Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to beed his intellect and every energy to the success of his business; the clerk, book-keeper, professional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which, it not resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and brains. They are running at too high pressure. The strain is too great. Something muse and does give way. This is equally true of assure. Anarchist Franch Talks of the Barcelona Theater Horror.

HIS PLANS CAREFULLY LAID.

He Purposely Aimed the First Bomb at a Group of Bichly Dyessed Ladles, and Regrets That He Failed to Kill Ca Nice Lot of Hourgenis," Manuin, Jan. 1.—The agreet of the an MADRID, I.a. L.—The arrest of the aurelist Salvador Franch for causing the destruction of the Lices theater at Barcelona on the night of Nov. 7, when twenty-five persons were killed by the explosion of a bomb, ins been followed by a full confession by the prisoner of his guilt. In the bospiral of the prison at Saragossa, where Franch is being treated for his self-inflicted injury, he has described in detail the manner in which the crime was com-

He boastfully told the police and hopital authorities how he carried two loaded dynamite bombs to the theater in the folds of the broad Spanish such which he were around his waist. In addition to the bombs he surried a revolver, a long kuffe and a bottle of poison, the latter to be used in case there was danger of his capture.

Franch described how he took his place Franch described how he took his place in the second gailery, and glancing around, saw a group of women in evening dress, whose many jowels seemed to de-note that they belonged to the wealthlest and most aristocratic part of the com-munity. He waited until the opera was nearly flaished, and then moved into a passage where nobody was likely to ob-serve him. What followed Franch thus describes:

"Taking a bomb in each hand I hurled one of them with all my force into the center of the closely packed stalls where that group of select people were sitting, and a fine explosion followed the landing of the homb. I threw the other one almost immediately afterwards, but I don't believe it exploded, or I should have killed a nice lot of bourgeois, as I aimed it with particular care at a part of the theater where that hated class was thick. Of course there was a terrible row and a panto after the explosion of the bomb, and be-fore it had in any way passed I was ena-bled to get away, as I was already clear of the seats, and so had no difficulty in making for the staircase and from there run-ing for the staircase and from there run-ning down into the street."

After the outrage Franch fled from Bar-celona and hid himself in a lonety house near a cemetery. For twenty days he re-mained there, supplied with food by his comrades, who kept him well posted upon sverthing which was going on.

Fillbustering Taction

WARHINGTON, Jan. 4.—The tariff debate of 1894 did not begin in the house yester of 1894 did not begin in the bouse yester-day, as was anticipated. The Republicans showed fight at the very outset, and scored the first victory. Before the time arrived for Mr. Wilson to take the floor Mr. McCreary tried to arrange an antica-ble agreement by which two days, briday and Saturday, should be given to the con-sideration of the Hawalian resolution. Mr. Hirt, the Republican leader of the foreign affairs committee, expressed a foreign affairs committee, expressed a willingness to sequiesce in the arrange ment, but Mr. Boutelle, of Maine wanted to precipitate the question immediately by calling up his resolution.

by calling up his resolution.

Both sides were ugly, but after a lively row the speaker held that Mr. Bourelle's resolution was privileged. The Donor cratic members of the ways and means sommittee were not willing to go shead with the Hawnian discussion until the tariff dehote had gotten well under way however, and the question of considera-tion was ruled against the Bontelle reso lution. The Republicans then executed final provingent by refusing to vote. The Democrats found themselves in the ho millating position of not being able to muster a quorum, and after revoking all leaves of absence Mr. Wilson reluctantly moved an adjournment.

Nothing was known of the robbery until the bank officials came down in the marning to open the concern for business. On entering the bank they were started to find the vault dors opens, papers strewn about the floor and everything in general confusion. The bank is one of the most solid of the kind in this section, and is the depository

MITCHELL HAS SIGNED.

He Declares His Willingness to Fight Corbett.

CLUB MANAGERS STILL CONFIDENT.

Despite the Determined Attitude of the Governor They Assert That the Contest Will Take Piace in Public at the Advertised Time.

JACKSSERVILLE, Fig., Jan. 4.— Charles Mitchell signed the amended articles of agreement late yesterday afternoon under pressure from the officials of the Daval Athletic club, and thus relieves himself of the charge of being a "eark quitter." The amended articles now provide that the fight shall take pince in Daval or St. John's county the latter being the county in which Mitchell's training quarters are

Mitchell also insisted on a change in the clause regarding the furnishing of the gloves for the fight. The original articles provided for five owner gives, to be furnished by Corbett. The Englishman insisted that the clumes should be changed so as to read that the gives should be furnished by "Corbett or Mitchell." Bowden yieldes it is point and the articles were also as a recognition. nanged accordingly. Mitchell said that his objection to sign Anther said that his objection to such ing the amended articles was not because he wanted to "crawfish," but was due to the fact that he was a foregoer, and did not want to violate the law of the state. Mitchell further chalmed to be anxious to meet Corbett at any time and place, and said that he came here for that express the state of the state of the state.

when Corbett was shown the amended articles signed by Mitchell he objected to the change in the clause relating to the gloves. Corbett claims that as champion he has the undoubted right to furnish the gloves, and said he would not sign the amouded articles unless it was stipulated that in case of dispute each principal might furnish his own gloves, said gloves to weigh not less than five onness.

To pacify Corbett this additional amend ment was made, and No helt when in-formed of the change to wire, answered that It was satisfactory. Currett seems to fear some trios, by which Mitchell may evade meeting from at the last moment. The ordinance passed by the city co-

If the county authorities inter-fere and stop the contest the city will be sued for heavy damages for not preventing any interference with what it license

Regarding the change in the articles leaving the place for the contest to be se-lected the Associated Press correspondent asked Manager Bowden I the desire of the club to have the privilege of naming any place meant that the club might find it necessary to name a secret place, "No, indeed," he replied, "they could not afford anything of the kind. It would cost us just about 8-0,000. That is just a little too much of a luxury. We are satisfied that the contests are inwful, and pro pose to have things publicly."

The glub members still talk confidently of their ability to pull off the fight, but how they propose to do it in the face of Governor Mitchell's opposition is one of the things they are keeping from the It is learned, however, from a gentle It is learned, however, from a gentle-man who is very close to the managers of the athletic club that it is promosed to "pull off" the contest host arthe scallivan Kilrain mill was at Richburg, Mass. In 1889. The club managers with select some suitable place in the country contention, to a rallway line for the second by the club, fickets will be sold at a price that will cover expenses, and the large growths

In this way the club people hope to outwit Governor Mitchell and pull off the fight without interference. The plan is feasible, as, if the site selected is kept secret, it will be impossible for Governor

Altogether it seems as though the cham-pions of England and America would at least come together, and the question of supremacy be estiled.
