Professor Hartshorn's Hearing Postponed

New Castle, Pa., Jan. 18 --Moss Alda Robinson's condition is pitiable, and is steadily growing worse. Her condition and the prospective tragic termination of the westched affair is intensifying popu-iar resentation of against Professor Harts-horn, and it is a fact that the situation is not without peril for him. Yet there is a singular diversity of opinion, even among the morally well disposed people, as to the measure of the man's responsibility. His hearing, which was set for today, has been indefinitely postponed on account of the young woman's condition.
