Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and miscellaneous other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a trifling difference in the price of the best and the worst that it is not likely to pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy. The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at Attraction Extraordinary. We are pleased to announce to the patrons of the theatre that the leading manager, P. J. Ferguson, after considerable persuasion has induced James Young, the prominent tragedian, with his fine company, to favor us with an appearance on the best stage for two nights. Mr. Young will produce two of Shakespeare's plays, namely, "King Richard III" and "Hamlet." It is rarely that such good fortune attends towns of this size, but such is the case as far as this town is concerned, and we are to be congratulated that this excellent attraction is to be with us on the nights of December 25th and 26th.

16 World's Fair Photos for One Dime. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway has made an arrangement with a first-class publishing house to furnish a series of beautiful World's Fair photos, of a large size, at a nominal cost to the purchaser of only ten cents for a portfolio of sixteen illustrations. Nothing so handsome in reference to the World's Fair has before been published. The series would be worth at least twelve dollars if the pictures were not published in such large quantities, and we are therefore able to furnish these works of art for only ten cents.

Remit your money to George H. Headford, General Passenger Agent, Chicago, 231 Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway, at Chicago, Ill., and the pictures will be sent promptly to any specified address. They will make a handsome holiday gift. 12-4-11.

A Poor House. The production of the "True Irish Heir," at Ferguson's Theatre last night, was not as successful in a financial sense as on the previous night. But despite the poor attendance the company went on with the performance and tried as hard to please those present as if the house had been crowded. The company was deserving of far better patronage, but it only goes to show that a play and company must be aided by extraordinary circumstances to draw two good houses in succession in this town.

NEW DYES FOR COTTON.

BEAUTIFUL AND BRILLIANT COLORS THAT DO NOT FADE.

Scientific Discoveries that Lighten Labor. A Weaver's Experience in Dyeing Carpets Where the Color Stays as Bright as When New.

These economical women who have learned how easy it is to save money by home-dyeing, have often complained because there were not fast and non-fading dyes for cotton goods. Within the last few years science has been at work, and the results are the fast diamond dyes for cotton—turkey red, pink, purple, orange, olive green, brown, etc. These dyes make colors so fast that even washing in strong soap suds will not start them. If a woman is sure to get the fast diamond dyes for cotton when she wants to dye cotton, she will be able to dye absolutely fast, non-fading colors that will stay until the goods are worn out.

A practical dyer, writing in the Herald, says, "I used to dye with roots and barks, but after all my work, (and it was a tedious job,) I was not satisfied, for the colors were homely and often faded. At last I commenced to use diamond dyes, and the process is so simple and easy that the work is a pleasure. I have used carpets made of rags dyed with diamond dyes three years, and the colors are still as bright as when new."

Many of the diamond dye fast cotton colors are superior to other dyes that they are used by dyers everywhere, even in the big mills and the large dye houses. Imitators of these reliable dyes have claimed that their cotton dyes are "just as good," but practical tests prove the diamond is the only kind that makes colors which soap will not wash out or sunlight fade.

The diamond dyes come in nearly fifty different colors, for silk, wool, and cotton, and will dye anything, from a pair of stockings to a dress or cloak.

Montgomery County Democrats. "Nonesuch," Pa., Nov. 6.—The Democratic committee met here for reorganization and re-elected Edward F. Kane chairman by a unanimous vote. Oliver G. Morris, of Hatfield, was elected vice-chairman; A. A. Carr, of Whitman, treasurer, and Harry L. Cox, W. P. Myers and W. L. Deil, secretaries.

Harris Adjudged Insane. WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 6.—The jury in the Charles Harris case at Dover rendered a verdict last night declaring that Harris is insane and incapable of managing his own affairs. This is a victory for Mrs. Sarah H. McPhail, a niece, who brought the suit. Harris has property valued at $50,000.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE. Senator Dolph Assails the Administration's Hawaiian Policy. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—In the senate yesterday almost the entire time of the session was occupied by Senator Dolph, of Oregon, in a speech against what is understood to be the policy of the administration in the Hawaiian matter. He characterized it as a crime against civilization and was severe in his criticism of the president. The resolution was brought to a close early in the day by the presentation of resolutions relative to the Hon. Charles O'Neill, late a representative from the state of Pennsylvania, in respect to whose memory an adjournment was had. The second day of the session of the house was dismissed dull. Not a spark of interest animated the proceedings. The only thing of moment accomplished beyond the passage of several small bills affecting land titles in the far west was an agreement to close the general debate on the bankruptcy bill today.

Sequel to the Rockafellow Failure. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 6.—A big legal battle began here in the courts. About a year ago E. P. Darling, a leading member of the Luzerne county bar, died. For some years previous to his death he was a member of the defunct banking firm of F. V. Rockafellow & Co. A few months before Mr. Darling's death he quietly withdrew from the firm, although no public notice had been given to the depositors to that effect. Now the orphan's court has been called upon to audit the distribution in the estate of E. P. Darling. Counsel for Rockafellow's depositors then filed an application at once to be list into the distribution.

A Lively Prize Fight. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 6.—Johnny Flynn, of New York, and Charles Johnson, of St. Paul, fought a bloody seven round battle for a purse of $600, before a strictly select party at an early hour in the morning. In the first two rounds Flynn had decidedly the best of it, but from that on Johnson pounded him severely, scoring four clean knock downs, and finally putting his antagonist to sleep for nearly ten minutes. The men weighed in at 142 pounds.

Fritchard and Creedon May Fight. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The following cable has been received from London: Ted Fritchard, the middleweight champion of England, called at the Sporting Life office and issued a challenge to fight Dan Creedon, the middleweight champion of Australia, at Fremont for 2500 a side. Creedon is willing to fight Fritchard, and when the latter posts 2500 and forwards the articles of agreement the match will be arranged, provided Creedon is allowed expenses to go to England.
