NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

HAPPENINGS OF A LOCAL CHARACTER BRIEFLY CHRONICLED.

Interesting News Items From Mahanoy City, Mahanoy Plains, Girardville, and Other Places.

The majority of the barbers here are desirous of having a full holiday on Christmas, but it is doubtful that they will get it, because of two or three shop owners, who, it is said, always oppose the wishes of the majority, even to Sunday closing, to gain a few regular customers from those who desire to close.

Harry Stauffer, of Waterbury, Conn., is here to spend the holidays with his parents, Jess Webb and bride, nee Miss Lillian Meyer, returned from a wedding trip to Camden, N. J.

John Booth, stable boss at the North Mahanoy City colliery, is low with typhoid pneumonia.

Carrier John J. Jacobs, has been on the sick list for two days past.

Dora Elizabeth Miller, aged 63 years, wife of Fred Miller, died at the home of her son, at 323 1/2 East Centre street, on Monday afternoon. The deceased is survived by her husband, three sons, John W., Christian and Frederick, and a daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Elia, formerly of Shenandoah. The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon. After services in the Trinity Reformed church, the remains will be taken to Tananqua, leaving here on the 1:04 train.

William Damonatis, an East Centre street merchant, has departed for parts unknown, but presumably Poland, leaving a host of creditors.

Our ever watchful night patrolman, John Haasler, has had two experiences with burglariously inclined people since he scared a pair of marauders from D. J. Clary's East Centre street residence on Saturday night, as they were preparing to enter by removing a pane from the door.

Late on Monday night the officer shadowed a stranger acting suspiciously at several stores on West Centre street, and as the stranger tried the door of Metz's jewelry store, the officer placed him under arrest. The prisoner proved to be an intoxicated Poleander looking for a hospitable place in which to sleep off his jag. He was accommodated at the lock up.

But early Tuesday morning John ran against a case that proved more realistic. It was about four o'clock in the morning when signs of a storm and the wind plashes around the corner with raged-like edges, that in going the rounds he tried the door of John Glen's home, near the post office, and found it open. With detective instinct, he at once went into the dark alley in the rear of the house and stumbled against a tall woman dressed in black.

The woman ran and the officer gave chase, and although he twice ordered her to halt at the point of a revolver, she shot away from him like a sprinter in a 100-yard dash. Returning to the yard he found another door open and a chair against the chicken house as though she were about to rob old Mr. Glen of his Christmas dinner. Nothing was taken from the house.

From several actions, the officer believes the intruder was a man masquerading in female attire.

Small boys are making the most of a skating pond in the west end of town.

Miss Sarah Oakes has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Charles Kleindenz, formerly a deputy officer on the local force, has received the appointment of Constable Iron policeman and will probably patrol the Frackville district.

Miss Kate Brause, of Lakeside, made holiday purchases yesterday afternoon. The engine and machinery for the Lakeside railway was unloading at their plant near the Lehigh Valley railroad yesterday afternoon.

Andrew Kelly, of Hill's patch, is recovering from a week's sickness.

Dr. J. W. Irwin, of Shenandoah, was a visitor here yesterday.

Heard of Before

RIGHT in the heart of the Christmas Holidays we are selling OVERCOATS and SUITS at less than cost. Some will doubt us when we say we are selling goods less than cost, but if you will take a look at our immense stock you will see the reason why. We are overstocked; our store room is overcrowded with goods.

Times are hard, and in order to convert our goods into cash we must offer some extraordinary inducements. We not only pay your fare both ways, but will sell you goods at less than manufacturer's cost. If you don't believe it come and get our prices. Children's suits and reefers and men's fine dress suits our specialties.

&
NERVOUS SYSTEM

Special Attention Paid to Fitting Glasses

Treatment of Catarrh and Nervous Diseases.

Eye's straightened by Dr. Moore's Painless Method, without ether or chloroform; no failures; no tying up of eyes or remaining indoors. The first case of cross eyes, calling on Dr. Moore will be straitened free of charge.

Brief clippings from Pennsylvania papers.

Scranton Republican.

Dr. Moore came to this section a number of years ago from Philadelphia, embarking at once in practice as a specialist, and has become well known to our people. The doctor is a graduate from the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia as well as a graduate as a specialist from the Polytechnic of New York, and has certificates of other special training. He has distinguished himself here by numerous brilliant operations in eye surgery, in which line because of its importance, he is best known, although his success in his medical specialties has been no less pronounced. He is not given to hazardous experiments, is extremely cautious, and avoids the common fault of actual surgeons—arrogance—and is uniformly courteous to all.

Reading Eagle.

During Dr. Moore's stay in Reading he has been called by hundreds of afflicted people. He has effected some remarkable cures, and all who visited him found Dr. Moore honest in all his dealings, and a gentleman who stands high in the medical profession.

Harrisburg Call.

Dr. Moore has wrought much good while in Harrisburg, and his honorable dealings with all people in him a gentleman of whom any city might be proud.

Easton Sunday Call.

We could fill columns with names of men, women and children, who are Dr. Moore's patients, and who will long remember him with gratitude and praise.

Altoona Independent.

Dr. Moore's success has been most remarkable; he has dispensed the healing art with the hand of a master in his profession and shows himself to be a gentleman in every sense of the word.

Johnstown, P. A. Democrat.

Dr. Moore is a gentleman of pleasing address and character, and worthy the confidence of the public.

Carlisle Daily Leader.

Dr. Moore has performed many delicate surgical operations and effected remarkable cures in this city.

Atlantic City.

"Dr. J. Harvey Moore effected some extremely remarkable cures while here. As an eye specialist he is our opinion one of the greatest in the profession. Patients for miles around here furnish him excellent testimonials. In fact he is exactly what his advertisements himself to be."

New Herald.

Dr. Moore has been found all that was expected, both professionally and socially, and is an honest man who stands among those at the head of his profession.
