A SPOTLESS REPUTATION.

For Honesty and Ability, Says the Wilkes-Barre Times.

Of the great specialists who will open his office in the Ferguson House next Thursday morning at 9, the Wilkes-Barre Times says: "Dr. J. Harvey Moore, the great specialist in diseases of the eye, ear, throat, nose and nervous system, will soon leave Wilkes-Barre. Ordinarily there is no particular regret when a traveling specialist leaves town. But it is not so in this case. Dr. Moore is not an ordinary specialist. He is a master in many of the most important disorders of mankind. As an eye surgeon he is pre-eminent. Professors in great colleges admit it, while thousands of sufferers whom he has practically led from darkness into light are living proclamations of his skill. There are a large number of them in this vicinity whom he has cured in the past few weeks and there are many more who need his services. Hence the genuine regret at his departure. His office in the Exchange Hotel is crowded daily and has been all the time he has been with us. He was known here before having performed many important operations in this vicinity in years past and has always borne a spotless reputation for conscientious honesty and ability. He travels simply because there are thousands in distant parts who need his services and are unable to come to him."

Dr. Moore announces in his advertisement that he will straighten his "cataract method" the first case of cross eyes calling on him.

Sparrows' Point Mill to Close Down.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 15.—The statement comes from a source high in the affairs of the Pennsylvania steel company that the company has agreed with the three other great steel manufacturing corporations—the Bethlehem, the Carnegie and the Illinois companies—to close the steel rail plant of the Maryland Steel company, its branch in this state, during the whole of the year 1904 on payment of a consideration of $400,000, that sum being the estimated profits from the manufacture of rail during twelve months. The mill may, however, continue open for a while to fill orders at the discretion of the great companies mentioned, which have practically leased the mill at Sparrows' Point for a year.

It is reported that five new brakemen have been hired at Delano in preference to the old Brotherhood men. The first case of cross eyes calling on Dr. Moore will be straitened free of charge. Brief clippings from Pennsylvania papers: Scranton Republican. Dr. Moore came to this section a number of years ago from Philadelphia, embarking at once in practice as a specialist, and has become well known to our people. The doctor is a graduate from the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia as well as a graduate as a specialist from the Polytechnic of New York, and has certificates of other special training. He has distinguished himself here by numerous brilliant operations in eye surgery in which the success of his operations are well known, although his success in his medical specialties has been no less pronounced. He is not given to hazardous experiments, is extremely cautious, and avoids the common fault of skillful surgeons—arrogance—and is uniformly courteous to all.

During Dr. Moore's stay in Reading he has been visited by hundreds of afflicted people. He has effected some remarkable cures, and all who visited him found Dr. Moore honest in all his dealings, anti-factory to his treatment of patients and a gentleman who stands high in the medical profession.

Harrisburg Call. Dr. Moore has wrought much good while in Harrisburg, and his honorable dealings with all proclaim him a gentleman of whom any city might be proud.

Reading Sunday Call. We could fill a column with names of men, women and children, who are Dr. Moore's patients, and who will long remember him with gratitude and praise.

Altoona Independent. Dr. Moore's success has been most remarkable. He has effected some remarkable cures, and all who visited him found Dr. Moore honest in all his dealings, anti-factory to his treatment of patients and a gentleman who stands high in the medical profession.

Johnstown P. Democrat. Dr. Moore is a gentleman of pleasing address and character, and worthy the confidence of the people.

Chester Daily Leader. Dr. Moore has performed many delicate surgical operations and effected remarkable cures in this city.

Scranton Oracle. Dr. J. Harvey Moore effected some extremely remarkable cures while here. As an eye specialist he is our opinion one of the greatest in the profession. Patients far and near have furnished him excellent testimonials, in fact he is exactly what he advertises himself to be.

Reading Herald. Dr. Moore has been found all that was expected, both professionally and socially, and is an honest man who stands among those at the head of his profession.
