Terrible Holocaust on a County Poor Farm in Iowa,

EIGHT INMATES BURNED TO DEATH

They Were All Violently Insane, and Were Left in the Building Unattended. The Disaster Evidently Due to Official

Negfigence.

Booss, D., Jan 25 - The building on the Boone county foor farm in which the incurable insane were confined was burned at in p. m., and eight of the nine inmates were burned to death. Only one woman, Mrs. Hibbard, escaped from the burning building, and gave the alarm to the stew-ard, Holcomb, who was in the main build-ing adjacent. It was then too late to save the insame people, and the main building was saved only by the greatest effort. The steward says that he banked the fires in the furnace about 9 o'clock, and does not know how the fire originated, unless from a defective flux. The dead are: Mary Tucker, John Anthe dead are: Mary Tucker, John Ab-manings, Anna Soderbirg, Christine An-derson, Christine Peterson, Mrs. Scott, Tom Lesser and Joseph Craig, The building burnad was an old two story frame structure, which was as dry as tinder. To add to the inflammable ma-ture of the place, many of the partitions were padded with cutton and some of the Linder. bed clothing was of cotton batting three inches thick. This was because only the incurably insume were kept there. These patients were nearly all violent, and the great amount of cotton padding was used great amount of exton padding was used to prevent them injuring themselves. The bailding was beated by a furnaen which was last summer condemned by a local expert as unsafe, but no attention had ap-parently been paid to his warning. Mr. Holcomb, the steward, says that when he got out doors the flames were birsting from all of the windows of the bursting from all of the windows of the frame structure, and it was a mass of flames inside. He burst open a door, but was driven buck by the flames, which in a few moments had burned the building to the ground. The main building was saved by pouring on water which the heat of the fire melted from a huge snow drift alongside the building. No one saw the people who were burned to death, and whether they made any effort to escape can never be known. There seems to have been to attendant of any kind in the building where the insano people were locked up.

The American Protective Association. BLOOMINGTON, DIS., Jan. 25 - The num-ber of delegates to the state convention of her of nongates to the state convention of the American Protective association have been largely anguagented. The declaration of principles adopted declares: Nation-ality is not a bur to membership in the order; we interfere with no man's partian polities; we attack no man's religion so long as he does not attempt to make his religion an element of political power; we regard all religious political organizations as the enemies of civil and religious liberty; we are in favor of laws taxing church property.
