HE COMMITTED SUICIDE!

The Cause and Its Lesson.

Why did he commit suicide? Oh! for the same reason that thousands of others are on the verge of the same sin, or in immediate danger of insanity, paralysis, idiocy, or some other equally unfortunate result of any nervous affection. He knew he was afflicted with a nervous disorder, but was careless, apparently indifferent to the outcome; or he may have lessened his chances for recovery by treating with physicians who had little or no knowledge of such affections, or by deluging himself with worthless so-called remedies. His case was a sad one, but no worse than that of any other nervous sufferer, who has nervous or sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, irritability, melancholy, failing memory, hot flushes, fainting, sleeplessness, nervous dyspepsia, sexual debility, epilepsy, etc. The same or similar consequences are likely to result to any one who has any of these advance symptoms of an awful end. Do not hesitate in getting rid of them by intelligent treatment. Dr. Franklin Miles, the celebrated specialist, has studied nervous diseases over 20 years, and has discovered the only reliable remedy for them. Thousands of voluntary testimonials prove the virtues of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine.

Alonzo Barker, of Clinton, S. Y., writes: "I was so afflicted with extreme nervousness that I was on the verge of insanity. My hands trembled so that I could scarcely feed myself. I used twelve bottles of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and was cured. It is with pleasure I recommend this wonderful remedy for nervous troubles."

"I had been a great sufferer from chronic headache until I began, about four months ago, to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and Pills, since which time I have not had a headache. Several of my friends are using Dr. Miles' Remedies, and did them, as I did, to be more than you claim for them."—Mrs. Mary Kister, Los Angeles, Cal.

W. H. Capwell, editor Tribune, Plymouth, Pa., writes: "My wife was cured of sick headache of many years' standing by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. She has recommended it to her friends, and they all praise it highly."

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is positively free from opiates or dangerous drugs. Dr. Miles' Pills, 50 doses, 25 cents. Free book at druggists, or by mail.

PROTECTING OUR SHIPS

Admiral Benham's Prompt Action at Rio Janeiro.

A WARNING TO ADMIRAL DA GAMA.

The American Ship Amy Escorted Up the Harbor by the Cruiser Detroit—A Blockade of American Vessels Will Not be Permitted.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Jan. 31.—The following statement has been made to the Associated Press correspondent by Admiral Benham, commander of the United States fleet in this harbor:

"The insurgent forces on Cobras Island last Friday fired upon a ship flying the United States flag. I protested to Admiral Saldanha da Gama against this action, and his response was that he had warned the commander of the ship when it was at the bar at Rio de Janeiro as to the whereabouts of the danger line. I ordered Admiral da Gama to cease the firing. Both the guns on the Island of Cobras and the guns of the insurgent warship Trajano opened fire Saturday upon the bark Agate, a vessel hailing from New York.

"I warned Admiral da Gama more than once that if the fire was repeated I would fire back. I also warned him that if he touched an American ship or American goods I would consider him a pirate. I told him that I would protect American property absolutely from the fire of his guns, and that I should retaliate upon him for any damage done unless it was entirely apparent that the damage was due to chance shots."

Admiral Benham says that he notified Admiral da Gama, unofficially, that firing by the insurgents upon the wharves for the purpose merely of creating terror and to prolong a blockade would not be permitted so far as Americans and American vessels were concerned. To this communication the insurgent admiral made no answer. The captains of three American vessels, Admiral Benham continues, intimated that they wanted to go to the wharves and the American admiral notified Admiral da Gama that it was his intention to convey them at sunrise on Monday. Fearing trouble, Admiral Benham ordered that the vessels of his fleet be cleared for action. The three ships referred to were the Amy, the Good News and the Julia Rollins.

The captains of two of the ships weakened and failed to come into the harbor. The Amy was the only one that ventured in, and she was escorted by the United States cruiser Detroit. As a precaution against any progressive action on the part of the insurgents the cruiser New York, Charleston and Newark were assigned to watch the action of Da Gama's ships Aquidaban and Tamandare, while the Detroit and the San Francisco were signalled to take positions near the Trajano and the Guanabara. These precautions certainly proved effective, and the insurgents, in the face of the formidable array of American vessels, made but the feeblest attempt to hinder the Amy's progress to her wharf. No guns were opened on her by Da Gama's vessels, and as a matter of course the American vessels did not fire upon the insurgents' ships. The insurgent protest consisted of this:

As the Amy got abreast of the Guanabara a marine on the last named vessel aimed a musket at her and fired. Two musket shots were fired at the Guanabara and the Trajano from the Amy's escort, the Detroit, in return. This was all the firing done during the Amy's trip, and it was enough. All opposition ceased at once, and the use of heavy guns was not considered necessary at any time. The reason that the other two ships which had notified Admiral Benham that they wished to go to their wharves failed to do so is that their commanders were persuaded from entering the harbor by a man named Rollins, who is believed to be the agent of an English firm which has been furnishing the rebels with money.

At a later hour Admiral da Gama conferred with his officers upon the advisibility of surrendering to the Detroit in consequence of the musket shots fired. He was dissuaded from doing so, but it is thought possible that he may yet decide to surrender to the American commander. There is no doubt that Admiral da Gama is in a bad way. A proposed compromise has been refused by Peixoto's government, and it seems to be only a matter of time when he will have to give up the struggle.

The complications of the insurgent situation are increased by the absence of Admiral de Mello. The failure of the latter admiral to arrive here to the assistance of the insurgent fleet has given rise to the report that he is dead. The commanders of sixteen warships here, including five American and four English and French, have sent messages to Admiral Benham congratulating him upon his prompt action. The Austrian commander cleared ship and made ready to help the American admiral in case help was necessary.

Alarming reports have been received here of government disasters at Curatiba, Paranagua and Antonina. It is stated that these places have been captured by the insurgents and that the government troops have fled, abandoning their arms and munitions of war.

BIG BIDS FOR BONDS.

New Yorkers Want Thirty Million Dollars Worth.

SOVEREIGN'S CASE THROWN OUT.

Judge Cox Declares That the Knights of Labor Have No Standing in Court, and Sustains the Legality of the Proposed Bond Issue.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Two telegrams were received by Secretary Carlisle from New York informing him that subscriptions to the amount of $30,000,000 would be made for the 5 per cent. ten year bonds which the secretary is to issue on the 1st of February. The secretary said that he had no doubt that the entire issue of $50,000,000 would be floated at the fixed price of 117.23 and upwards.

Judge Cox, of the supreme court of the District of Columbia, yesterday rendered his decision denying the application of General Master Workman Sovereign and General Secretary McGuire, representing the Knights of Labor, for an injunction to restrain the secretary of the treasury from issuing $50,000,000 gold bonds. The first question, the judge said, that suggested itself was what standing had these complainants in court. It was a well known principle of law that in cases of this character the complainants must show that the alleged illegal act would, if carried into execution, injuriously affect their property rights. He did not think that this had been shown.

The allegation was made in the bill that the Knights of Labor had a membership of over 300,000, and that the issue of the bonds would incur a public indebtedness of about $65,000,000, or $1 for each inhabitant of the country. This, the judge said, could only happen in case of a per capita or poll tax, and there is now in force no law of that character or any other levying a direct tax for the payment of public indebtedness. Neither had their been since 1861. The complainants had not shown that they would be taxed to pay the bonds on maturity, and therefore as tax payers they had no proper standing in court. The interest each one of the 65,000,000 people in the country had in any public debt was too infinitesimal to be seriously considered by any court.

The point that the Knights had a special and peculiar interest in this case by reason of the fact that a very large number of them were engaged in mining, in the opinion of the judge was not well taken. It was not even shown that they were mine owners, but only laborers. It would be just as competent for a number of factory hands to come to Washington and seek to prevent by legal process a tariff bill from being put into effect because of some provision inimical to their interests.

In his opinion there was no merit in the allegation that the proposed action of the secretary was a discrimination against silver, and therefore it was a matter in which the Knights of Labor had a peculiar and particular right. The title of their association indicated that it was an organization of laborers, and not even of mine owners. This part of the bill was, in his opinion, fatally defective. The question of whether the United States should pay its debts in gold or silver was not a question of law, but was a question of public policy, and it was not a matter in which the courts could properly interfere.

The Knights of Labor will appeal.
