TERRIBLE EXPLOSION

Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to bend his intellect and every evergy to the success of his business; the cierk, book-keeper, professional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which is not resulting in immediate death, heaves them with shattered brains and bodies They are running at too high pressure. The strain is too great. Something must and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their sphere is more limited, they have their daily burdens, firsts.

thatied, they have their dully burdens, firsts, and tworries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions.

This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, hospitals, and insare soylums are full of these unfortunates, and are being crowded still further. There is but one solution of the matter. TURPIE SPRINGS A SURPRISE.

Indiana's Democratic Squator Insists That the Recognition Given the Provisional Government Caunst New be Withdrawn, Though He Condemus Minister Steve

Washington, Jan. 12.—The Hawalian contenversy consumed almost the whole time in the senate yesterday. Senator Davis (Mium.) concluded his speech in opposition to the policy of the present alministration, and was perticularly emphatic in his opposition to the act of the resultant in content of the policy. president in commissioning Mr. Blount to Hawaii and clothing him with plenary powers, even to the extent of control of the naval forces, without such an appoint-ment having been confirmed by the senate. The definess with which he parallel to the senate the speciacle of the opera bouffe queen clamoring for her lost throne was too much for the grave and renerable senate, and the galleries gave expressions. sion to its appreciation by appliance so hearty that it required the usual threat of the presiding officer to clear the gal-lories to still the entitusiasm. Senator Turple made an hour's speech that was full of surprises, it was a strong legal argument, based on international and diplomatic law, and took the position that the previsional government having been once recognized by the United States and the civilized world, it was a fact acand the civilized weigh, it was a fact ac-complianed, and recognition could not be withdrawn. While condemning the ac-tions of Minister Stevens, and demonic-ing him as a conspirator through whose influence and by whose assistance the gov-ernment to which had been accredited was overthrown, he slockared that it would be that a creat a conbe just as great a wrong and just as reprehensible in the eyes of the country and international law for this government now to overthrow the provisional government as it had been for Minister Stevens to aid in the destruction of the former government. Save for a recess of two hours, there was Save for a recess of two hours, there was an uninterrupted flow of tariff oratory in the house again yesterday from 11 o'clock in the forenoon until 10:30 last night. Interest in the debate is beginning to flag a little. The principal speaches were those of Masses Beschinnings (Ky.), Springer (Illa.), Dingley (Me.) and Harter (O.).

Can't Live on Seventy Cents a Day. Can't Live on Seventy Cents a Day.

BIFFFALO, Jan. 12.—The needy laborers who have been supplied with work by the citizens' relief commistee have a grievance against their paymasters because their wages have been cut. When they were paid off yesterday they received tun cents an hour for work performed last week, when twelve conts was the rate. Passenger Train Ditched.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 12.—Passenger train 42 on the Pittsburg, Shenango and Lake Eric railroad was ditched at Watson Run, seven miles east of this city, last night. Engineer H. J. Unger, Fireman George Porter and Brakeman H. P. Trace were all buried under the wreck, but all were recovered alive. The three men were frightfully scalded by escaping steam, and Unger and Trace will probably die.

Supposed to Be Chris Evans' Work, Firexo, Cal., Jan. 12.—The man who hold up the station agent at Fowler Wed-nesday night and robbed him and others steeday night and robbed him and others who were in the place, subsequently shooting Constable Oaks and two other men, is now believed to be Morrell, who set Evans, the outlaw, at liberty. The other man in the cart in which both made their escape is believed to have been Evans, who uncloubtedly planned the robbery.

Stubborn Wage Dispute Settled.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 12.—The Wheel-ag Tran and Steel company and the men-seployed in the company's steel plant here reached an agreement, whereby the men accept a cut of $3 per cent from last year's rates. The plant will resume on erations one week from Monday next, giv-ing employment to 400 mm, who have been idle since June 30 last.
