LILLIOUKAANI can now echo that famous phrase: Hawaii am I at?

THE great American hog is still in it coughing, sputtering and filling the air with disease and impurity for other people to breathe.

AMERICAN gold is again being shipped to Europe in large amounts. Free trade, Democratic good (?) times and exportation of our precious metal go together.

A PRIZE of $50,000, it is expected, will be offered by the Metropolitan Traction Company, of New York, for a plan of a system for street railways, superior or equal to the trolley system. Let our local inventors keep an eye open for this offer.

GEORGE U. HUNTER, of Oakland, Cal., has just come out of the surgeon's hands without a memory. His skull was fractured by a flying bolt, and the brain was injured. Although he is now otherwise perfectly well, he cannot remember his wife or his mother. Although he had a good education, he can now neither read or write.

DURING the war, when the income tax bill was before Congress, the Democrats used the argument that an army of office-holders would be needed to collect it, and that thus a host of Republicans would be fed from the public crib. Can Democrats collect an income tax without a large addition to the employes of the Internal Revenue department?

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Bear in mind that it does not take a great deal to make a child happy. Times are called hard, which mean that business is not brisk and money not easily obtained. Think of these things when making your purchases for the children during the coming holidays. The custom with many parents and friends is to give something at such times. That is all well enough if you can readily spare the means, but if your purse is not as plenteous as usual try on the experiment of making less costly presents to the little ones, and you will find that the less expensive toys, pictures, etc., will give the same amount of happiness to them as the more costly.

If you feel that you can spare a few dimes or a dollar, look around you and see whether you cannot find some one, two or three poor children to whom Christmas presents have ever been entire strangers, and gladden their hearts with a gift of some kind, however small its cost, and unpretentious its character. By giving your own children something that will cost you less you will be able to confer happiness upon others by spending the curtailed amount as we have indicated. You will, moreover, be giving your little ones additional enjoyment if you will allow them to be the bearers of your gifts to the poor children for whom you have purchased them.

THE WAR IN BRAZIL.

Admiral Gama's Adherence Encourages the Revolutionists.

SLIGHT SKIRMISHES CONTINUE.

In One of These Over a Hundred Government Soldiers Were Killed and Injured. Peixoto's Forces Capture the Island of Governador, a Strong Strategic Position.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—The Times publishes a dispatch from its correspondent in Rio de Janeiro, dated Dec. 9, saying: "The manifesto of Admiral da Gama (the insurrectionist) in the name of Admiral da Gama during the absence of Admiral de Melho has produced excitement, and greatly increases the popularity of the revolution. A messenger who has returned from Sao Paulo and Santos says the monarchist element predominates everywhere. The people are prepared to follow the lead of Admiral da Gama. Fernando Lobo, minister of justice and the interior, resigned yesterday in consequence of a divergence of opinion with President Peixoto concerning present events. This shows that the position of President Peixoto is weakening. Several officers during the past week have been arrested on suspicion of complicity in the revolution. The government has suspended the Rio News, an English newspaper, whose editor is an American.

"During the past week there has been some slight skirmishing in the vicinity of Niteroy and Armaoz with small casualties and no result. The artillery fire of the forts upon Fort Villagran continues daily without apparent alteration of the situation. "On Wednesday night I visited Fort Villagran on an insurgent launch. When we passed between Cobras Island and Fort Villagran the troops lining the shore opened a heavy rifle fire, and Fort Villagran replied by killing, killing and wounding a hundred soldiers. "I found the fortress to be much damaged; all the buildings are in ruins, and the masonry of the center, toward the mouth of the harbor, is much cut away in consequence of the shelling it has received from the government forts. The guns were working well, but were greatly exposed, and three of them were disabled. Two hundred officers and men form the garrison. All were cheerful and confident of ultimate success. I examined the fortress thoroughly and considered that it was resist for two months longer. "On Saturday night 1,500 government troops, lining the shore near the war and marine arsenals, opened a heavy fire from machine guns and rifles upon Cobras Island for the purpose of forcing the admiral of steering parties. Cobras Island replied strongly, causing the troops to abandon the attempt after two hours heavy firing, the government losing over a hundred men and the insurgents having only two men wounded. "Yesterday the insurgents seized the steamer Parahyba, flying the Argentine flag, carrying war material and provisions and proceeding to Santos and Rio Grande. The vessel refused to leave, so the insurgents fired, killing one and wounding four. The insurgents then boarded her. "Every day people are being arrested by the government's orders on the ground that they are suspected of revolutionary tendencies. Over 1,500 persons are now in prison at Rio de Janeiro on account of their supposed political tendencies. They are treated with scant courtesy, and herded with criminals and madmen in all descriptions. A few days ago orders were sent by the government to Minas Geraes to arrest Visconde Ouro Preto, the head of the monarchist party in Brazil. The provincial authorities refused point blank to execute the order. "Many important business houses propose closing their doors until the end of the revolution, as they consider that the present position is too dangerous. The British minister has notified the community that much danger exists at the present time, and advising residents to leave the city. Many people consider that the time has arrived for recognition of the belligerent status of the insurgents. "The Brazilian legation in this city has received a telegram from Rio Janeiro, saying that the government troops have recaptured Governador's Island from the insurgents. This is considered a most important victory for President Peixoto, owing to the strategic position which the island occupies. The dispatch makes the further important announcement that the commanders of the American and German warships have declared that they will protect foreign interests, and that they will not recognize any blockade of Rio Janeiro which may be established by the insurgents.
