Charged with Official Corruption. LANCASTER, Pr., Dec. 12.—Albert Smith, Lancastes, Fr., Dec. III.—Albert Smith, a member of the board of county prison inspectors, is on trial here on the charge of having been bribed to vote for Matthias W. Harvey, for the position of first underkeeper at the prison. Several of the members of the prison board swore positively that Harvey had said to them that he had paid Smith $50 for his vote. The parties interested are all prominent politicians.

TO SUPPRESS ANARCHY

Sweeping Measures Passed by the French Congress.

SOCIALIST OPPOSITION DEFEATED.

Both Senste and Chamber of Deputies Give Overwheiming Majorities - Valllant's Accomplises, If He Bad Any, Still Undbeovered.

PARIS, Dec. 12.—The corridor of the chamber of deputies presented its ordi-tary appearance restorday, but there was a large attendance of the deputies as well as of the public. Previous to the introduction of the government's bills the so-cialists' signifies met and decided to op-childs deputies not and decided to op-pose the motion to give argency to the bill against the anarch sta.

The government's first bill, to make it a penal offense to publish incitements, to commit outrages by the nac of explosives, provides punishment for indirect in ad-dition to direct incitaments.

The second bill, to regulate the manufacture and possession of explosives, provides not only for the control of explosives and their use, but regulates the use and preservion of chemicals used in the mann facture of explosives, and both chemicals and explosives can be seized if the police have any suspicion that they are to be put on improper use.

The third measure, extending the power of the police for the repression of anarshy ugitation and for preventing anarchist out ages, increases the credit of the department of the interior by $20,000 francs, and augments the police in the provinces and establishes additional police bureaus, in-creases the wages of badly paid municipal policemen, and largely increases the force. The fourth bill, providing for police su-pervision of anarchistic societies, will put such societies in the same category as as-

Premier Casimir-Perier, who was fre-quently interrupted by applause, explained that the bill to modify the press law pro-vides for making it a penal offense to pub-lish incitements to pillage, or to murder, or to commit incendiary crimes, shall be paulished by five years imprisonment, and that the authorities shall have the power to make preventive arrests and seizures. M. Petletan moved to adjourn the de-bate, but amid a moved of considerable en-thodison most the part of the thindasin upon the part of the supporters of the government this motion was re-jected by a vote of 404 to 143. M. Ramel then moved that the government bill be sent to a committee immediately. A scene sent to a committee inhibitation. Assent of great excitement followed, but the government again won a sweeping victory, the motion being rejected by a vote of 380 to 156. Finally, in spite of the protests of the socialists, an immediate discussion of the bills was ordered.

M. Boisserin proposed an amendment. M. Boissein proposed an amendment, which the government opposed amid lond cheering and which was rejected by a vote of 300 to 85, the result being received with loud cheers from the friends of law and order. After further discussion the bill was adopted by a vote of 413 to 156 and the chamber adjourned.

In the senate Premier Perier submitted the press bill just adopted by the chamber of deputies. The premier in submitting the bill to the secutors assured them that the government would know how to dr the government would know how to an its duty if parliament supported the gov-ernment. M Casimir-Perier then asked urgency for the bill, which was mani-mously accorded, and the senate adourned:

The minister of justice visited Validant at the hospital for the purpose of ques-tioning him with regard to his motive for committing the orime. In responding to the minister's questions, Vaillant re-plied: "It would be useless to explain my

A PERJURED WITNESS.

Proceedings in the Trial of Dr. Meyer at New York.

MULLER CONTRADICTS HIMSELF.

His Evidence Considerably Shaken by the Cross Questioning of Mr. Brooke, Counsat for the Defense Multer's Share of the Plander.

New York, Dec. 12.—The trial of Dr. Henry C. F. Mayer, the alleged potential and defaulter of insurance companies, was resumed in the court of oyee and terminer efore Judge Barrett, Carl Muller, who and turned state's evidence, and who gave his featimony last week, reciting in detail the horrible murder of Brandt, committed by the prisoner for the take of his life insurance policy, and of which Muller, the witness, claimed to be a participant, was submitted to a severe cross examination by Lawyer Brooke, counsel for Dr. Mryer. The witness was not in the least dis-turbed at the thrusts given him by Mr. Brooke in the cross examination, except when the fact that he had deserted a wife in Germany was brought up. The same tone of questioning made him acknowl-edge that notwithstanding his recent mar-riage to Mary Neiss, he sent $400 of the money Dr. Meyer gave him for his share money Dr. Meyer gave him for his share in the Brandt murder to the descried wife, at Sistich, Germany. Mr. Brooke succeeded in confusing the gilb witness several times. He could not describe the antimony which he said Meyer had administered to Brandt. In fact he had to confess he had not seen the contents of the package he said was marked "anti-stater stater said that Dr. Mayer di-rected him to go by the name of Otio C. Stein, of New York, but when Mr. Brooku read his testimony of Friday that ha signed Otto C. Stein to the register at the Cosmopolitan hotel on his arrival on the spur of the moment, Muller said that Federal that Friday's testimony was false. The witness was then lied to go over his testi-mony again respecting the poisoning of Brandt. Dr. Meyer gave Brandt as a first dose three drops of groton oil in a table epoonful of water, but after swallowing apanetic of extree, and after awaiting so it Brandt grabbed the bottle, saying so small a dose could not affect him, where-upon he poured a lot of oil in the apoon and swallowed it. At this Dr. Moyer said: "Brandt don't know what croton oil is.

That will kill him: Now we have a dead Mr. Brooks made Muller say over an Mr. Brooke made Muller say over and over again that neither Meyer, Mrs. Meyer nor binself had told Brandt to take the dese, but that Meyer had looked in the book and read "Doss, one to three drops." Brandt took the dose of his own notion. Then Dr. Minden was sent for Brandt told him he had dysentery, but

Dr. Mindon diagnosed the case as inflammatten of the nowels. As some as the details of the death had been retold, Mr. Brooke, who had linne-ance forms showing that Muller had writ-ten his own additivit as a friend of the Winners, in which he swore that he had known Gussay M. A. J. Baim twelve
