URALED DI LIED AUF A Popular Educator Murders His Bride of a Month.

A PITIABLE SCENE OF HORROR.

The Murderer, After His Insans Act, Throws Himself Upon the Body of His Victim and Units Upon Her to Come Back to Him.

MEDIA, Pa., Jan 1.- Professor Swithin Altold, Fig. dan L.-Professor Swithin C. Shortlidge, principal of the Media Academy for Boys, shot and instantly killed his wife resterday while promenating on one of the principal streets of this city. The couple had been married but a month, and the only cause that can be assigned for the deed is temporary insanity from the effects of a recent attack of the grin completed with business reof the grip, combined with business reverses. There were no witnesses to the murder who were near enough to hear any conversation that may have preceded it, and Professor Shortlidge has been totally irrations: ever free it occurred.

All that can be learned, until he recovers his reason, is that the couple went Jeffer on street, a few minutes walk from their home, the frenziel man suddenly drew a pistol and fired six shots in rapid succession into the woman's head. Then he threw himself upon her prostrate form. and when those who saw the tragedy reached the scene she was beyond all uman aid, and he was frantically call-ng to he to come back to him. The victim was Marie Dixon Jones be ore she married the man who killed her. She was about 16 years old, and very handsome. Professor Shortlidge had been parried before, and has three children by his first wife, who died four years ago Within a week after his second marriage he became seriously ill with the grip. His young wife nursed him faithfully, and on Saturday he was well enough to go out for a short walk. Yesterday he started out again. Something in his manner caused his wife to volunteer to go with him, and arm in arm they left the house. him, and arm in arm they left the house.

They took up a course toward East Media which led them through a bit of wood land on Jefferson street. When in the midst of this they were seen by several people to stop suddenly, and what appeared to be a brief struggle took place.
Then there was a sharp report followed. Then there was a sharp report, followed by another and another.

see and hear this was Chist of Police Mc Kniff, who quickly ran to the spot. Wher he reached it Airs. Shortlidgs was lying or er face with the blood flowing inforcents rom six ghastly wounds in her head. Across her prostrate form lay her husand, shricking and crying to her to come back and speak to him. back and speak to him

As McKniff reached his side Shortlidge sprang to his feet and ordered him to go away. McKniff attempted to seize the frantic man, but the latter cluded him and again threw himself upon the body of the woman he had killed. Grasping the frightfully wounded head of his vic-tim in his hands he rained kiss after kiss upon the lips of the dying woman, punctuating them with terms of endearment and entreaties that she should speak to him. McKniff first secured the pistol and then gently dr. w the murderer away from his victim, just as the last breath of her young life fluttered from her lips.

Tender hands picked up the mutilated body and carried it away, while McKniff took the murderer to jail. After taking few steps Professor Shortlinge meled and would have fullen from shoer weakness had not the chief of police caught him. I was found necessary to concey him to pa in a carriage, where he continues to m about his victim, and to cotrect her to come to him.

Professor Shortlidge came to Media in 1874, and founded the school of which he is the head. He comes from an old Quaker family and is a graduate of Harrari, where he was the recipient of honors, and a noted athiete. Upon leaving Harrard he embraced journalism, but gave it up to open a hourning school for boys in Kennett Square. From there he came to Media. It is school here has gained an enviable reputation as a preparatory insti-tute, and many a collegiate has passed SHILOH'S CATARRH the been a success, but its founder has been a success, but its founder has been unfortunate in other ways, and because of his financial embarrassments the Have you Cafar at This remedy is guaranteed to come you. He has always enjoyed the respect and confidence of the of Media in the highest degree.

Mrs. Shortlidge came here from Brook-lyn about four years ago with her mother, Mrs. Marie Dixon Jones, who attained a great deal of notoriety there by reason of a suit for libel which she brought against the Brooklyn Engle, and which grew out of charges made against her by that journal in connection with a hospital for merly conducted by her in Brooklyn. The deceased was also the the niece of the Rev Henry Dixon Jones, who was formerly paster of Christ church in this city.
