

AT MEAL-TIMES

Do you ever consider the quality of the food you are eating? It may be good. It might be better, purer, fresher and more wholesome. Is it not worth while to make sure that your Tea, Coffee, Sugar, Butter, Eggs, Spices and innumerable other groceries are of the best quality? There is such a wide difference in the prices of the best and the worst that it certainly does not pay to buy the worst, even on the false ground of supposed economy.

The best is always the cheapest, because the most satisfactory and durable, and the very best of everything in the grocery line is kept at

THIRD EDITION

CLEVELANDISM
Congress has Mr. Cleveland on its hands. As an authority on needs Mr. Cleveland is a cocker.

There are evidences of loathsome all through that message.

Mr. Cleveland has pressed the button. Will Congress do the rest?

Even the wires groaned under the weight of Cleveland's message.

If there are any Federal election cases in Congress Mr. Cleveland hasn't tried on them. If any workmen are to find a ray of hope in Mr. Cleveland's tariff views, he's welcome to it.

If Mr. Cleveland had to pay telegraph tolls on his own message, he'd have used an ink to cut it down.

Mr. Cleveland's administration appears to be at peace with all nations except the United States.

The short of it "Pack the Wilson bill or you get no pin."

Mr. Cleveland seems to have been so busy writing his message that he forgot to read the election returns.

Mr. Cleveland writes at length about "our foreign relations," but takes good care not to tell what he knows about Queen Lill.

Mr. Cleveland declares that even if the Wilson bill should reduce the wages of workmen it would at least give them "steady employment." Right—steady employment is searching for work.

According to Mr. Cleveland the Wilson bill has been devised expressly to promote still further the interests of protected manufacturers. Another "eliminating atrocity of class legislation."

The President asserts in substance that he proposes to restore Lilloukalan to her throne if it can be done without endangering his own throne.

"Contemner" and "meditation," in the White House vocabulary, have given way to "my intense feeling of responsibility."

If you are sick, or if any of your relatives are sick, a cure can be found in Radam's Microbe Killer, no matter what the disease. Fifty-page book free with full information at Gruhler Bros.

DYSPEPSIA A FEARFUL THING.

Capt. H. C. Lull Suffered With It for Years—He Starved at Andersonville—Paine's Celery Compound Made Him Well.

Whatever else goes wrong digestion must go right, and for this to go right the nerves must be in tune.

Paine's celery compound regulates the nervous system, and the nerves regulate digestion. Paine's celery compound cures dyspepsia, for dyspepsia is chronic indigestion.

A poor appetite for breakfast, during the morning a faint, all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach, strange sensations in the head, all point to indigestion. Paine's celery compound soon dissipates those symptoms, even in chronic cases. Here is an example.

CAPT. H. C. LULL.

Capt. H. C. Lull, who is prominently identified with the U. S. A. R. in Vermont, was taken prisoner at the battle of the Wilderness and sent to Andersonville, where he suffered starvation as few men bear it and live.

Capt. Lull now lives in Montpelier, Vt. A letter from him reads:

"Having been a sufferer for a long time with dyspepsia, I found relief by the use of one bottle of Paine's celery compound. Having a personal acquaintance with that eminent physician, Dr. Phelps, it gave me assurance that Paine's celery compound was what I required to be. I put but little confidence in what I see advertised upon bars, bridges, and fences, but think I know whereof I speak when I say that Paine's celery compound cured me. I cheerfully and without solicitation recommend it to all."

Paine's celery compound sustains against fatigue, conquers indigestion, sick headache, and dreads dyspepsia. It does it by bringing the nerves into harmonious action.
