

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at 10 World's Fair Photos for One Dime.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway has made an arrangement with a first-class publishing house to furnish a series of beautiful World's Fair pictures, of a large size, at a nominal cost to the purchaser of only ten cents for a portfolio of sixteen illustrations. Nothing so handsome in reference to the World's Fair has before been published. This series would be worth at least twelve dollars if the pictures were not published in such large quantities, and we are therefore able to furnish these works of art for only ten cents.

Remit your money to George H. Henford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, at Chicago, Ill., and the pictures will be sent promptly to your specified address. They will make a handsome holiday gift.

Much Ado About Nothing.
An amateur exchange goes into hysterics over an announcement by the HERALD that it has secured the right to use certain patent tablet covers and the said covers thereby receive a lengthy free advertisement. As the HERALD did not claim it had the "exclusive" right the amateur has unnecessarily worried himself.

The reason why Arica & Oil Liniment is so popular with the ladies is because it not only is very healing and soothing but its odor is not at all offensive.

For Business Men and Societies.
The HERALD has secured the right to use the Mallette patent writing tablet covers, with reversible blotters, the only blotter tablet cover constructed which turns under the tablet. This is specially adapted for letter and note heads, bill heads, statements, etc., and will be placed on stationary free for the balance of 1903. Any one interested will please call and examine the handy device, at the HERALD office.

DON'T CROWD THE SCHOLARS.

Shall Children Study Out of School Hours?—Ruined Eyes, Headache, Nervous Collapse—Physicians' Advice.

It is an old remark that boys who shine at school seldom make the greatest figure when they grow up. If one thinks over the prize boys who went to school with him he will find that many suddenly stopped short and turned out great dunces at last, while others, not so forward but with high health and spirits, have turned out the prize men and women of the world.

Too many studies, constant examinations, and study out of school hours, ruin the nerves, make pale faces, weak eyes, and ruined hopes.

At the first intimation of overwork and exhaustion, the safest and most nerve tonic for children, young and old, is Paine's Celery Compound, a remedy that physicians prescribe and educators recommend, because it is the prescription of one of the ablest of physicians and instructors, Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college. Watchful fathers and mothers appreciate this. Never have testimonials from so many grateful parents been so unreservedly given as to Paine's celery compound. It has entered more homes during the year throughout the United States than any other remedy. So repeatedly has it succeeded in curing nervous weakness, sleeplessness, and lassitude that it has gained the confidence of all physicians, hosts of mothers, and many hundreds of children. Try it.

The First National Bank's Action on Gen. Lilly's Death.

At a meeting of the directors of the First National Bank of Shenandoah, Pa., held on December 4, 1893, in their banking house, on hearing of the death of a fellow director in the person of General William Lilly, of Manch Chunk, by unanimous action of the board, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That in the wise judgment of an all-wise Providence He has chosen to take from our midst an honorable, patriotic and eminently useful citizen of the community in which he lived, the state and nation which he successfully assisted in defending, upholding and developing at the patriarchal age of more than three score years and ten.

Resolved, That in the death of General William Lilly, the directors of the First National Bank of Shenandoah, Pa., in company with all good citizens, deplore the loss to this institution, the state and nation, and with humiliation bow to and accept the decree of the Ruler of Princes and extend our sympathy to the relatives with a copy of these resolutions.
