A STABBING AFFRAY.

ALMOST A TRAGEDY AT MAHANOV CITY.

An Old Feud Brings Up a Quarrel Which Nearly Results in the Death of One of the Combatants.

MAHANOV CITY, Dec. 26.

There was almost a tragedy in that part of this town commonly known as "below the dead line" on Saturday night. Anthony Milnekitus stabbed Martin Osvage in the head three times, while Osvage and his brother were attempting to eject Milnekitus from their home. The injury may yet prove fatal. Milnekitus was lodged in the Pottsville jail. The men quarreled in the mines several months ago and have since been enemies. Saturday night Milnekitus and the Osvage brothers wrangled over a game of cards after drinking heavily. As the discussion grew warmer the old trouble was cast up, with the objection as the result. Milnekitus resisted, and becoming enraged, drew a knife and, raising it high in the air, brought it down with all force upon Osvage's cheek, penetrating the jaw and burying the blade to the hilt. The weapon was raised a gain and, each time a new wound was inflicted, one stroke cutting the forehead and another striking behind the ears and sinking deep into the bone. As Osvage fell to the floor in a heap Milnekitus made his escape. The wounds were so painful Osvage struggled with all his strength while a physician was dressing them. The stabbing was done with an ordinary pocket knife having a three inch blade. Officer Frank Morton, accompanied by Martin Foley and Ollie Jones, arrested Milnekitus at his home on South alley. He went quietly to Justice O'Brien's office and Constable Russell took him to jail.

Donahoe, of Shenandoah, beat Harry Lewis at the park yesterday afternoon by four feet. Lewis was put back three feet at the start for going over the line before the pistol was fired. The men got away at 320 in line shape. Donahoe, seeking to increase his lead and hold it to the finish, threw a number of spectators and considerable betting. Odds were offered freely on Donahoe. Considerable money changed hands and quite a few of Lewis' backers went home heavy losers. Lewis posted $30 for another race with Donahoe on January 27 for $100 a side, but says he will not run Donahoe unless half the gate receipts of yesterday's match are turned over to him, which he alleges was part of the agreement for yesterday's race.

Lewis has also named the following challenge:

"Harry Lewis, of Moore, will run A. J. Munley, of East Creek, 100 yards for $100 a side, Sheffield rules to govern, out of creek. Let up, or shut up."

Philip E. Konecher, the well known jeweler of this place, died on Monday afternoon of rheumatism. The deceased was born in Germany and had been in business here for twenty years.

Frank Copper, who on July 2nd last, stole $70 and a revolver from Lee Sauer, a Chinese laundryman, was captured by Officer Charles Kleindienst on Centre street yesterday afternoon.

Joseph Debbey and John Watkins engaged in a skin kicking contest on Christmas morning and Debbey was backed up.

Joseph Leary and Benjamin Rosenmiller, members of a cantonment band, were arrested at Boston Run on Christmas evening for malicious mischief. The young men of the party, to the number of about twenty-five, provided with kettledrums, fish horns, wash-bottles and dry goods boxes, took up a position in front of William Richards' house on the Main street to serenade Mr. Richards' newly married son-in-law and daughter, who were visitors of the evening. Mr. Richards did not hasten to appear with the customary $5 and, in their impatience, the serenaders forced open the front door and took possession of the parlor. Hence the arrest. Rosenmiller was discharged, but Leary paid a fine and costs.

Three Italians employed on the Lakeside Electric Railway tried to force an entrance into Samuel Traub's general store near the Reading Railroad bridge on Christmas Day, insisting that the place was a saloon. When Traub pushed them out two of the Italians drew ugly knives and threatened war. Justice May sent the men to the "cooler."

"Full of trouble" is the unhappy sufferer with sore and rheumatism. Red Flag Oil is the famous pain cure for rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia and Lumbago. Costs 25 cents. Red Flag Oil is sold at P. P. D. Kirin's drug store.

NOT CROSS-EYED.

DOES OF HIS EYES WAS HIGHER THAN THE OTHER.

Christmas will always be a day of thanksgiving in the life of Martha Kline. She is a daughter of Andrew Kline, of Girardville, a waitress at the Ferguson House and has had such trouble with her eyes. She was not cross-eyed, but her eyes neither turned in or out too much, but one eye was higher than the other which caused her oftentimes to see double one object above the other and seriously interfered with her vision in other ways as well as disfiguring her greatly.

Yesterday she had Dr. J. Harvey Moore, the specialist now at the Ferguson House, operate on her eyes, and he, by his "painless method," so adjusted them that they were both alike. Miss Kline is attending to her usual duties, is not confined indoors, neither does she have her eyes tied up. She says the operation did not hurt a bit and only took a few moments, and that her sight is already greatly improved. She is very grateful to Dr. Moore and she should be. This great man has made a reputation in Shenandoah by the wonderful cures he has made and is making that prove him to be one of the most able specialists in the country and the people of this region are indeed fortunate in having access to him, and those who are desirous of consulting him should not put it off until the last few days of his stay here or they may be disappointed as were scores of others a year ago in Pottsville when the doctor was there, he being unable to attend to all who called during his last week.

SHOT IN A SCUFFLE.

A Drunken Hungarian Handles A Revolver Very Recklessly.

Anthony Dwilinsky, was to-day taken to the Pottsville jail in default of $1,000 bail to await the result of the shooting of a countryman named Martin Balzer. While drunk yesterday afternoon, on North Pear alley, Dwilinsky handled a revolver recklessly. Balzer and others attempted to get possession of the weapon and Balzer was shot in the right leg. The ball entered near the groin and, taking a downward course, lodged in the bone above the knee. The wound is not necessarily dangerous.

Sprained His Foot.

Richard H. Jones, of Wm. Penn, while on his way to Ferguson's theatre last evening to take part in the concert, fell on a Main street pavement and sprained his left foot. Dr. Matter was called from the audience and dressed the injury behind the scenes, but Mr. Jones was unable to appear in the concert.

A FEW OF THE CURES EFFECTED.

Blind Fifteen Years.

Mr. Samuel Trees, of 25 H. Fair street, Johnstown, who is 23 years old, and had been blind in both eyes writes two months after he had been operated on for cataract: "I can now see the smallest print well enough to read, and at a few distances can see well as I ever could. I can never thank Dr. Moore enough for restoring my sight."

He Had Catarrh.

"For three years I had suffered from nasal catarrh which produced pain in the eyes, ears, head and face. I took cold very easy, and had great difficulty in breathing with the slightest cold. My throat was sore and swollen and interfered with my swallowing so that often I could eat nothing solid. I was treated by Dr. J. Harvey Moore, of Scranton, and have had some of my former troubles for several months. I am now entirely free from sores and pain of a very kind, and feel that I am entirely cured."

Nervous System Totally Wrecked.

Mrs. Ira Aldrich, of Towanda Pa., says: "I have suffered for ten years from diseases that baffled the skill of all the physicians in this and all the surrounding cities. Some said I had nervous debility, some dyspepsia, others rheumatism, but all failed to afford any relief. I suffered from violent headaches, dizziness, and such an extent that I could not stand, pain under the shoulder blades, palpitation of the heart, and great distention of the stomach. I placed myself under Dr. Moore's treatment and began to improve at once, and in a few months became entirely well."

Deaf Ten Years.

Mr. Abraham Ulrich, of Co. 1st Square, Middletown, Pa., says: "I have been so deaf for ten years that I could not understand anything said unless the person speaking stood in my ears. In fact I have been deaf to the world all these years. I couldn't hear a sermon or public address of any kind. Learning of Dr. Moore, I consulted him. He performed an operation on each ear, and to my utter astonishment I found when I went home I conversed with my wife across the room, she speaking in an ordinary tone of voice. Since then I have attended church and was able to hear the sermon distinctly."

The above are but a few of the hundreds of testimonials received by the Doctor from all parts of the state.
