The Democrats Claim That the Senate Is a Continuous Body, and Organize Before Admitting the New Members-Republicans Choose Officers of Their Own.

TRENTON, Jan. 10 .- New Jersey has two senates. The Demogradia took possession of the senate chamber yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and locked the door. Early in the afternoon a detachment of police were ordered to the State house in command of Captain Cleary, of the Trenton department. The captain went at ouce to the governor's private room and received instructions from him. The police then marched up the corridor, pushing the

In the senate chamber the Democratic holdover members were scatted, waiting for 3 o'clock, the time for meeting, to arfor a o'didek, the time for meeting, to ar-rive. The doors were locked. Sergeant-at-arms Nathau, of the last session, was guarding them within. No one but a few state officers and favored persons were ad-mitted, newspaper men excepted. At five minutes to 3 o'clock Samuel Thompson, the clerk of the senate, called the semicita to order and on resolution of the senate to order and on resolution of Senator Daly Robert Advian, of Middle-sex, was elected temporary chairman. The roll was called and Senators Winton, Miller, McMickel, Perkins, Heuchliff, Drakes, Martin, Daly and Advian answered arthrophysical Sciences Stress, Stress to their names. Senators Skirm, Stokes, Smith and Hoffmann, the Republican

The officers were in their sorts when the the Republican senators rapped at the door for admission. The crowd onoxide was in great commotion, and the senators had a very difficult time to get to the doors of the chamber. The screpant-at-arms domanded the names of those who rapped. The doors were opened a little, and the first senator to enter was Bradley, of Moremouth. He was chease, followed and the first soundor to enter was Bradley, of Monmonth. He was closely followed by Senator Skirm, of Mercer, and Sen-ator Packer, of Glouesster. When Sonator Retcham entered County Clerk Gummers attempted to enter with him. The ser-geant at-arms and his attendants made a desperate effort to keep him out, and Sen-ator Kercham struck two or three of them ator Keicham struck two or three of them over the head with a case. Finally all the senators were admitted and took their
