BIG BUILDINGS ABLAZE.

Disastrous Conflagration on the World's Fair Grounds.

VALUABLE EXHIBITS DESTROYED.

The Loss Estimated at a Million Dollars. The Casino, Peristyle, Manufactures and Liberal Arts Buildings Destroyed—One Fireman Killed and Others Injured.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The World's fair Pompeii came last night. Probably no more magnificent, yet terrifying, spectacle has ever been witnessed since the side of the Atlantic...

While crowds of blazing embers were being carried from the end of the heart of honor further from the Administration building high over the mammoth roof of the Liberal Arts building...

A dramatic incident marked the destruction of the Peristyle. One of the leaders upon which was a group of firemen, fell with the columns, and one of the heroic fire fighters went down to death while a number of others suffered injuries more or less severe.

The fire started in the Casino, just east of the Agricultural building and south of the Peristyle. The Casino was quickly destroyed, and the flames surged north on top of the Peristyle, and trumping made a second line of fire along the base of the columns...

While the fire was burning there was one of the most singular and fascinating sights in the night. Along the top of the Peristyle were scores of statues. The spectacle for those people fortunate enough to be on the moving sidewalk just east of the Peristyle was of a succession of gigantic human beings plunging one after another headlong into the lake below.

The origin of the fire is said to be revenge on the part of a couple of tramps. The solitary tramp in the Music hall says that just before the flames broke out he kicked two vagabonds out of the Music hall and told them to find quarters elsewhere...

Here they could see great blazing fragments dropping upon the exhibits below. Through the glass roof and buildings could be seen the fire flames flaring like bonfires in an avalanche, crashing and burning the exquisite French section and threatening to destroy the Russian and British sections.

The fire broke and engines on the lake side but by this time embodied the flames in the ashes of the Peristyle and in the lower colonnade of the southeast side of the Liberal Arts building and hopes were raised that the fire had been subdued, but shortly after 11:15 the flames got beyond control away up on the top promenade of the Liberal Arts building, and the main side of the building was soon a mass of flames.

The fair officials put the maximum loss at $1,000,000. On the other hand, the estimates made by the people connected with the local directory made the highest figures only $250,000 in the Liberal Arts building. At 10:45 a great iron arch gave way directly above the French wares, and falling heavily buried them beneath the burning pile and they were abandoned...

REPEAL UNNECESSARY.

New Jersey's Race Track Laws Declared Unconstitutional.

TRENTON, Jan. 9.—The supreme court rendered a decision declaring unconstitutional the race track legislation of last winter. The case was argued at the June term of the supreme court before Justices Deane, Lippincott and Abbott on a writ of certiorari, bringing up for review certain resolutions of the city council of the city of Elizabeth, purporting to grant a license to the New Jersey Jockey club to maintain a race course in said city...

An Unprovoked Murder. BREWSTER, Pa., Jan. 9.—Michael Flek, of Mayfield, was held in $2,000 bail by Judge Gausler for the murder of John Page on Christmas night in this city. Page had called upon Michael Davis, a friend, and had been there but a short time when he had come in. It is alleged that without any provocation the latter struck Page over the head with a club. Flek then left the house, but afterward as Page was on his way home Flek assaulted him again, and after beating him until he was insensible he carried the body to a coal shaft. The wounds and the exposure resulted in death.

Wedded While Blindfolded. CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Mortimer Sakolski, a Russian, tells a peculiar tale in a divorce bill filed here. He states that at the age of 15 his mother sent him to the town of Slewalk, in his native land, blindfolded and before he was aware he was married to a girl upon whose face he had never looked. His mother, he says, got about $50 for bringing about the marriage, and he got a bride whose charms were not sufficient to touch his youthful heart. His wife followed him to America, but they have never lived together.

Held Up by Masked Robbers. BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Jan. 9.—Late at night four masked men held up Stephen Wooster, a well known Polish township farmer, robbing him of $100. A short time later James Hagar, secretary of the Stone Masses' union, of Eastvale, was held up. He had $100, a watch and a pair of shoes which he had purchased. When the robbers learned that he was a workman they gave him back all his property but sixty-five cents in cash.

Brice, of Essex, bill clerk; Lylander K. Watson, of Monmouth, sergeant-at-arms. The Republican senators selected Maurice A. Rogers, of Camden, for president of the senate.
