recalled by Mr. Brumm. He produced the ordinance book of the Borough Council and said : I don't know of any ordinance naming the streets of the borough either particuarly or generally. I don't know of any fluger boards ever put up in the borough by the Council designating, describing or naming any of the streats, except as men point out on the official map of the borough I hold in my hands the street known as Gilbert street because no street is designated as such designated. From what I know the portion of the track torn up covered ground which was not conceded territory. I now say it was disputed territory and they had no rights
