John Briggs Will Soon Know His Fate.

Mr. Wadlinger Addresses the Court for Over Three Hours on Law Points-Mr. Brown Proceeds With His Summing up for the Defense.

POTTSVILLE, Jan. 18. - It was generally exsected that the jury in the Briggs case would retire last night, but the expectations were med without thought of the powers and inclimations of speech on the part of Momes. Brumm and Wastlinger. When those two gentlemen got the floor -yesterday they held it for hours when Judge Weidman called time for adjournment last evening. Mr. Brumm seemed almost as far from the conclusion of his address as at the beginning.

In response to the direction of Judge Weidman to the counsel, after all the evidence was declared in, to prepare to close the case, George Dyson. Esq., one of the connect for me to goard the violators of the law and hot frame in his mind the tutent to murder and the means by which to accomplish it. The jury must be well convinced, upon the service that there was time to deliberate and premeditate. The jury must find acmidity that the best intent. If there be time to frame in the mind the intention to kill and select the intention to kill and select the selec his legs, and his arms holding it, and his face resting upon his arms, he had more than enough time under the law to deliberate and premoditate as to the subsequent action; and the fact of his getting up and going upon the platform when he heard the cry "Where is the Girardville militias." "Why don't the Girardville militia came out." and if you believe his testinous, those were the going words he heard while in thace to attract his attention, he went out fully determined upon the action useds, and used the guin, and Pariti, having excepted the bullet, the very use of the weapon in their establishes the intent and shows that Briggs, when he made use of that goin, secant to kill. Murder in the second degrees in fibration under the law. In fact the law does infer it from the very fast that a deadly weapon was used in the hands of the primare. In other words, all hearicide is greenfield to be murder under the summon law. The murder, under our statutes, would be murder in the second degrees. Before the Componwealth can all a gry to render a verden of murder in the standard of murder where any intention to kill be inferred from the circumstances the varder inned to nurder where any intention to kill be inferred from the circumstances the varder inned to nurder where any intention to kill be inferred from the circumstances the varder inned to nurder in the first degree they must produce for kill, or take the life of another. If Briggs intended to kill the man, whether he knew the man or didn's know him, and although he had no particular mailee, of the first degree.

The right to bear arms under the Constitution of the United States does not mean that every Tom, Dick or Harry on take a guin and at a dead bour of the right of the gam with the first to bear arms under the Constitution of the United States does not mean that every Tom, Dick or Harry on take a guin and at a dead bour of the right of hear or has affary.

We have proved that this track was upon ground that had never been conceded to the electric railway com case. The question is who killed James Par fit and was that killing marrier?

Amour and his men in the borough of Gilberton that night with gans, were rioters. Briggs going to Gilberton on the night of Angast 21st, whether with a state gue as stolen gan, his new gan, or a gon given him by the Traction Company, the very fact that he went there with a gan, latenting to take or hold powering of disputed lands by a show of arms, we had findlewed and drew to it the probable consequences and very act followed.

Mr. Brumm wanted the Common

Mr. Brumm wanted the Commonwealth to make an opening before the jury to let the defense know what was claimed, but District Attorney Kyan answered: "We will have but one speech to make. The District Attorney, believing the Commonwealth's interests will be properly protected and that none of the rights of the defendant will be in frinced upon has consented to allow Mr. Whitehouse to close the argument for the Commonwealth.

Quite a discussion followed and finally Mr. Brumm undo a formal ofer as follows: It being the duty of the Commonwealth, as well as its privilege, to open and close the case, we now sak the sourt to direct that the Commonwealth open its case to this jury, so as to enable the defains to reply after knowing the position taken by the Commonwealth on the testimony and facts upon which they rely for a conviction under this indictment.

The court declined to grant the request and gave Mr. Brumm as exception.
