It looks rather odd to see all the side tracks along the Lehigh Valley Railroad blocked with empty coal cars and the collieries lying idle for want of them.

The attraction presented at the last Saturday evening by the Hill Opera Company was "Handsome Jack, the Highwayman." All who witnessed it were well pleased and, indeed, they could not be otherwise, for it was one of the best plays seen here.

Miss Fuller posed as Handsome Jack and attracted the attention of all throughout the different stages of the play. All other members of the troupe played their different parts in excellent style and the play was a complete success. The audience was a large one, the kind which this company deserves and should have received during the past week. They have decided to remain here another week and the plays will be just as good as the past. Those who have patronized the company will do so again, and those who have not should do so, for their own benefit.

The Centralia and Logan collieries worked on Monday for the last time this month.

The masquerade ball held here on Friday evening, under the auspices of the fire company, was a great success, both financially and socially. It was well patronized by the young folks of town and also by a large number from the surrounding towns. At 8 o'clock the doors of the ball room were thrown open and crowds of masked figures flooded in and immediately commenced waiting to the silver strains of music from Prof. Ryan's orchestra. The dancing was kept up without intermission until 12 o'clock, when the grand march took place. It was led by James Ryan and Miss Lizzie Higgins. After the march all masks were removed and then there was certainly a lively time. The costumes on the whole were very nice. The ball was for a good purpose and the people seemed to know this by the way they flocked to it. Besides the masked figures there were large numbers of spectators. This was the first masquerade ball held here, but we are sure that these balls will be held more frequently, as all who attended were greatly delighted and thank the fire company for the good night's fun they furnished, while on the other hand the "boys" wish to thank all who attended and helped them in their endeavors to secure and furnish their home house.

The Lehigh Valley company is stocking empty coal cars on the old Continental branch. There are already several hundred cars on this branch.

An Art Gem.

Every one who has seen the first part of "Masterpieces from the Art Galleries of the World" acknowledges its beauty and value, and they wonder how we can afford to give it away as we do.

They do not realize that securing more readers, regular subscribers, is the great aim of every publisher and that he is willing to spend a great deal of money in doing it. This system costs us very little more than the employment of expensive canvassers and it is a much more pleasant way. Everybody is thanking us for what we are doing. Our old subscribers feel that we are doing a friendly act and in return they are inducing thousands of new ones to start in with us. For this first part, one coupon and ten cents is all that we require, for further parts six coupons and ten cents will be asked. That will compel the new men to take the paper regularly every day. That is the why in a nutshell.

JERSEY'S TWO LEGISLATURES.

The Repeater Relating to Bookmaking on Enclosed Grounds Passed.

TRENTON, Jan. 30.—The illness of Senators Voorhees and Smith prevented the Republican senate from doing any business last night, as there was not a quorum present. They met in the room of the committee on judiciary, which has been furnished with new desks for the use of the eleven senators.

The Democratic senate was called to order in the senate chamber, and adjourned in the absence of a quorum. The house got down to business for the first time. There were fifteen partisan bills introduced last week engrossed and ready to be reported. The first taken up was the bill repealing the act permitting bookmaking on enclosed grounds. It was pushed to a final passage under a suspension of the rules. When the roll call began W. J. Thompson and ex-Speaker Flynn suddenly disappeared from their seats and did not vote. The result was the passage of the repealer by a vote of 40 to 4.

The Crow Land Safety.
GLOUCESTER, Mass., Jan. 29.—The fishing schooner Aberdeen, of Portland, Me., went ashore on the rocks of Cape Ann last night. Including Captain Davies there were fifteen men aboard the vessel. Owing to the heavy seas the life saving crew were unable to assist the sailors, who were compelled to jump overboard. All reached shore in safety. The vessel will be a total loss.

An Ex-Convict's Death.
PITTSBURG, Jan. 30.—John Costello, an ex-convict, shot his wife and 16-year-old daughter last night, because they refused to sleep in the house with him. Both will probably die. Three years ago Costello was sent to the penitentiary for criminally assaulting his daughter. His time expired last Saturday and he went home, but his wife refused him admission. He was arrested.

For Life and Two Years Longer.
TOLEDO, O., Jan. 30.—William Botts was sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years longer than his natural life by Judge Lemmon. He was convicted of having robbed a second hand store, and a life sentence was added under the habitual criminal law. This is the first sentence under the law in north-western Ohio.

A Schooner in Distress.
SHERBURY PARK, Jan. 30.—A three masted schooner is displaying distress signals and evidently dragging her anchor and drifting slowly in shore. The lights from the ship can be plainly seen from shore, but it is impossible to get out to her because of the surf, which is running higher as the hours go by.

Scalped by an Elevator.
TOLEDO, O., Jan. 30.—Julia Friedman, 16 years old, was literally scalped by the passenger elevator in the store of Julius Strauss, where she is employed. She was watching the elevator make an ascent and her head was jambed between the top of the car and the door. Her recovery is doubtful.

Family Murdered in Florida.
BURBANK, O., Jan. 30.—Word has been received here that Henry Sours and family, formerly of this place, have been murdered in Florida. Sours, it is said, won a big stake on the Corbett-Mitchell fight. The family moved to Florida two months ago.

Escaping Prisoner Caught.
BALTIMORE, Jan. 30.—John Kearney, who escaped from Clinton prison, Dannemora, N. Y., where he was serving a term for horse stealing, in October last, was arrested in this city yesterday.

To Restrain Carliete.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Senator Stewart has introduced a resolution declaring that in the judgment of the senate, Secretary Carliete is not clothed with the legal authority to issue bonds.

Mr. Childs Illness.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 30.—Bulletins received from the sick room of Mr. Childs, proprietor of The Ledger, state that there has been no change in his condition.

WORK AND SOCIETY.

The Two-Fold Strain on Delicate Women.

Unerring Symptoms of Nervous Weakness and Over-Fatigue. The Value of Paine's Celery Compound, the Remedy that Makes People Well.

In a recent number of the Queen, Mrs. Lynn Lynton writes, evidently from experience, of the dangers of overwork and too great nerve and mental pressure among delicate women.

"Only the exceptionally strong," says Mrs. Lynton, "can stand the strain of the two-fold life of work and society."

Social life, instead of bringing refreshment, brings a redoubting of anxieties and so much more to think of and so much more to arrange and manage. There are a thousand cares that the mother, the hostess and the careful house-keeper cannot share with others.

With more pretentious living, larger families, and with every fresh social duty comes the increase of nervous strain and a step nearer the breaking-down point. The great share of this pressure comes upon the anxious mistress of the household. She becomes irritable and hysterical. The most insignificant little trouble looms large and weighs heavy—all because she is breaking down, and the nervous strain is too much for her. She cannot eat, nor sleep, nor rest, nor work; her nervous organization has gone all to pieces. Of the thousands of such cases that Paine's Celery compound has cured, of the thousands of people in all classes of society who owe their present health and strength to this wonderful compound, first prescribed by Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth college, two women in the best society in Dexter, Mich., (whose portraits are given above), tell their friends of the virtues of the remedy.

Mrs. Belle Rodman writes: "I can certainly speak in favor of Paine's Celery compound. I have doctored more or less for about three years with our best doctor, and tried several remedies, with no benefit. Last summer I was advised to take Paine's Celery compound. I have taken about three or four bottles, and my sister, Allie Bennett, has taken it, too, about the same number of bottles, during the same length of time.

"I felt all run down, my liver troubled me, I had awful headaches and very bad periods of sickness that would leave me weak and pale and discouraged. Now I have improved in looks and flesh, and I have gained in many ways through the merits of Paine's Celery compound, and shall use it, as I am too young to be sick. I am 25 years old."

Mrs. Rodman, her sister, and the little girl are certainly healthy now, as the above photograph shows.

From all over the country come, every week, hundreds of similar testimonials, unsolicited. If one is weak or "run down," she should use Paine's Celery compound. It makes people well.
