THE hardest problem of the day is not to make a dollar go as far as possible; it is to coax it to come as near as possibile.

THE President ought to be contributing to charity funds for the unem played Instead of paying the election expenses of candidates to the Unite States Senate.

HAVE the wage-earners forgotten President Cieveland's solicitude respecting their lot in 1892, that year of unprecedented prosperity? They and good wages then and were fully employed, but the Democratic candidate for the Presidency choose to represent them as the helpless victims of a system of "oppressive taxation" which "relentlessly demands from them in the purchase of the necessaries and comforts of life an amount searcely met by the wages of hard and steady toll " Now thousands of them are out of work, and thousands more are earning greatly reduced wages. OBE'S OBSERVATIONS.

What He Sees and Hears During His Travels.

"I predict," said a well known gentleman of town while leaving church on Sunday ast, "that within the next month or two this ounty will see a series of great religious regivals. I have never known hard times like he present to pass by without being accomanied by such demonstrations. It's natural that they should come, too. You see, when copie are prosperous they are not so likely to my attention to religious; but misfortune makes them serious, and makes them realize how weak they are. Then, too, religious on thursteen takes the mind off business and preparce one for worldly reverses."

An Ashland man tells a story of how he got even with a prescher. It was on the occasion of his second marriage. After corolled ing the ogremony.
