MAHANOV CITY, Jan. 24.

There are yet fifty or sixty ex-strikers in and around Delano who have not been reinstated, and there has been ab ut that number of new men employed since the strike was declared off, in violation of President Wilbur's agreement that the old men should be positioned before new men were hired. The reinstatement of these men is now made doubly doubtful, since the issuance of the General Manager's circular or during that as few men aspossible be employed money in doing it. This system costs at present. The ex-strikers regard this new move as a "freeze out." Meanwhile they are receiving their monthly wages from the organization. It is said that some of the sixstrikers were approached yesterday by one is thanking us for what we are doing, of the minor officials and told that if they would have a talk with the superintendent he might give them work.
