AMNESTY PLEDGE RECONSIDERED.

The Plodge Was Drawn from Her Reluc tanity, as She Believes That Those Whi Led in Her Overthrow Should be Beheaded and Their Property Confiscated.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 - The report of Minister Willis was unexpectedly scal to congress in a special message on Saturday. The report contrins the recently published reports of Minister Willis' demands for the queen's restoration and of the firm re fusal of President Dole to permit it. Min-ister Willis' interview with the queen in which she maintained this reven o, is given in a letter dated Nov. 15, as follows In the foremoon of Monday, the 18th Inst., by prearrangement, the queen, accompanied by the royal chamberlain, Mr. Hotorbeen, called at the legation. I then made known to her the presi-dent's sincere regret that through the un-

Her never was "I have understood and neuro all I have said, but I might leave in decision of this to my multiple rate in decision of this to my multiplera?" To this I replicat: "Suppose it was nec-sury to make a decision before you ap-amited any ministers and that you were asked to have a royal proclamation of general annusty, would you do it?" She answord: "I have no logal right to do that, and I would not do it." Pausing a moment she continued: "These people ruthe cause of the revolution and contution of 1987. There will never be any acc while they are here. They must be

"The Black Crook."

"The Black Crook" is coming in all its regal spiendor, embracing a wealth of superb accoury, gorgeous costumes and glittering armor, together with a large number of lithsome dancers, and European specialty artists. The dramatic cast is unexceptionally strong, and in fact nothing has been overlooked. Over 100 people are engaged in this superb production, and scenic artists have been for months preparing for its tour. Manager Forguson has positively arranged for its appearance here January 17, and his many friends and patrons can congratulate him in securing this grand spectacle. It is the same production that attracted worldwide attention last winter in New York at the Academy of Music, and that grand old structure was tested to its utmost capacity, so eager were the people to see it.
