

TERRIBLE EXPLOSION!

Too High Pressure.

In these days of keen competition in every line, when the business man is compelled to bend his intellect and every energy to the success of his business; the clerk, book-keeper, professional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which, if not resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and bodies. They are running at too high pressure. The strain is too great. Something must and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their spheres are more limited, they have their daily burdens, frets and worries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions.

This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, hotels, and insane asylums are full of these unfortunate, and are being crowded still further. Recognize the importance of the situation at once, and take the necessary measures to overcome it. If you have failing memory, hot flashes, dizziness, nervous or sick headache, blindness, irritability, melancholy, sleeplessness, fainting, nervous dyspepsia, epilepsy, etc., know that any one of them is but a symptom of the calamity that may befall you, and even though you have used so-called remedies with little or no benefit, give Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine a trial. It is the only remedy that may be depended upon for nervous disorders.

Two years ago I used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine with marked benefit, and later induced my son, who had been sick with catarrh of the bladder five years in the hands of our best physicians, to try it together with Dr. Miles' Nervine and Liver Pills. He was wonderfully benefited, and is now a healthy, vigorous man. My wife also used Nervine with most excellent results. All of us together have not used more than six bottles of Nervine. Several of our friends have also used it, and are greatly improved. —Louis G. Buehler & Sons, 1101 Broadway, New York City. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent by Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles, $5, express prepaid. It is neither free from opiates or dangerous drugs. Free book at druggists, or by mail.

HOPE OF HAWAIIANS.

They Have Not Yet Relinquished the Idea of Annexation.

ABLE TO CARE FOR THEMSELVES.

Their Policy is One of Defence to the United States in Particular and All Governments in General—Interesting Interviews with Thurston and Waterhouse.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 19.—Hawaiian Minister Lorrin A. Thurston went through Omaha last evening en route to Washington. To an Associated Press reporter Minister Thurston said when he left Honolulu everything was quiet. Minister Willis has not been given his papers, nor has such action been contemplated by the provisional government.

"The members of the government are not alarmed at the threats of Liliuokalani. Her threats, however, have lost her the allegiance of a number of loyal monarchists, who doubt the reason for rejecting the proposition to grant amnesty in case she was restored. She cannot be restored except by force, and there is little probability of her securing sufficient force to bring about this. The talk of her securing an army in Canada is treated as a good joke. I know nothing of a protectorate being established. The present government is amply able to take care of itself. I do not anticipate any trouble with the United States. The annexation question has been lost sight of in the restoration question, but it will come up again. In the islands the feeling is as strong as ever in favor of annexation. In fact, among the natives it is growing."

Minister Thurston was much averse to discussing the effect of Mr. Willis' demand that President Dole and the provisional government abdicate, fearing anything he might say would be taken as a criticism of President Cleveland's policy. William Waterhouse, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., brother of Henry Waterhouse, of the provisional government, who returned from Honolulu with Minister Thurston, was not under this restraint, and talked freely on the situation in the island at the time of the arrival of the Corwin and up to the time of his departure.

According to Mr. Waterhouse the spirit of the provisional government is one of defiance to the United States in particular and all governments in general. He says that all arrangements have been made to fire on the American flag.

"The greatest excitement prevailed in Honolulu," said Mr. Waterhouse, "when the Corwin arrived, and it seemed probable that the restoration of the queen would be undertaken, the provisional government was ready to resist by force, and there is no question but there would have been a conflict if any attempt had been made to land marines. Dole is held to fight to a finish for what he now holds."

Minister Willis has not been given his passports, but the impression in the island is that he will ask for them soon. He is ostracized socially, and is generally disliked.

Mr. Waterhouse further says that if any attempt had been made to restore the queen she would have been assassinated.

Lohengula Tired of War.
CAPE TOWN, Jan. 19.—Advices from Bulawayo are that Lohengula is desirous to surrender, but is anxious about the treatment he will receive. He fears the anger of the British, arising from the destruction of Captain Wilson's party, and is suspicious that the obliteration of the brave men in that party will not be forgiven by his statement that he has put to death the chief who led the attack on Captain Wilson's party.

A DESSERTO HANGED.

Execution of Will S. Howard, who Had Committed Many Murders.

A DETECTIVE'S CLOSE SHAVE.

He Unwittingly Saved His Life by Knowingly Spoken Words—Howard, on the Eve of His Execution, Confesses a Murder for Which Another Confesses.

LEBANON, Mo., Jan. 19.—Will S. Howard, the noted outlaw, who has killed several men, was hanged here this afternoon for the murder of George McMichael. He met death unflinchingly. He asserted that he had not killed McMichael.

When Howard arrived at the gall yesterday afternoon he created consternation by drawing from a sheath at his waist a seven inch ugly-looking disk knife with the "star-shaped" sheath. Howard was prepared to kill Detective Inboden with, but found an opportunity to use it until yesterday.

While on the road Howard said to Inboden that he desired to speak to him. As the detective took a seat at his side Howard asked if he did not feel mean for having hunted down and convicted in his absent man. Inboden replied that he felt he was justified in doing all he had done, but if he was really an innocent man he was profoundly sorry for the part he had taken. Howard replied, "That is all right if you are sorry, as now I shall die at peace with all mankind, and I will forgive you." When the knife was surrendered Inboden was staggered as he contemplated the close call he had on the train.

Last night Howard's attorneys, Holt and Holt, appeared at the jail accompanied by the circuit clerk, and Howard made an affidavit that he had killed John Bailey in Harlan county, Ky., a crime for which an innocent man—his uncle, Will Jennings—is now serving a life sentence in the Kentucky penitentiary.

Attempted Assassination in Georgia.
SAVANNAH, Jan. 19.—Information comes from Valdosta of the attempted assassination of a number of negro turpentine hands who were employed at the distillery of the McCloud and Young investment company. The assault was committed while the negroes were preparing supper around their campfire. The assassins, five in number, discharged several loads of duckshot upon them. Nine of the negroes were shot, some of them being dangerously wounded. A little white boy who was near the camp at the time was badly wounded, and it thought he will die.

Kingston's Fight With a Water Company.
KINGSTON, N. Y., Jan. 19.—The threatened contest between this city and the Kingston Water company has at last broken out. The city refuses to pay for its public use of water, and the company has brought suit to recover $5,000 for such service up to September last, since which time no additional water rents have been accumulating. The city holds that its contract with the water company has not been fulfilled and the company holds that the city seeks to compel it to sell its plant at the city's price.

The Revolt in Mexico.
EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 19.—The Mexican authorities refuse to allow any news on the wires from Chihuahua, but it is known that the rebels had not made an attack on the capital city of the state at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, though they are expected. All the arms and ammunition in the city have been secured and stored in the state palace, and every bank has a guard of twenty-five soldiers. It is not certain that the common people will not join the enemy.

To Protect Letter Carriers.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Representative Maguire, of California, has introduced in the house a bill to regulate a mode for removing letter carriers. The bill provides that no carrier shall be removed until after written charges shall have been preferred against him and after the charges have been examined into by a board of review designated by the postmaster general.

A Physician Indicted for Murder.
NEW HAVEN, Jan. 19.—The grand jury brought in a true bill for murder in the second degree against Dr. J. Edward Lee, of this city, accused of causing the death of Mrs. Isabella Miller by a criminal operation. Lee, about three months ago, was discharged on a similar charge in the police court, the evidence in the case being insufficient to commit.

Kelly and Gorman to Fight.
WHEELING, Jan. 19.—Ed Gorman, of Buffalo, and Paddy Kelly, of Brooklyn, and their backers met here last night and signed articles for a glove contest to be fought for $1,000 aside, inside of five weeks, before any reputable athletic club that will offer a suitable purse.

The Pennsylvania Campaign Opened.
LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 19.—The state Republican campaign was opened here last night at a large mass meeting in the court house. Galusha A. Grov, the Republican candidate for congressman-at-large, was the principal speaker.

Stock and Produce Markets.
Closing Quotations on the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

New York, Jan. 19.—The proposed issue of government bonds did not accomplish what was looked forward to in the stock market. It is true that there was greater activity than for the past few days, but the buying was not of the character anticipated. Closing bid:
