Jacksonville Gets the Big Prize Fight After All.

NO INTERFERENCE BY MILITIAMEN

On the Contrary, the Soldiers Will Doubtless Witness the Contest at a Reduced Rate-Jacksonville Citizens Elated Over Judge Call's Decision.

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 25 .- A crowd which again packed the circuit room to the doors assembled yesterday to hear the condoors assembled yesterday to hear the con-tinuance of the case of the Duval club in their pies for an injunction restraining Sheriff Broward of Duval county, from interfering with the glove contest be-tween James J Corbett and Charles Mitchell. Added interest was given to case by the presence of Mr. Lamar, attor-ncy general of Florida, who had come from Tallahassee to assist States's Attor-ncy Partridge in the defense.

ncy Partridge in the defense,
Colonel Cockerell, in behalf of the Duval Colonel Cockerell, in behalf of the Duval circle, read the bill setting forth the grounds upon which an injunction was asked for.
State's Attorney Partridge then offered a demarrer to the bill and presented, an affidavit by Sheriff Broward, in which the sheriff a position in the case was sat forth. The sheriff believed the so called glove context would be a brutal prize fight and in violation of the law, that he had been instructed by the governor to prevent the course, and he believed that in so doing he would be acting in the discharge of his daty.

State's Attorney Partridge then read the hav governing easer of equity and claimed that a court of equity had no right to in-terfers with a should in the discharge of Ex-Judge W. B. Young, for the Duval. ub, contended that there was nothing legal in the proposed contest, and that he sheriff was assuming that it was the pal, thereby preventing the Duval club room enjoying the lawful right and privi-ces to hold a contest of the kind.

Colonel Cockerell continued the case for the plantiff. He said that the shoriff did not know whether the contest would be illegal or not, but he was simply acting under instructions from the governor. Colonel Cockerell then launched out, rather warmly, into what might be a well timed roast on the governor's action is instructing the sheriff, which the lawr said was throwing contempt reuit court and was setting up the ex-

The betting last night took a rather unexpected turn. Previous to the decision of Judge Call granting the injunction Corbett money had been scarce at 2 to 1. The court's decision had hardly been rendered, however, when the admirers of the American came to the front with surpris-ing rapidity. From 2 to I on the cham-pion the odds jumped to $15 to $10, and soon 3 to 1 was not hard to get. "Jimmy" Colville succeeded in placing $1,000 to $330 on Corbett, while other bets of $1,000 to $400, $1,000 to $350 and $1,000 to $300 were taid on the American. Even money was also taken that Corbett would win inside of twenty rounds.
