A CONUNDRUM.

The Philadelphia North American wants to know what are the essentials or the essential principles of Democracy? Turning to the doctors of that school we become bewildered in the maze of their contradictions. The World says that the income tax is in perfect accord with the essential principles of Democracy. The Herald denounces the tax as essentially monarchic. The Record, of our city, alludes to the income tax feature of the Wilson bill as a fruitful growth and not to be tolerated. Thus the doctors, all professors of modern Democracy, all intelligent, and equal as authority.

Thirty years ago the World was the leading Democratic paper in the country. It then denounced the income tax as essentially despotic and odious in a Republican country. The question we must ask is, in what is the change, in Democratic principles or in monarchy? Has monarchy come to Democracy, or has Democracy gone over to monarchy? It may be that the World thirty years ago was influenced by its opposition to the prosecution of the war for the Union, and because the income tax was imposed to furnish the sinews of that war. Many persons will take the last named view. But even then we shall not be rid of our perplexity, because the World declares that the tax is the most equitable and most easily collected of any, while it is aware that its candidate for President fought the collection of the tax on his income for more years than we care to remember, and finally beat the government "horse, foot and dragons." We cannot be mistaken when we say that the World stood by Mr. Tilden and encouraged him to resist collection of the tax from first to last, all the time denouncing the tax as unjust, and odious, and intolerable. So we end as we began, with the query—What are Democratic principles? It depends on circumstances. They may be one thing to-day, but they will be to-morrow? They are adjustable.

The Chicago brewers will pay their English owners this year 16 per cent even on the common stock. The Wilson committee, it will be remembered, refused to increase the tax on beer. But thousands of other businesses, which are owned wholly in this country, and are far from paying 16 per cent per annum, even on their preferred stock, got a dose from Wilson et al. which makes them stagger.

In China, according to a cable made up in the Treasury Department at Washington, the per capita valuation of money is $1.80, all in silver. Now one can guess why the almond-eyed are so eager to come to this country and settle in the West, where the cry is for unlimited silver.

The disposition of Democrats in Congress not to face the tariff reform they so loudly demanded is right encouraging to President Cleveland to speak strongly ament them. And when he is stirred up well he is the man who can do that.

Perito is still rallying his ships and preparing for a fight in which he will wipe the insurgents off the face of the sea. The Brazilian war has reached a stage at which it ought to interest farze writers in search of subjects.

By a vote of 124 to 88, the House refused to consider Boutelle's resolution on the Hawaii affair. That is something of a dose, but grinning at it will not make it any the easier to swallow.

SKILLFUL AND HONORABLE.

Dr. Moore Meeting With Great Success in Shenandoah.

Dr. Moore, the specialist, who has practiced so successfully at the Ferguson House for several weeks will bring his stay to a close Wednesday night, January 10. That his success has been phenomenal is proven by the crowds who throng his office from the early morning until late at night; and, still further, by the numerous cures he has effected, while there. That he has healed the sick of diverse diseases is attested by many of our most prominent citizens. He has distinguished himself by numerous brilliant operations in eye surgery, in which line, because of his importance, he is best known, although his success in his medical specialties has been no less pronounced.

That Dr. Moore is honorable and conscientious in his practice is proven by the fact that he will not accept cases unless he is positive he can benefit them. Many have been turned away from his office with sad hearts and tearful eyes because the doctor told them he could not cure them, yet in their hearts they thanked him for his honesty. Dr. Moore has certainly proved himself a benefactor to his community, and all units in wishing him godspeed, and hope he may live long to carry on his beneficent work for afflicted humanity.

PENCIL POINTS.

The trustees of the L. O. O. F. cemetery association organized for the ensuing year by the election of the following officers: Pres. Hart, John W. Morgan; Secretary, Joseph Hink; Treasurer, Charles Toole.

The report of the public schools of town for last month will appear on Monday.

The Citizens' Standing Committee held an enthusiastic meeting at McElhinney's cafe last evening and adopted rules for the guidance of the primaries. A call for the primaries will probably be issued next week.

The Ladies' Aid Society connected with the Sons of Veterans will have their officer installed on Saturday evening, next.

The officers of Watkins Waters Post No. 143, G. A. R. were installed into office last evening by Senior Post Commander Joseph Dutton. The appointed officers were: Adjutant, Joseph Dutton; Sergeant Major, W. C. Richards; Quartermaster, Sergeant, John Watson; Ordinance Sergeant, Samuel Cannon.

Joseph Lintus, of Union township, will sell his farm and personal property on Tuesday, January 30th.

A Young Fire-Eater.
 Christian Shreve, residing at 33 South West street, was badly burned about the face last evening. He and several other boys were trying the fire eating act, as performed by Lowell, of Bell's Museum. The latter does the act with alcohol, while young Shreve and his companions tried it with coal oil, with the result above noted. Shreve filled his mouth with oil for the purpose of blowing it at a burning lamp, but instead of blowing the oil outward, he drew it inward. It became ignited and burned his face badly. It is not yet known whether he is injured internally.

"Little Nugget."

Fareo comedy will hold the boards at Ferguson's theatre Monday night, Jan. 5, when Herbert Cawthorn, the humorous exponent of celtic, will appear in the merry face comedy, "Little Nugget." Mr. Cawthorn, from repeated former engagements in the city, has become quite popular with local theatre-goers. The comedy is in three acts, each exchange expresses it. The first a smile, the second a laugh, the third a roar. Since last done here many changes have been made.

Week of Prayer.

Services will be held in the Presbyterian church every evening next week, except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock. This is the time set apart each year by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church as a week of prayer.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

A Geneva, N. Y., Man's Striking Words.
 (From Geneva, N. Y. Courier.)

It is a pleasure for us to present to our readers the recommendations of so estimable a citizen as Elias Dolson, of this place, knowing when he says that he was cured of disease by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, it is so. Inasmuch as Mr. Dolson never expected to be cured of rheumatism from which he suffered for a long time, we relate his case. Rheumatism, as every one knows, is caused by an excess of acid in the blood, when it becomes settled in the joints the patient endures most excruciating pain; such was Mr. Dolson's condition when he began the use of Favorite Remedy, and like many others who have followed the same treatment he was cured. How many poor sufferers there are to-day who would give their fortunes to be relieved from their torments of this awful complaint, not knowing that this valuable preparation can be obtained of every dealer in medicine, Favorite Remedy for a long time was supplied physicians only but the demand became so great that Dr. Kennedy was forced to place it with druggists for general sale. Mrs. Dolson, as well as her husband, has a good word for Favorite Remedy; says she, "I have been troubled for years with indigestion and palpitation of the heart, and I used Favorite Remedy and was entirely cured."

One of our local physicians, in speaking of this medicine, recently, said: "Dr. David Kennedy has produced in Favorite Remedy the only antidote for uric acid, and the reason it cures such a variety of complaints is from the fact that it dissolves this acid, expelling it from the system, thereby curing the disease."

Favorite Remedy is a never failing specific in diseases of the skin, liver, kidneys and blood. It restores the disordered liver to a healthy condition, corrects the worst cases of habitual constipation, it is a certain cure for the disease and weakness peculiar to women. It cures scrofula, salt rheum and erysipelas. For nervousness, loss of sleep or this score-out feeling it has no equal. In case of rheumatism, dyspepsia, gravel, bright's disease, diabetes and bladder troubles, it has cured where all else failed. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is sold at 44 bottles, or six bottles for 30, which brings a treatment at a moderate price.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Opponents of the Wilson Tariff Bill Gain Nothing.

SLIGHT SETBACK FOR INCOME TAX.

Its Opponents Gain an Additional Allowance of Two Days for Debate Should This Proposition be Presented—Democrats Reminded of Their Duty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The Democratic caucus met in the hall of the house of representatives at 8 o'clock last night to consider the Wilson tariff bill. There was a good attendance. Judge Hollman was chairman and Mr. Alderson was secretary of the caucus. Although the roll call showed only 134 members present many came in during the call, and it was estimated that there were 147 Democrats in attendance when the proceedings began. The attendance indicated that in the neighborhood of forty who are in the city remained away. There were no conspicuous absentees among the "kickers."

As soon as the roll had been called it was decided to limit the speeches to five minutes each. General Wheeler, who was one of the prime movers in the caucus project, then took the floor and made a vigorous speech against the proposition to place coal and iron ore on the free list.

Speaker Crisp followed. He offered a resolution declaring that it was the duty of every Democrat to vote for the consideration of the tariff bill, and also that it was the duty of all the Democrats to attend the sessions of the house and maintain a quorum until the tariff bill is disposed of. In a ringing speech the speaker took session to rather sharply reprimand Democrats who had been responsible for the inaction of the house during the past three days.

The speaker said that the proper way to act for those who were dissatisfied should be to take up the bill and have it considered. They would be given an opportunity to offer their amendments, and these amendments could be voted upon. The party had been given a commission from the people, and it was its duty to carry it out. The spectacle of the past three days had been a disgrace to the large Democratic majority in the house, and he sincerely hoped that it was not to be repeated. The words of the speaker were loudly cheered.

The caucus lasted for two hours only. Only two amendments looking to a change of the bill were formally proposed, both relating to the sugar tax, but neither of them was voted on. The only result of the caucus was the strengthening of the hands of those favoring the bill by the passage of the resolution offered by Speaker Crisp, declaring it to be the duty of Democrats to consider the bill.

This resolution was made the peg on which those opposed to certain features of the bill hung their objections. Most of their opposition was directed against the income tax, and its opponents gained a slight victory in an additional allowance of two days for general debate should this proposition be presented to the committee. The caucus was much more harmonious than was expected.

After the adjournment Chairman Wilson said the caucus was entirely satisfactory to him. Representative Whiting, of Michigan, one of the members of the ways and means committee, said it had been demonstrated that the tariff bill—including the income tax—would pass the house without trouble.

STILL NO TARIFF DEBATE.

Populists Refused to Aid Democrats in Counting a Quorum.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The strong arm of the committee on rules was invoked yesterday to break down the obstruction in the path of tariff debate. An iron clad order was brought in, setting out the program for the tariff debate, and fixing Jan. 23 as the day for taking the final vote. This resulted only in sidetracking Mr. Boutelle and his Hawaiian resolution, as when the vote came to be taken on the adoption of the order the Democrats lacked nine votes of a quorum. At least twenty Democrats at the Capital either absented themselves from the hall or refused to answer to their names when called. For four hours the Democratic leaders tried with roll call after roll call to bring their men into line, but instead of gaining they lost votes on each successive roll call. The Populists, with the exception of Mr. Bell, of Colorado, also declined to aid the Democrats to get the tariff bill before the house, giving as the reason for their action the short limit it was proposed to set on their debate. Their votes would have made up a quorum. Yesterday's proceedings are, therefore, of additional importance as marking the first time in the history of either branch of congress since the organization of the third party that its members have held the balance of power. The house finally adjourned without action. The senate was not in session.

A Down for Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 6.—A discovery just made in Ford and adjoining counties will be of incalculable benefit to the farmers of this section. It has been fully demonstrated that a large body of artesian water flows under the whole section, requiring only an opening to permit it to gush out on the surface in great abundance. It is the intention of the farmers of the section to sink wells not to exceed one mile apart, then dig ditches and laterals so the entire country can be watered.

Virginia's Supreme Court Judges.

RICHMOND, Jan. 6.—The following were nominated by the Democratic legislative caucus for judges of the supreme court of appeals of Virginia: John A. Buchanan of Washington county, R. H. Wardwell of Hanover county, George M. Harrison of Augusta county, James Keith of Fauquier county and J. W. Reilly of Halifax county. The nominations are equivalent to election.

The Spreckles Suit Compromised.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 6.—The suit which was commenced Nov. 1 by C. A. Spreckles, charging his father, Adolph Spreckles, and his two brothers with attempting to defraud him out of his interests in the Hawaii Commercial company, has been dismissed. A compromise has been effected whereby C. A. Spreckles still retains his interests in the company.

Fugitive Not a Candidate.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 6.—A. H. Farquhar, of York, who has been mentioned for the Democratic nomination for congress at large, has authorized the statement that he is not a candidate for that or any other office.

Charges Not Sufficient.

The Bar Association of Schuylkill county met at Pottsville this afternoon when a resolution was presented to debar County Solicitor Ulrich, on the ground of abstracting records and taking money illegally from clients. The charges were considered not sufficiently specific by the association, and the resolution was tabled by a vote of 24 to 17.

PERSONAL.

S. Scholl, of Girardville, was in town today.
 George W. Ketter, of Bloomsburg, was in town today.
 William Jones, of Mt. Carmel, called on friends here today.
 William Sponner, of Pottsville, came up yesterday to see friends.
 Patrick Fallon, watchman at the almshouse, was in town today.
 Clarence Gilbert, formerly electrician on the electric road here, is in town.
 John J. Love, formerly of town, now of Philadelphia, spent the past few days with his parents.
 Andrew Fulton, the retired coal operator of Shamokin, was the guest of John Grant last evening.
 A young daughter arrived at the residence of F. C. Reese last evening. Mother and child are doing well.
 Misses Hannah Leib, Emma DeFehn and Lottie and Sue Buck, of Pottsville, were the guests of the Misses Seltzer, of South West street, yesterday.

Professor Shortidge's Sad Condition.

MEDIA, Pa., Jan. 6.—The condition of Professor Shortidge C. Shortidge, the well known educator and head of Media academy for twenty years, who shot his wife dead on Sunday last, does not improve. He continues to moan and groan in his cell and call for his wife. He raves at times like a maniac, and pounds with his feet against the wall of his cell. Then he will jump forward and grasp the iron bars of the cell as if trying to break them loose.

Sold Cats for Dissection.

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 6.—The society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, through its agents here, have sworn out a large number of warrants against West Chester people, charging them with having caught and sold cats for dissection purposes. Dr. Ebringer, of the State Normal school, is said to have been the purchaser in most cases, and the greater part of the alleged culprits are boys, who have been catching pet. Tabbies for revenue.

A Lunatic at Large.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 5.—Samuel Alexander, the insane man who shot and killed James Nesbitt at Chilopee in July, 1891, has written a crazy letter to Mayor W. M. E. Mollen, of Chilopee, from Montreal, Canada. This reveals to the public for the first time the fact that Alexander has escaped from the Worcester insane asylum, where he was committed by order of the superior court, issued soon after the crime.

The Cold Wave in France.

PARIS, Jan. 6.—The mercury in many places in France yesterday fell to 30 degrees below. M. Dujeardine, a member of the town council of Roubaix, was smitten with the cold as he was leaving a meeting at the town hall last night and died five minutes later of congestion of the brain. A mail carrier at Vesoul was found frozen to death in the streets of that town.

A Radical Missionary Resigns.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 6.—Information has been received here that Rev. Evarde McGilvray, a Presbyterian missionary to Siam, has resigned. The reason for this action is that Mr. McGilvray holds the views of Rev. Dr. Charles Briggs, whose trial for heresy and expulsion from the church by the general assembly are still fresh in the minds of all.

Edith Bell Was Not Poisoned.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 6.—A chemical analysis of the stomach of Edith Bell, whose death was charged to her father, Rev. Jonathan Bell, of Long Island City, shows no trace of poison. The Queens county grand jury failed to indict either the minister or his wife.

Congressman Hendrix May Resign.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—Representative Joseph C. Hendrix, of Brooklyn, N. Y., authorizes the statement that he will in all probability resign before the expiration of his present term in congress.

Paper Mill Resumes.

ELKTON, Jan. 6.—The Singery Paper and Paper mill, near Elkton, which has been closed down for several weeks, resumed operations at noon today. This means work for about one hundred hands.

Fatally Shot in a Street Fight.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 6.—During a general fight at South and Eight streets last night John Burke, aged 29, was shot in the eye and wounded fatally by Samuel Johnston, who is under arrest.

Drowned Herself and Babe.

DAYTON, O., Jan. 6.—Mrs. Joseph Wartz, of Minnisburg, jumped into the canal here with her infant, both drowning. The woman was deranged by grip.
