Hornblower Cannot Serve on the Suprame Court Bench.

THE VOTE A VERY DECISIVE ONE.

Thirty Senators Voted for Confirmation, While Tweaty-four Favored the Numination-Powerful Specifics by Senators Vilus and Hill For and Against.

Washisurov, Jan. 16.—The senate last Washivoron, Jan. 18.—The senate last night, after a contest of more than six hours, rejected the nomination of W. B. Horablower, of New York, as associate justice of the supreme court by a vote of 30 to 24. The principal apeciles were made by Senator Hill, against, and by Senator Vilas, of Wisconsin, in favor of confirmation. Both were powerful speeches from their respective stand-nomis, and were worken of highly by those ints, and were spoken of highly by those

Mr. Hill dwelt at some length upon the importance of a position on the supreme bench and then turned to the legal qualifications which Mr. Hornblower pos-sessed. He said that among the many

Mr. Hill did not attack the personal character of the nominee, but reviewed the history of his practice in New York, and claimed that the record was enough to convince that mad a majority of the senate judiciary committee of the unitness of Mr. Hornblower for the place, While he did not charge that the practice of Mr. Hornblower was not entirely respectable, he asserted that it was not of, a character to justify the president in selecting him for this office in the face of the fact that there were so many inwyers of established reputation to whom the position might have been touckered. claimed that the record was enough to reputation to whom the position might have been tendered.

Mr. Hill also asserted that while the appointment had been made from New York, neither of the New York senators had been consulted in making it, and he evidently desired that it should be under-stood that he regarded it as a personal se-lection of the president. To this, he had lection of the president. To this he had no objection, but such a selection should have been a man who was entitled to the confidence and respect of his associates in the legal profession of his state. The moderation which Senator Hill displayed was commended by several of the senators, as it was expected by some that he might make the occasion one for an attack upon the administration. Senutor Gray, of Delaware, maden brist
