BRITISH DIPLOMACY.

It Shows Itself in the Hawaiian Controversy. TO ESTABLISH A PROTECTORATE.

An Alleged Plan to Make British Interest Paramount in Lillooiki's Kingdom. Secretary Gresham Denies Knowledge of Trouble in Honolulu.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The New York Press publishes the following: "The Hawaiian mystery may be solved today. A key to the riddle comes to the Press in a private letter from Honolulu, dated Dec. 14, ten days before the Corwin's sudden departure."

Dr. Crossman's letter unfolds the plans of the royalists and the British parties in Honolulu a few days before Minister Willis' expected demand, in the name of the United States, for the surrender of the provisional government.

"It is well known that Mr. Theophilus H. Davies has been intriguing for upward of twelve months to attain such a result, and it is evident that subsequent to the queen's first refusal to Minister Willis to submit to a restoration to her throne unless satisfied there by the force of American arms, her British friends have been advising her to accept Minister Willis' proposal, and thus gain her restoration by the power of the United States' diplomacy and arms."

SECRETARY GRESHAM'S DENIALS. He Has Not Heard of Any Trouble in Honolulu. WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—For the first time since the arrival of the Corwin at San Francisco and the recent alarming reports from Honolulu Secretary of State Gresham submitted to an interview last night on the Hawaiian situation.

The Latest from Honolulu. TACOMA, Wash., Jan. 9.—The Warri-moor has arrived at Victoria from Honolulu with news to Jan. 1. There was intense excitement until the Corwin arrived, when Willis made his demand and was refused.

GERMANS DEFEATED IN AFRICA. BERLIN, Jan. 9.—A dispatch from Accra, a town in the British colony of the gold coast, says that news has been received there from the Cameroons, which announces a fresh revolt upon the part of the black troops, who are said to have fought with and defeated the German troops and to have expelled the German and all other traders from that portion of the colony.

CHARGED WITH KILLING HIS FATHER. HONOLULU, Pa., Jan. 9.—Larry McDonald was arrested here charged with the murder of his father, Thomas McDonald, who was found dead in his house near Prompton on Sunday with his skull crushed and his body otherwise mutilated.

A Weak Digestion

strange as it may seem, is caused from a lack of that which is never exactly digested—fat. The greatest fact in connection with

Scott's Emulsion appears at this point—it is partly digested fat—and the most weakened digestion is quickly strengthened by it.

The only possible help in Consumption is the arrest of waste and renewal of new, healthy tissue. Scott's Emulsion has done wonders in Consumption just this way.

THE WAR IN BRAZIL.

It Drags Wearily Along Without Positive Results. A REAL ENGAGEMENT EXPECTED.

It is Believed That the Opposing Forces Will Meet at Niteroy Shortly—The People of Rio Janeiro Hoping for Decisive Action.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 9.—The revolution still drags on monotonously, with little or no advantage to either side. The general opinion is that there will not be much more in the situation until Admiral de Mello arrives here from the south, or until something unforeseen happens, which may turn the tide one way or the other.

The rebels have suffered a repulse at Santos, and it is announced that the government has taken steps to give them a warm reception should they again attempt a landing at that port. Admiral Da Gama's still holding out in the bay, and is said to be confident of success, though there have not been any operations upon either side for the past few days.

But such reports have been so frequently circulated that people here are becoming heartily tired of them and would be glad to see a pitched engagement between the two forces, which way or the other, for the rebellion, on one side, or the other, on the other, however, place faith in statements coming from either side, and the business community is becoming more and more thoroughly disgusted with the inaction of the government and the torpidity of the insurgents.

In connection with the two United States vessels, the Niteroy and America, a number of sensational rumors are in circulation here. According to these reports there has been considerable lack of discipline on board both vessels, which has resulted in a number of serious fights, the exchange of pistol shots and the imprisonment of a number of the crews of both vessels.

A spy of the rebels, who was recently captured in Rio de Janeiro, was found to be in possession of most important documents, which are said to have placed the government in the possession of information as to where the insurgents obtain their supplies. The spy, though he is said to have confessed everything and to have informed the government as to the identity of the persons who gave him the documents to take on board Admiral de Gama's ship, is reported to have been led outside of the city limits early the next morning and shot.

Aristocratic Train Robbers. CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—Chief of Detectives O'Keefe, of the Illinois Central railway, left for Wickliffe, Ky., to prosecute the gang of train robbers who held up an Illinois Central train near Mayfield bridge on Nov. 11. The robbers seem to be of decidedly aristocratic relationship. James Breckinridge, the alleged leader of the gang, is said to be a cousin of Congressman Breckinridge, Kentucky's silver-tongued orator. William O'Brien is reported to be a brother of Judge Henry O'Brien, of Charleston, Mo.

A Whole Family Murdered. MARIETTA, O., Jan. 9.—Henry Sauer and his wife, an old couple who lived three miles from this city, were found murdered in their home, and their son is missing. It is believed that he was killed and his body cremated in the barn, which was totally destroyed, with several cattle and horses. The bodies of Mr. Sauer and his wife were saturated with oil. Robbery was the motive.

Stock and Produce Markets. Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—The upward movement in speculative values which set in with buoyancy on Saturday received a check today. The market did not give way without a struggle, however, and several shares that were attacked were very strongly supported. Closing bids:
