen—there is no telling. C.

OB'S OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During His Travels About Town.

There was an animated game on North Main street in which a young woman was made an involuntary spectator of a rough and tumble fight. The young woman has two admirers, it seems. On this particular evening one escorted her from the dancing school and before they had gone far the other stepped up and urged a journey in another direction. The admirer didn't hurt each other very much, but they furnished considerable gossip for their acquaintances.

The gang of burglars which infests this town is becoming adept in the business. They are even more crafty, bold and skilled than the old-time Kline gang and unless speedily captured will no doubt bloom as "Red" Learys and like cracksmen. When they begin to make use of chloroform it is time for the community to become alarmed, for men who engage in that desperate character who have delivery or death for their motto.

County Detective Amour has so far recovered from the injuries he received in the Gilberton riot that he is able to take daily walks. When injured Mr. Amour weighed 265 pounds. When able to leave his bed his weight was but 155, a loss of 102 pounds.

In one of the cities the other day an applicant for citizenship papers was asked who make the laws of this country he replied, "The politicians." If that is so we have some fine law makers in Shenandoah, especially the politicians who last Saturday gathered in an ice house to see two game cocks chop each other to pieces.

About this time annually can be noted what appear to be strangers entering the various secret societies. These certain individuals—and all organizations are blessed with them—never show their faces in the lodge room only at the semi-annual elections, and in some respects remind one of the average Schuylkill county politician. On these occasions they are affable and sociable, and take great interest, apparently, in the success of their respective organizations. They are either looking for an office for themselves or their friends. Keep your eyes open and see if you do not notice a number of these individuals in your lodges during the next three weeks. ORO.

Dangerous Preparations.

Alcock's Porous Plasters is composed of purely vegetable ingredients and is absolutely harmless. It acts in her own efforts to heal and invigorate, and imparts strength to the whole system. Many preparations contain strong chemical and mineral substances which produce an injurious effect, not only upon the skin, but upon the whole system, although at first they seem very beneficial, on account of their powerful action and temporary effect upon the surface. When purchasing a plaster do not only ask for Alcock's, but make sure that you get it. Brandreth's Pills are purely vegetable.

Flagman Injured.

Claude E. Wilson, employed as flagman on the Lehigh Valley Railroad, was injured yesterday afternoon by being squeezed, about the hips, between a coal dump and the cab of an engine at Delano. Fortunately there were no fractures, but the bruises he sustained were quite serious. Wilson was taken to his home in Mt. Carmel.

THE LATEST NEWS!

Another Prominent Man Joins the Great Host.

JACK' LEAHY DIED TO-DAY

The Ex-County Commissioner Succumbs to a Violent Attack of Pneumonia—His Death Was Quite Unexpected and Creates a Mournful Sentiment.

It was with deep regret that the announcement of the death of Ex-County Commissioner John Leahy was received in this town to-day. There were few men in this county better known than "Jack" Leahy.

He was a whole souled, genial man, loyal to a friend, but bitter to any enemy; still his general characteristics were such that he had many friends in all classes, among all nationalities and in all political circles.

Mr. Leahy was for many years a resident of Ellengowan and there are to-day in that place many people who will cast a tear upon hearing of "Jack" Leahy's death.

Mr. Leahy was at one time collector of taxes in East Mahanoy Township. He served two terms as one of the County Commissioners of Schuylkill county and even in the most bitter political campaigns there was never a word raised that might be interpreted as a reflection upon his administration.

Mr. Leahy was about 65 years of age and left a large family, all his children now being adults. His death was caused by pneumonia and he was ill but four days.

Excellent Show.

The production of "True Irish Hearts" at Ferguson's theatre last night proved one of the best attractions of the season. The play is by no means a new one here, but at no time has it been better produced than last night and in consequence of the success the company has been induced to remain here and give another production this evening. The company is an aggregation of excellent actors and actresses and the funniest and wittiest of Irish comedians. Mr. Ed. W. Rowland, who plays Larry Lawson proved himself a clever comedian and a good singer and dancer. H. J. Campbell, as Roddy Paddy, and E. J. Brennan, as Lawrence Langan, are also good singers and dancers, and the former is exorbitantly funny. Miss Lillian Keene was a very pleasing comedienne as Kittie Brady. She is a graceful dancer and a sweet singer. While there are plenty in the cast to keep the fun bubbling, there are also several members who carry through the play a well defined story of sentiment in such a manner as to deeply interest the audience. The production was so successful last night it is safe to say the company will be welcomed by a crowded house to-night.

Superintendents and others having the arrangements of Christmas festivities will do well to consult Kemmerer, 134 North Main street, before purchasing confectionery. 12-5-1f

General Lilly's Funeral.

The funeral of the late General Lilly, which is taking place at Mauch Chunk this afternoon, is doubtlessly a very large one. Among those who were seen this morning on their way to attend the obsequies were Hon. D. D. Phillips, Hon. M. P. Fowler, Rev. Robert O'Boyle, John A. Reilly, John F. Finney and Dr. J. C. Biddle, superintendent of the Miners' Hospital.

The cost of Christmas festivities is comparatively low when the confectionery is purchased of Kemmerer. 12-5-1f

Taken to the Hospital.

Wm. Burk, a young man 17 years of age who was crushed between cars at Pottsville about seven weeks ago and sustained a serious fracture of the right knee, to-day passed through town on a Lehigh Valley train for the Miners' Hospital, his friends having decided to send him there for the benefit of the professional nursing.
