REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

CONGRESS AT LARGE,
ROD GALUSHA A. GROW,
OF SUSSEX COUNTY.

Election—Tuesday, February 20, 1894.

HOW IT WORKS.

DR. STUYVESANT ASTOR, a relation of the New York Astors, is a very rich man. He is also a very shrewd man. I was surprised to find him a low tariff man. He would even like Free-Trade.

"Why do you want low tariff?" I asked him the other day. "You know the tariff keeps wages up, and that with Free-Trade American wages would have to be as low as German wages."

"That is what I want," said Mr. Astor. "The lower the better for me, you see I am not a workman. I like others. I have thirty servants in New York and Newport. The lower the wages the better for me."

"But you used to be a Protective Tariff man," I said.

"Yes, but then I was making money. I was interested in manufactures. Now I have put everything I own into government bonds. Hard low tariff times help me now. They make things cheaper."

"How cheaper?" I asked.

"Why, with low tariff they will come in made by cheaper labor in Europe."

"And you want that?"

"Of course. I want low tariff or Free-Trade because my wife buys all her dresses in Paris. Our furniture comes from Vienna, carpets from England, wines from France, and cottons from Scotland. With Free Trade I will save $30,000 a year. I am spending money by making it."

"But if you buy those things in Europe and ship them without duty our own mills will stop," I said. "Yes, wages will go down and our workmen will be idle."

"Yes, I know this," said Mr. Astor, "but that is their look out, not mine. It is the workman and the working manufacturer that the tariff benefits, and not the rich man with his fortune made. I am talking for myself now."

"But suppose you were a poor workman?" I said.

"Why, then I'd want wages high and money flush. Now, as I am spending money, I want wages low and money tight so that it will go a great way, don't you see?"

"Yes," I said, "I can see that from your standpoint as a rich man with your money in government bonds your argument is unanswerable. You are logical."

ELI PERKINS.

WHAT a man's enemies cannot do to ruin him usually does himself. Nothing that the enemies of ex-Queen Lily did against her hurt, her one-hundredth part as much as the words out of her own mouth. The idea of the depraved old mongrel insisting on being allowed to behold hundreds of highly intelligent and respectable white men and confiscate their property, because they were opposed to her making the beautiful Hawaiian Islands a sink of iniquity! It makes one shudder to think of what the people must have endured under her before being goaded into revolution.

From various reports of dance-room affairs in Mexico, it is gathered that "after the ball" in President Diaz's Republic must be a period generally devoted to gathering up the dead and wounded.

SUPPOSE Congress sustains Cleveland in the Hawaiian business, and then consistently votes Queen Lily a lump sum for the loss of her crown and scepter and dignity, would not that be a pudding for the Republicans in 1896?

PUGILISTS PREPARED.

Referee Kelly Holds the Cash for the Corbett-Mitchell Fight.

ALL ARRANGEMENTS PERFECTED.

As the Military Are Now Quartered at Jacksonville It Is Not Likely the Fight Will Take Place There, but Sheriff Broward Admits It May Occur Elsewhere.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 23.—The law firm of A. W. Cockerell & Son has been called in as allies of the club, and late in the afternoon a bill was filed by the club's counsel in the Fourth circuit court of the state of Florida, praying for an injunction restraining the sheriff or any one of his representatives or agents from interfering in any way with the proposed exhibition and preventing any persons from entering the grounds, etc. Notice was served upon Sheriff Broward of the action soon after the bill was filed, and a hearing was begun before Judge Call this forenoon.

Collateral to this legal action are declarations made on the subject by Mayor Fletcher, of Jacksonville. He has mounted the famous post that there appears to be a change after all that the fight may be pulled off in the arena originally built by the club. He declared to an Associated Press correspondent that the city had passed an ordinance permitting such contests as that proposed between Mitchell and Corbett, and had accepted from their representatives the money for a license. Under these circumstances he believed it to be the duty of the city of Jacksonville to protect the club and fight as far as it could.

"There has been considerable talk," said the mayor, "about my swearing in special policemen to protect the fighters and seeing that they are allowed to have their little affair without molestation. I have never done such a thing, nor will I do it. Those men and the club are violating the law of this municipality, and I have no right to interfere with them. Neither am I in any way bound to protect them beyond seeing that they are allowed to proceed under the ordinance passed by the city council. This says that the chief of police must be at the ringside and satisfy himself that the parties in the fight have a permit and that the gloves weigh not less than five ounces. He will be at the ring if the fight comes off in the arena. He will look at the permit and weigh the gloves, then he will allow them to proceed."

"But what about the militia and the sheriff?"

"That is no business of the city's. I shall allow the men to go ahead, but if the authorities of Duval county or of the state step in and stop the fight it is no affair of mine. The city council of Jacksonville cannot by passing an ordinance render void the common law which I understand Governor Mitchell declares will be violated."

"Whether or not the law is being violated is a matter for the courts. The city of Jacksonville has nothing to do with it, and does not propose to argue it. We will allow the men to proceed, but will not protect them if the state or county stops them. We are no more bound to protect the Duval club, simply because it has a license, than we are bound to protect and guarantee success to a saloon keeper or any other branch of business for which a license has been granted."

It is admitted that the club will make a strong effort to bring the fight in the arena out of the town track, and falling tiers will be prepared to load fighters and spectators on special trains for a point at which the men can fight without molestation in a place already provided for, which will be in readiness for the mill the day before the date set for the contest.

The baggage cars and a caboose left the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad yards last night. Inside the two cars were packed a circus tent and portable seats of the Frank Gentry circus. In the caboose, the blinds and shades of which were tightly drawn, there were thirty-five picked men, each armed with a brace of revolvers. Every man of them had been sworn in as a deputy sheriff, the oath having been administered by the sheriff of an adjacent county friendly to the promoters of the contest between Corbett and Mitchell. Just where the tent was bound to go outside the inner circle of the Duval club knows.

While Sheriff Broward and one of his deputies were driving near the arena expected by the Duval club yesterday afternoon he was met by "Circular Joe" Vendig, who was also on wheels. Both stopped and at once began discussing the fight. Shortly the big, dark, swarthy and typical southern sheriff looked forward and in a determined fashion said to Vendig: "There will be no fight here on Thursday."

"But what if an injunction should be served upon you?" asked Vendig.

"I did understand," retorted the sheriff, with something of a sneer, "that you fellows intended to spring that kind of a game on me."

"If we do," insisted Vendig, "you will honor the order of the court, won't you?"

"I won't cross that bridge until I come to it," replied Broward. "I will repeat, however, that there will be no fight in that building or in this county. I don't see what you people mean by insisting on bringing off the affair here, when there are, as you claim and I admit, dozens of places near here to which you might take the men and have it out."

The five companies of the Second battalion arrived in Jacksonville this forenoon. The men are quartered in the armory, and are under the command of Adjutant General Houston in person. General Houston said that as he was sent to Jacksonville to prevent the fight, he proposed to do so, and would use every means in his power to effect this purpose. "I am acting under instructions from Governor Mitchell," said he, "and I will carry them out to the letter." General Houston does not anticipate any trouble in preventing the battle and evidently thinks that the sight of the troops will be sufficient to deter the men from entering the ring.

In accordance with a demand made by Referee Kelly last night, acting by authority of both Corbett and Mitchell, the $50,000 check held by that official was converted into cash at the rooms of the club this forenoon, and the money will be paid to the winner at the ringside. Mitchell declares that he will fight, and that he will win. And Corbett smiles.

France Will Not Employ Anarchists.

PARIS, Jan. 23.—A General Le Ferré, minister of marine, has ordered the discharge of all the anarchist workmen employed in the government dock yards, etc., at Toulon.

PECKHAM FOR SUPREME JUDGE.

A Nominating More Offensive to Him Than That of Hornblower.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The president went to the senate the nomination of Wheeler H. Peckham, of New York, to be associate justice of the supreme court of the United States. Wheeler H. Peckham is a brother of Judge Rufus Peckham, of the New York court of appeals. He was appointed district attorney by Mr. Cleveland when he was governor of New York, but subsequently resigned.

The New York senators and their friends are very indignant over the nomination of Mr. W. H. Peckham. They declare that the nomination is more offensive to them than was that of Hornblower, and they accept it as a challenge to continue the war. The fight of the New York senators against Peckham will, therefore, be even more earnest than that made against Hornblower. They will not, however, be able to make the general charge of lack of reputation, which was made against Hornblower.

Wheeling Pottery Is Idle.

WHEELING, Jan. 23.—Yesterday was the time set by the boss potters of this city and at all other points where the manufacturers are members of the United States Pottery Association for the new scale of wages to go into effect. It calls for a cut of 10 per cent. in the wages of all but laborers and girls, and for the retention of 20 per cent. of all wages till it shall be discovered what disposition is made of the Wilson bill. A meeting of the National Pottery Brotherhood will be called to take action in the matter. Until that time the plants will be closed unless non-union labor is employed.

Brutally Beaten by Drunkards.

CALIFORNIA, Pa., Jan. 23.—Paul Polinski, a Polish coal miner, is now lying at the point of death at his home here. His death will add another murder to Washington county's list. On last Friday morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock, he was attacked by three drunken characters named Harry White, Robert McMurray and George Jones. They beat the Pole, it is said, without provocation, and then left him on the street for dead. He is hurt internally, and death is momentarily expected. The three assailants are under arrest.

Marauders Driven Out.

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Jan. 23.—A large posse of armed citizens turned out last night to hunt down a gang of thieves who have been committing petty depredations in this neighborhood for several months. The marauders were surrounded in a deserted house in the pines, but as the citizens approached the men inside opened fire, which was returned by the posse. After a time the marauders called for a parley, during the progress of which all but one of them, William Gibbons, the leader, escaped.

An Appeal from Hawaii.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Another batch of Hawaiian correspondence was sent to congress by the president yesterday. It includes a petition of the Hawaiian Patriotic league to congress in which the extravagance of the provisional government in "employing foreigners to subvert the legal government" is detailed at length, and congress appealed to to uphold the government of native Hawaiians as opposed by a small percentage of foreigners.

A Prisoner's Dash for Liberty.

SEBASTON, Pa., Jan. 23.—Orlando Edwards, of Moscow, serving a six months' term for horse stealing, made a daring escape from the Lockawanna county jail. Edwards has been allowed to assist in the work about the jail. The door was left unguarded for a moment and Edwards dashed out. Leaping down the steps he dashed through the adjoining fields in the direction of the Sebastian stove works. Edwards was captured late last night.

Preparing to Rescue a Murderer.

MIDDELTONVILLE, Ky., Jan. 23.—It is thought an effort will be made by friends of Bob Marler to rescue him before the day of hanging. A few days ago a box of Winchester rifles was sent to Willis Johnson, his brother-in-law, at Rest. Johnson is the leader of a band of toughs, and the authorities are on the qui vive. Marler's under sentence to hang on Feb. 7.

Choked the Jailer to Death.

BOXBOND, N. C., Jan. 23.—Logan Meadows and Jasper Robertson, negroes, escaped from jail by choking Jailer Willie Taylor to death. Both negroes were soon afterwards captured, and narrowly escaped lynching.

Emperor William Buils Count Bismarck.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—After a year's absence Herbert Bismarck yesterday attended the annual festival of the distribution of orders. Emperor William did not notice him, although he spoke to many others.

Sudden Death of Under Sheriff Stevens.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Joel O. Stevens, who has been under sheriff since 1874, died suddenly of heart failure in the vestibule of the sheriff's office.

NUGGETS OF NEWS

The deaths at Rio Janeiro average eleven daily, and it is impossible for vessels to discharge their cargoes.

W. H. Cole, a prominent colored politician and ex-postmaster of Bates, Ark., was found guilty of murdering his son-in-law.

Near Gallipolis, O., three disguised men entered the home of James Dowell, a farmer, murdered Dowell and his sister, and finally secured $250 in gold.

A GOOD BUILDING UP of a run-down system can be accomplished by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. A long procession of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, loss of appetite, dullness, depression) and you'll save yourself from something serious.

As an appetizing, restorative tonic, to repel disease and build up the needed flesh and strength, there's nothing to equal it. It rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, traces up the whole system, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease caused by a disordered liver or impure blood, it is the only guaranteed remedy. If it doesn't benefit or cure, you get your money back.

The Naked Eye

Fighting for a Church.

MEADVILLE, Pa., Jan. 23.—For some time past the rival factions of the United Brethren Valley church in Bloomfield township, this county, have been contending for possession of the church. Early last December the "radicals" went to the church, took forcible possession and placed a new lock on the door. Last Thursday the "liberals" took possession. Late Saturday night the "radicals" came down to capture their church. A regular riot followed and a number of the participants were seriously injured. The fight finally ended in a draw, with the "liberals" still in possession.

Killed by Midnight Marauders.

FOUR SMITH, Ark., Jan. 23.—An old Indian named Nandy lived up in the mountains in a little hut. At midnight robbers broke into the hut and demanded the old man's money. The old man denied having any money, when the robbers started to kill him. A young girl who lived with the old man took a hand in the fight and fought the robbers bravely. Seeing she was no match for them she broke away. She was followed a short distance by the robbers, but they soon gave up the pursuit and returned to the hut, where they killed the old man and then set fire to the hut.

McKane's Trial Begun.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 23.—The trial of John Y. McKane for the arbitrary action which it is alleged he committed both before and on election day last fall, in connection with the election in the town of Gravesend, was begun yesterday. The prosecution is conducted by Edward M. Sheppard and General B. F. Tracy. McKane is defended by George W. Rodericks and ex-Judge James Troy. The eleven indictments in all against McKane. Judge Bartlett has granted McKane a separate trial.

A Hunter Murdered.

LYNDANA, Pa., Jan. 23.—John Cunningham and his son-in-law, a man named Bookshire, went hunting last Thursday. They failed to return Friday, and a searching party was started to hunt them. On Sunday the dead body of Cunningham was found near Purchase Line. He had evidently been murdered. When he was on the trip he was known to have $200 with him. His clothing had been rifled. Suspicious rests on Bookshire, who is missing.

Defeat of Mexican Rebels.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 23.—Colonel Seguino Ortiz, of the 33rd army, distinguished to President Diaz from Chihuahua "I overtook Lujan's band and defeated it after some fighting. All their horses, saddles and ammunition are in my possession. They lost twenty-six killed, among them Lujan, the leader. At the beginning of the engagement Ochoa escaped with three men."

INDIA'S FINANCIAL POLICY.

London Newspapers Denounce It as Ruinous to England.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The Globe says that the Indian financial prospects are in a state of chaos and without any tendency to a satisfactory solution. Continuing, The Globe remarks: "One great experiment has collapsed, and a reversal of the attempt made in June to subject political economy to official regulations really amounts to a confession of failure. The whole financial situation in India must now be faced, and the intervention of a sound economist is wanted to overhaul the whole subject and with power to give effect to his recommendations."

The St. James Gazette severely criticizes the past Indian policy and says that after demoralizing trade since June the Indian governments' unfortunate experiment has completely broken down and that its steady retreat from an untenable position also means that Mr. Gladstone's government is at last alive to the hazardous and desperate nature of the financial game the Indian authorities are playing.

In conclusion The Gazette says: "If the government dismisses the idea of establishing a gold standard in India and stands on cheap for expensive currency, enriching China and Japan at the cost of India, then the dangers of the past six months will assume less portentous dimensions. In the meanwhile Saturday's decision means a further fall, with no immediate prospect of steadiness in the price of silver."

Fighting Over a Philanthropist's Millions.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The great litigation over the estate of Daniel B. Payerweather, who left about $6,000,000, in which all the prominent colleges in the country and most of the other big institutions about New York are beneficiaries, was begun before Justice Traux, of the supreme court. Among those appearing were William Blackie and Colonel E. C. Jones for the executors and the widow of Payerweather and his two nieces, John E. Parsons and ex-Judge William H. Arnoux appeared for the executors of the estate and the trustees of the alleged trusts. Every large college had its counsel present. The action is brought mainly to have it declared that the residue of the estate, about $3,000,000, must be considered to be held in trust for the institutions named in the will.
