TERRIBLE EXPLOSION! THE INCOME TAX WINS

Too High Pressure.

Too High Pressure. In these days of keen competition in every line, when the husiness man is compelled to bend his intellext and every energy to the anceens of his business; the clerk, book-keeper, prefessional man and laborer, to drive themselves at a terrific rate, there can be but one result—an explosion, which if not resulting in immediate death, leaves them with shattered brains and bodies. They are running at boo high pressure The strain is too great. Something muse and does give way. This is equally true of women. Though their sphere is more limited, they have their dails burdens, frets and worries, and the results are the same as limited, they have their daily burdens, frets, and worries, and the results are the same as with their stronger companions. This condition is growing worse every day. The rapidity of its increase is awful to contemplate. Our homes, hospitals, and insare asylums are full of these unfortunates, and are being crowded still further. There is but one solution of the matter. Recog-nize the importance of the situation at once, and take the necessary measures to over-
