REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

CONGRESS AT LARGE, HOS. BALDWIN A. GROW, OF SHENANDOAH DISTRICT.

Election—Tuesday, February 20, 1894.

The present National Administration is noted for many blunders and yet scarcely a year old.

PERKINS' announcement that the Brazilian rebels are falling, lacks confirmation from the M. A. side.

The men of the Lambertville, N. J., spoke mill have had their wages cut 10 percent. The wages of those in the spoke mill at Washington remain at the old figure.

If five robbers can go through an express car in five minutes in Missouri, how long will it take authorities to add a twenty years' term each to the other things secured by the bandits?

In Berlin the poor find labor very scarce, but the police give them all the exercise they want. When a knot of idle men collect on the street the police draw their swords and begin the chase.

FEDERAL expenditures overran the receipts nearly $10,000,000 during the past month. If this be so with the tariff bill not half way through what will the prospect be when it is all the way through?

By the recent action of agents the price of American ginger has been made five cents net, the lowest ever made in the United States, and sheetings are down to the lowest ever known except once for a short time.

THE men engaged in the latest bit of train robbing did not get enough to pay them at the rate of a dollar a day, but they had some experience which will be useful when there is a more profitable job to be had.

SINLEY proposes to pay the pensioners in bonds, which are to be legal tender for everything except customs dues and to bear 2 per cent. As they will be in small denominations there is a chance for everybody to become a bondholder, even if not bloated.

ONE Prentice Tiller is suspected of leading the Missouri express robbers. Having been an employe of the express company himself at one time, and robbed the concern of $100,000, he is considered to be just the Tiller to steer the gang.

THE want to the Democratic side of the House is statesmanship. In great part the speeches in favor of the Wilson bill are so inconclusive and fragmentary that they could not be sold for waste paper. We do not want oratory. There is no eloquence at all commensurate with the importance of the subject equal to facts. If anybody will be good enough to indicate a pertinent fact in Mr. William Wilson's speech—the best so far on his side—he can have a prize. But the potent facts are against the theories of the Wilson bill advocates, and a single fact is fatal to the bill. If we must increase purchases of staple products abroad $250,000,000 annually in order to get the necessary revenue under that bill it follows that we shall produce and sell that sum less in goods at home. And if we buy so much more abroad we must pay for the same in gold, which means larger exports of gold and larger imports of goods we now make for ourselves.

INJUNCTION PROPOSED.

To Restrain Carlisle from Issuing Government Bonds.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR TAKE A HAND

Master Workman Sovereign Says the Intended Action is Illegal, and He Will Make a Legal Effort to Prevent Its Consummation.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 29.—General Master Workman Sovereign was seen by an Associated Press reporter regarding the proposed injunction proceedings against Secretary Carlisle. "It may be a good deal like a mouse tackling a lion," he said to a reporter, "but we are going to do it." The petition praying for the injunction will be drawn here by Judge Cole, will be sworn to by Mr. Sovereign and sent to Washington the first of next week. The petition praying for an injunction to restrain the secretary of the treasury from issuing bonds in the sum of $20,000,000, or any other amount, Mr. Sovereign said, will be drawn here by Judge Cole, will be sworn to by Mr. Sovereign and sent to Washington to be filed in the JAMES R. SOVEREIGN, United States circuit court of the District of Columbia by the first of next week.

There is nothing in the law providing for a reserve fund at this time in the United States treasury of $100,000,000. There is no provision in the law for any special reserve as construed by the present government. The fact that the secretary of the treasury is to offer for sale a greater amount of bonds than the so-called legal reserve indicates that he is not offering them for the purpose of redemption, and it further shows that he has not offered them for sale for any of the purposes specified in the law of Jan. 14, 1875—the redemption act. The secretary of the treasury has no authority to offer bonds for sale for any purpose. There is no deficit in the United States reserve fund, for the silver at present in the treasury is more than double the so-called deficit in the so-called legal reserve.

"There is no such thing as a special reserve, legal or otherwise," said Mr. Sovereign, "provided for anywhere in the federal statutes. There is nothing in the law providing for a reserve of $100,000,000 at this time, and more than this there is a provision for a reserve of $25,000,000. The government claims to be able to issue the bonds under the act of 1875 to replace a deficit in the reserve; yet it has offered for sale an amount of bonds double the amount of the very deficit it claims that it must replace. Its claim is not reasonable, consistent or honest."

THE NEWS AT WASHINGTON.

It is believed the Appeal Will Not Be Ruleriaised.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—A Baltimore dispatch announcing a threatened injunction by the Knights of Labor against Secretary Carlisle to restrain him from issuing $20,000,000 in bonds, as contemplated by him, was taken to the treasury department and shown to the secretary. Mr. Carlisle merely read the dispatch, but declined to say anything whatever on the subject for publication.

Other officials of the department to whom the dispatch was shown were not surprised on learning its contents. The feeling of the Knights of Labor and of labor unions generally on the bond question was known to be unfavorable, as had been shown by the passage of resolutions against it. The officials were a unit in the opinion that the secretary had nothing more than a temporary delay to fear from injunction proceedings. It is believed no delay would be occasioned by legal proceedings, as even a temporary injunction doubtless would be denied.

The Populists of the house know nothing about the injunction against the bond issue. Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, says he will have no hand in it, but would be glad if it were true. The general opinion among the lawyers of the house is that the proceedings would have no standing in court.

Denied by Minister Romero.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—Senator Romero, the Mexican minister, received a dispatch which contradicts the statement that Chihuahua has been captured by revolutionaries.

Wrecked by the Cashier.

PROMPT RELIEF comes to the woman suffering from any of the painful disorders and derangements peculiar to her sex, if she accepts the help that is offered. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine so certain in its effects that it can be guaranteed. In every case, if it doesn't benefit or cure, your money is returned.

Hood's Cures

Sour Stomach

"I was attacked with dyspepsia and sour stomach. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and it helped me from the start, and has overcome my troubles." HARRY L. MORRIS, 100 Mulberry Street, Newark, N. J. Be sure to get Hood's.

FIGHTING THE SLAVE TRADERS

TERRIBLE Vengeance on the Sofas for a Massacre at Keryayama.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The foreign office received yesterday a dispatch from Lieutenant Colonel A. B. Ellis, the British officer in command of the troops in Sierra Leone, west coast of Africa. In this dispatch, the colonel furnishes the government with details of the engagement fought between the frontier police and Sofas recently. Ellis reports that Inspector Taylor, of the frontier police was pursuing the Sofas. The column arrived at the town of Keryayama on Dec. 31 and found the place to be a perfect charnel house. Scores of the slaughtered captives, including women and children, were strewn about the neighborhood or piled inside the town.

Inspector Taylor hastened the pursuit, and came close upon their trail on Jan. 2 at Bagwema. The frontier police managed to approach the Sofa encampment without being observed, and found that the place was strongly guarded by blockades and other defenses. The police, however, carried the place by storm in a quarter of an hour, killing 30 Sofas and wounding 75 others. In addition, the frontier police captured all the guns and ammunition of the Sofas and rescued 400 slaves, the majority of whom were women and children.

Another good feature of the victory of the frontier police was the fact that it completely dispersed a horde of bloody slaves whose crimes had long been the terror of that portion of Africa.

The frontier police only lost two injured during the engagement. Four days previously the Sofas, under Chief Fori, attacked the police garrison at Tonki, but were repulsed with a loss of fifty killed and a large number wounded.

Two Brothers Become Insane.

LANCASTER, Pa., Jan. 30.—It is asserted here with great positiveness that United States Commissioner C. G. Kennedy, a member of the law firm of Smith & Kennedy, is an inmate of Kirkbride's asylum for the insane, and it is alleged that his insanity is the result of certain crooked business transactions. It is charged that he has been guilty of forgery and of converting to his own use money in his hands in his professional capacity. The amount involved is about $40,000. Mr. Kennedy has been a slave to the cocaine habit, and is now a physical and mental wreck. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of district attorney at the recent election. A sad feature of the affair is that it has led to the insanity of his brother, Altono P. Kennedy, of Pittsburgh.

Overpowered a Burglar with Ammonia.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 29.—Miss Louisa Goslin, a young woman, who is staying at the home of C. W. Hunt, a wealthy manufacturer, who lives on Barker street, West Brighton, had an exciting struggle with a burglar, who awakened her from a sound sleep. She arose, but was seized by the man, who attempted to throw her down stairs. Suddenly she caught up a bottle of ammonia and threw the contents in his face. He fled, groaning with pain. During the struggle she turned on the electric light, and can identify the man if caught.

Arrested for Poisoning a Family.

NEVADA, Mo., Jan. 29.—News reached here from Jerico Springs of the arrest of Scoring Brasier and his wife on the charge of poisoning the Comstock family last October. Irvin Comstock, the father, and Mrs. Wallace, a visitor, died, while Mrs. Comstock, a visitor named Mrs. McCree and Willie Comstock were in danger of dying for several days. Brasier is the only child of Mrs. Comstock by a former marriage, and it is thought he thus sought to secure the Comstock property.

Non-Unionists Will Aid Unionists.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Jan. 29.—There is no probability of the men accepting the new scale submitted by the pottery men, which provides for a cut of 10 per cent., with an additional 20 per cent. withheld in the White Granite potteries pending congressional action on the Wilson bill. The non-union men have organized to act in conjunction with the brotherhood. It looks as if there was a long struggle ahead.

Death of Ex-Governor Gaston.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 29.—Ex-Governor William Gaston died yesterday, aged 72. He was the first Democrat elected governor of Massachusetts after the foundation of the Republican party.

The Marked Success of Scott's Emulsion in consumption, scrofula and other forms of hereditary disease is due to its powerful food properties.

Nothing in the world of medicine has been so successful in diseases that are most menacing to life. Physicians everywhere prescribe it.

Settle Retains His Seat.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The election committee of the house in the Williams vs. Settle (North Carolina) contested election case voted to recommend that Settle keep his seat. No record of the vote was made, and members decline to make public the vote by which the Republican member's right to the seat was confirmed. It is understood, however, that the votes of Representative Paynter (Ky.) and Denton (Ala.), both Democrats, turned the scale in favor of Settle.

No Civil Service Law Violations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The report of Civil Service Commissioners Proctor and Roosevelt on their investigation of the charges made by Isaac D. McKee, late chairman of the civil service board of Philadelphia, against Postmaster Drake and others of the Philadelphia postoffice, alleging violations of the civil service law, has been submitted to the commission. The report declares that there have been no civil service violations.

More Trouble in Samoa.

APIA, Samoa, Jan. 29.—Natives in the district of Hana have rebelled and proclaimed Tamasese king, and he has a large following. The people of Savali have declared allegiance to King Malietoa, and are gathering to his support. The chief justice, president and consul meet tomorrow to consider the situation. The consuls have sent a request by the Monowai for war ships, so grave is the situation.

Brazilian Troops Defeated.

BUEENOS AYRES, Jan. 29.—President Peixoto has ordered the dismissal of the commander of Fort Santa Cruz for allowing two torpedo boats to re-enter the bay and a quantity of arms and stores to reach the insurgents. Admiral Da Gama sent reinforcements to the insurgent garrison on Coneleco Island, and subsequently repelled a vigorous attack by the government troops, who lost 120 men killed.

Imprisoned for Sedition.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Herr Ellend, editor of the Socialist, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment and to deprivation of his civil rights for recently writing a seditious article. In court Herr Ellend persisted in keeping his hat on his head in spite of the warning of the presiding judge. Finally Ellend was sentenced to an additional day's imprisonment for contempt of court.

Workmen Help Their Employer Out.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30.—At a meeting of the Window Glass Workers' association last night the application of James A. Chambers for a loan of $50,000 was finally passed upon and approved, and the money will be advanced. This is the first case probably in the history of the world where a labor union has been called upon to loan money to an employer.

A New Brunswick Murder.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Jan. 29.—William Snook, of Princeton, N. J., quarreled with an Italian about the American wife of the latter. The Italian accused Snook of alienating his wife's affection. Snook thereupon drew a revolver and shot the Italian through the heart. He died instantly. The murderer is supposed to be hiding in the woods.

Servia's Cabinet Crisis.

BELGRADE, Jan. 29.—The crisis in the Servian government is rapidly approaching a state of acuteness. The relations of the cabinet with the king are about as strained as they possibly could be. The king has countermanded the court ball, and avoids all ceremonies which are likely to entail a contact with the ministers.

Two Young Lady Skaters Drowned.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 30.—Hartford, aged 17, and Martha Hartford, aged 17, both mill girls, were drowned while skating in the Westfield river at Middletown last night. Frank Hartford, brother of Martha, while trying to save them, was pulled in and narrowly escaped drowning.

Epidemic of Black Fever.

SEBASTOS, Pa., Jan. 30.—An epidemic of "black fever" has appeared at High Works, in the northern part of this city, and the greatest alarm prevails among the residents of that neighborhood. Public funerals have been forbidden in the cases of those who have died with the disease.

A Missing Man Found Dead.

YONKERS, Pa., Jan. 30.—The body of William Slessinger, who wandered away from York about a month ago, and from whom nothing had been heard since, was found last night in Codorus creek, near Louck's Mills, about ten miles from this city. All indications point to accidental drowning.
