The Corwin Arrives with Secret Dispatches from Willis.

THERE MAY HAVE BEEN FIGHTING

Though Nothing is Given Out, It is Believed There Has Been a Clash Between the Powers—The Inevitable Admission of a Sailor of the Corwin.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6.—The state department last night received in cipher form dispatches from San Francisco, forwarded from Minister Willis to the authorities in this city by the revenue cutter Corwin.

A theory which gains most support is based on the belief that the last instructions sent to Minister Willis contemplated further action by the administration.

The advice sent from time to time by Minister Thurston to President Dole no doubt strengthened the provisional government in its stand.

Secretary Gresham said this forenoon that he would receive Minister Willis' report by mail, and that it would probably reach here next Wednesday evening.

It will be seen that if the provisional government has refused to yield without force, Willis' latest instructions prevent his going further.

The above is one of the many testimonials we have received for our marvelous medicine. Try a bottle and be cured at once.

SICILY'S BLOODY RIOTS

The Troops Attacked by the Lawless Element.

MANY OF THE RIOTERS SHOT DOWN.

Though the Proclamation of a State of Siege Pleases the Law Abiding People, It Seems to Have No Effect on the Disorderly Mob.

PALERMO, Jan. 6.—The presence of large bodies of troops in Sicily and the establishment of martial law has not had the effect of awing the disorderly element.

A land of men, estimated to have numbered 9,000, gathered in one of the lawless quarters of the town and started to pursue the street.

When the troops appeared they were attacked by the rioters, many of whom were armed with rifles or revolvers, and a desperate fight took place.

A dispatch from Calinsetta says that there was a demonstration there last evening under the auspices of the Fasci del Lavoro, which wound up in a conflict between the troops and peasants.

Later dispatches announce that riots have occurred at Upper and Lower Ragusa, Monte Chiaro, Neoforte, Gibellina, Salemi and Naro.

Private dispatches from all parts of Sicily say that the proclamation of a state of siege has produced a feeling of greater confidence among the law-abiding people.

The divorce proceedings, which in a state of siege is precluded by a report of the ministers to the king, which says that the deplorable neglect and growing evils of recent years have led to a serious situation, requiring exceptional treatment.
