He was worn imont to a shadow of his former milf, and is friends despaired of having him long with

But now he is back in his office vigorous and hearty. He regards for. David Kennoty's Pavorite Remoty of Rondont, N. Y. as the savier of his life. The story Mr. Brown

Then at the advice of friends I consulted specialists, and they all failed to do mo any good. All this time I was growing worse. My equality for work descried me, and at last I was comcelled to take to my hed.

"My mother in-law had beard of Dr. Kennedy and his preparation, Favorite Remody, and sheasked me to give them a trial. More to please her than anything else I wrote to him stating my case. I received a: etter in reply advising me to use Favorite Remedy. I had been confined to my bed for live weeks and I admit that I didn't think there was much chance of getting out of it. Well, I tried Eavorite Remody. Thereasumed to be a change that surprised me. In a week I was able to get out of bed and go around the house, and by following his treatment 1 recovered completely. To day I'm as will as I ever was and what's better yet, I feel that I am permanently cured. I can work sixteen or eighteen hours a day now and not be broken up a bit. Eregard Dr. Konnedy as a: parille benefactor and caunot my too much in praise of his preparation-Favorite Remedy. Before I consulted Dr. Kennedy I went to a pecialist who examined me and then said ; Give me $250 and PH cure you.' I immelistely now that that doctor's object was to get all he could out of me.

"Dr. Kennedy, on the other hand, refused to take a cent from me until 1 was cared, with the exception that I purchased Favorite Renn dy of no druggist. When I began to take Favorine Remedy I weighed about 125 counds. Now I can tip the scales at 151 pound, and I made the gain in a few months. I have an excellent appetite, and I feel like a two-year-old. To Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remaily is all the credit due."

When the reporter saw Mr. Brown he was at his deak in his office and he looked the eture of health. He was autive in his evenents and had the cheerfol air of a man who is content with all the world. He has recommended many of his friends to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite remody and in every case it has benefited and in some made radical curvs.
